GRADE SCHOOL DEMONSTRATION
CLASS SET JUNE 17-JULY 17 AT UM

MISSOULA---

Prospective or experienced elementary school teachers as well as school administrators and supervisors will have an opportunity to observe a class of grade school pupils in action June 17-July 17 as part of the Demonstration Grade School Class at the University of Montana.

Through the cooperation of the Missoula City School System, an experienced classroom demonstration teacher will teach a class of Missoula youngsters, with assistance from experienced teachers who are seeking credit in student teaching.

A regular program of studies and activities will be carried on from 8:40 a.m. to noon each day in the Education Wing of the UM Liberal Arts Building.

The program, which is sponsored through the UM School of Education as a portion of UM Summer Session activities, also is open to all UM students.
