MAURY TO PRESENT PIANO
RECITAL JULY 9 AT U

MISSOUA---

Lowndes Maury, a University of Montana alumnus and visiting professor of composition and music in the UM graduate school, will present a piano sonata recital at 8:15 p.m. July 9 in the Music Recital Hall on the Missoula campus.

Maury, a native of Butte, graduated from UM in 1931. He attended the Chicago Musical College and the Malkin Conservatory, Boston, where he studied under the German master, Arnold Schoenberg.

Maury composed a cantata with text by Walt Whitman, "Proud Music of the Storm," for the opening of the UM Music Building in 1953. During the Montana Centennial in 1965, Maury was cited by Gov. Tim Babcock, when he conducted the UM Symphony Orchestra in one of his own works.

Maury's sonata recital includes works by Scarlatti, Ginastera, Haydn and Beethoven. The sonatas are illustrative of Viennese and Latin music, Maury said.

The recital is open to the public without charge.
