Wanda J. Criger will present her senior flute recital Sunday (March 31) at 8:15 p.m. in the University of Montana Recital Hall.

The free public program features "Suite" by Widor, "Airs de Ballet d'Ascanio" by Saint-Saëns, "Sonate for Flote und Klavier (1936)" by Hindemith, and "Suite in B Minor for Flute and Strings" by J. S. Bach.

Miss Criger will be assisted by Linda Lee Thomas, pianist, and the Young Artists' String Quartet, made up of Kristin Forssen and Ilona Peckham, violinists; Heidi Syroid, violist, and Fred Inman, cellist.

Miss Criger is an applied music major and a flute student of Dean Charles W. Bolen. She has received the Elks' "most valuable student" award and University Honor, Haynes and other scholarships. She belongs to Alpha Lambda Delta women's scholastic honorary and Phi Kappa Phi national scholastic honorary.

The recitalist is reigning Montana College Queen this year. She has held offices in Mu Phi Epsilon professional music sorority and Delta Delta Delta social sorority and has been active in Associated Women Students. She belongs to the National Music Teachers Association and its state and local affiliates.

Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Criger of Sidney.
