"STRATEGY – A View From the Top"
By DeKluyver & Pearce
Objectives

The course objective is to expose the student to the elements of business strategy in the context of both traditional and special situations, especially dealing with contemporary movements and events. Thus, the concepts of Social Responsibility, International Impacts, Corporate Turnaround & Restructure and Human Factors are examined together with exposure to a broad spectrum of the major thinkers and commentators in the field of business.

Course Components

There are five major components of the course in addition to the lectures and readings in the text. The components and their final grade weights are as follows:

A. Team Project, Development and Presentation 30%
B. Author/Book Report – Special Project 20%
C. Broad Issue Test, Essay Questions, ½ Hour, Closed Book October 23rd 25%
D. Last Session Test, 1/2 Hour Multiple Choice/Blanks, Content of Text, Presentations, and Lectures, Closed Book 25%
E. Class Participation Extra Credit

Team Project

Teams will be assigned by the Instructor and given a topic, company or industry to study which is relevant to business strategy. Meetings will be held between the team and instructor during the semester to reflect on progress and what has been learned to that point. During the semester Presentations will be made by each team the week of December 7th.

Author/Book Report

An author, publication or topic will be assigned to each student from the attached list. On October 7th a one sheet, typed report, single spaced, 12 Font will be submitted. The report shall explain who the author is, the affiliation and general characteristics, e.g. conservative economist, strategist, originator of the theory of relativity, etc. Choose and explain the author’s views as exemplified by a book or articles. Close with one sentence explaining your impression or response.

The papers will be reproduced and a full set handed out to each student at a subsequent session. Students shall provide a verbal summary of their findings on October 7th. Quality of the paper submitted will count strongly in grading, and will include the originality of thinking and content as well as grammar and spelling.
The following list of authors represents a group of luminaries whose views impacted or are currently influencing business practice. In some instances the body of the work must be probed for relevance to Business Strategy.
