MISSOULA--

A workshop on the teaching of money management will be offered by the Department of Home Economics at the University of Montana, Missoula, July 22-26. The workshop is a part of the curriculum of the UM Summer Session.

Subjects to be considered in the program include fraud, bankruptcy, sales pressures imposed on the consumer, planned expenditures versus compulsive spending, and current legislation in labeling and truth-in-lending. A study will be made of materials useful in teaching money management to various age groups.

Mrs. Vanetta Lewis, UM associate professor of home economics, is coordinator of the workshop.
