MISSOULA—

Twenty-six religious leaders, including two from other states, have preregistered for the 1968 Churchman's Workshop to be held April 30 and May 1-2 at the University of Montana.

The workshop is last in a series of three in Montana sponsored under Title I (Community Development) of the Higher Education Act of 1965. Previous workshops were in Great Falls and Billings.

Dr. R. Wayne Pace, speech communication chairman at UM and coordinator of the Missoula workshop, said approximately 150 religious leaders, including both ministers and laymen, are expected for the three-day event.

Other preregistrations have included:

Helena--The Very Rev. Raymond D. Brown, Episcopal.
Kalispell--Rev. H. Peder Waldum, Bethlehem Lutheran.
Philipsburg--Rev. William A. Gildehaus, Presbyterian pastor.
Polson--Dr. William D. Copeland, Presbyterian.
Ronan--Rev. George S. Sanders, Methodist.
Seeley Lake--Rev. Harold A. Wylie, Presbyterian.
Townsend--Rev. Frank R. Grant, Methodist.
Denver, Colo.--Dr. Paul Hunsinger, Evangelical United Brethren, University of Denver.
