GRIZZLIES, BOBCATS RENEW TRACK RIVALRY
SATURDAY AT DORNBLASER FIELD

MISSOULA—

A long and exciting track rivalry between the University of Montana and Montana State University teams will be renewed Saturday at 11 a.m. at Dornblaser Field in Missoula.

Harley Lewis' Grizzlies are favored to win the meet, mostly on the strength of track events. The Cats will carry some edge in field events with the exception of the javelin throw and possibly the high jump and broad jump.

The Grizzlies won last year's meet in Bozeman by more than 10 points, and Lewis hopes his squad can do even better than that this year. The Bobcats won in 1965 and 1966 after the Grizzlies had dominated the event for some 30 years without a loss.

An interesting battle is developing in the 100-yard dash between two Grizzlies. Willie Jones of Monroe, Mich. has been the leader for the Tips for four years, but last Saturday, during the University of Montana Invitational, Jones was edged by .05 seconds by sophomore Roy Robinson of Glasgow. They will both run in the event Saturday.

Grizzly and Bobcat entries by events include:

100-yard dash—-Jones, Robinson and Bob Zins, UM; Jim Tillman, Ernie Hanson and Eric Brown, MSU.

220-yard dash—Zins, Jones and Tom Gopp, UM; Tillman, Hanson, Brown and Sandy Brown, MSU.
