Law honorary initiates 12 in spring ceremony

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Recommended Citation
http://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/3500

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mail.lib.umt.edu.
MISSOULA---

Clayberg Inn chapter of Phi Delta Phi national law honorary, at the University of Montana initiated 12 new members in ceremonies at the law school recently.

Law professors Gardner Cromwell and Edwin Briggs, province president Henry Heckendorn and magister John Prater officiated at the initiation.

UM Pres. Robert Pantzer spoke at a banquet following the initiation. He talked about the lawyer's responsibility to his community and the challenge presented to a young lawyer who practices in a small Montana town.

Spring initiates of Phi Delta Phi include Terry Botsford, Fort Wayne, Ind.; Paul Bunn, Helena; Ted J. Doney, Libby; David Glico, Belt; James Masar, Caldwell, Idaho; John MacDougall, Portland, Ore.; Nicholas Roterling, Butte; Douglas Smith, Antigo, Wis.; Gary Spaeth, Silesia; James Vidal, Kalispell; Douglas Harkin and John Northey, Missoula.

New officers of the honorary are Ronald Waterman, Wisdom, Magister; Northey, Exchequer; Doney, Historian; Roterling, Clerk.

###