MISSOULA BAND DIRECTOR WINS NDEA FELLOWSHIP

MISSOULA--

Roy G. Lyman, director of bands for Missoula elementary schools, was recently named recipient of a National Defense Education Act (NDEA) fellowship.

The fellowship will cover cost of schooling and provide an additional sum of $12,000 approximately / for living expenses over a three-year period.

Dr. J. F. Rummel, Dean of the University of Montana School of Education, said these fellowships are awarded to individuals of outstanding merit for three academic years of graduate study leading to a doctor's degree at UM.

Lyman will be working toward the degree of Doctor of Education with special emphasis in music education.

His doctoral program will be developed cooperatively between the School of Education and the School of Fine Arts at UM.

Lyman will continue his association with the Missoula schools as a special consultant and coordinator of band and instrumental music programs in accordance with federal provisions of the fellowship grant and arrangements made with School District No. 1.
