"MOLLY BROWN" OPENS SATURDAY NIGHT AT UM

MISSOULA--

"The Unsinkable Molly Brown," an American musical comedy by Meredith Willson, Saturday night joins two other Montana Repertory Theater productions being presented during summer session at the University of Montana.

Curtain time for the Willson musical is 8:30 p.m. in the University Theater. The three plays now being presented on alternate nights at UM include Murray Schisgal's comedy "Luv" and another production entitled "The Odd Couple."

A total of five stage productions are scheduled for the summer on the Missoula campus. Two others are Edward Albee's "A Delicate Balance" which opens July 6, and Aristophanes' anti-war farce "Lysistrata," which joins the MRT series July 19.
