MISSOULA---

Nearly 300 high school students from Montana and Canada will participate in the third annual Montana Model United Nations (MMUN) on the University of Montana campus May 9-11.

The students, representing member nations of the United Nations, will attend mock UN sessions and gain insight into the functions of the world organization, according to UM senior, Channing Hartelius of Power, who is MMUN Secretary General.

Addresses by U.S. Congressman James F. Battin and UM diplomat-in-residence, Eddie W. Schodt, are included in the agenda. Highlight of the session will be a banquet for all members at 6 p.m. Friday, May 10, in the Yellowstone Room of the UM Lodge.

President of the General Assembly will be Lynn D. Baker, a UM senior who is formerly of Miles City and now of Missoula.
