MISSOULA--

Hal Stearns, publisher of the Harlowton Times, has been elected president of the University of Montana Alumni Association, Hugh Edwards, executive director of the association, has announced.

Stearns will serve from April 1, 1969, to March 31, 1970. He was elected by a vote of UM alumni who sent ballots to Missoula from all over the nation, Edwards said. Stearns was graduated from UM in 1936 and is a member of the association's Board of Directors.

Charles W. Jardine, who received his Bachelor of Law degree from UM in 1950, was elected to a three-year term as delegate-at-large in the same ballotting. Jardine is from Miles City.

Delegates from each of the state's 13 districts recently were elected to serve the UM Alumni Association for two-year terms. The delegates are: David Miller, Kalispell; Mrs. Bradley B. Parrish, Lewistown; Harvey L. Welch, Havre; F. Dale Cox, Glendive; Kenneth Wilson, Miles City; Kenneth Eames, Billings; the Hon. Jack D. Shanstrom, Livingston; James R. Graff, Helena; Clayton L. Huntley, Wisdom; Harold Garnaas, Missoula; Rae Kalbfleisch, Shelby; John R. Stelling, Deer Lodge; and Theodore Corontozos, Great Falls.
