JUBILEERS TO TOUR

Not all University of Montana Jubileers are music majors but all of them must qualify for a minor in geography.

The well traveled singers have been booked by a professional agency for appearances in Idaho and Canada this weekend, according to their director, Dr. Joseph Mussulman. Their eight-week, 25,000-mile USO tour of military bases in the Pacific last November and December took them to Korea, Okinawa, Guam, Japan, the Philippines, Hawaii and Iwo Jima.

They will perform in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Friday (April 19); in Merritt, B. C., Saturday, and in Revelstoke, B. C., Sunday. Their program includes choral classics covering a wide range of periods and styles as well as folk songs and Broadway ballads.

The group's normal operating expenses are partially underwritten by the UM Alumni Association, but the Canadian trip will be entirely self supporting, Dr. Mussulman said. The tour is under the auspices of Overture Concerts, Vancouver, B. C.

Jubileers making the trip are Carol Ash, Butte; Nancy Johnson, Conrad; Robert Quist, Cut Bank; James Selway, Dillon; Nola Mundt, Glasgow; Marcia Olson and Judith Stowe, both of Great Falls; Ron Robertus, Laurel; Edd Blackler, Donald Collins, Douglas Dun nell, Gloria Phillip, Randy Schliebe, Nancy Senechal and Susan Volkel, all of Missoula; Dennis Ward, Moccasin, and Greg Devlin, Polson.
