MISSOULA--

Attorneys will register Monday (July 22) at the University of Montana for a short course on estate planning.

Registration will be from 8-9 a.m. in room 101 of the Law School Building, the office of Robert E. Sullivan, dean of the UM School of Law.

The short course for lawyers is scheduled for July 22-27 and is being offered under the program entitled Continuing Legal Education--Montana (CLEM) at UM. The course is sponsored by the Montana Bar Association and the School of Law on the Missoula campus.

First formal session of the short course will be at 9:10 a.m. Monday in room 131 of the law building. At the first session Lester R. Rusoff, UM professor of law, will review wills, trusts and future interests, relative to estate planning. All sessions have been scheduled for room 131.

Guest speakers during the short course will include William J. Bowe, a University of Colorado law professor who also is tax counsel for the State Farm Life Insurance Co. He will discuss the marital deduction at 9:10 a.m. July 24. At 9:10 a.m. July 25 Bowe will discuss the disposition of business interests and life insurance in estate planning.

Other speakers slated to participate in the CLEM program are James F. Farr, a partner in Haussermann, Davison & Shattuck, Boston, Mass., and Dale Forbes, a partner in Church, Harris, Johnson & Williams, Great Falls. Wendell M. Basye, professor of law at the University of Oregon, also will participate in the discussion sessions.

Recreation available includes visits to the Lewis and Clark Caverns, the Moiese Bison Range and the Historic mining towns of Virginia City, Butte and Helena. Weekend pack trips into the Bob Marshall Wilderness area with experienced guides and packers are scheduled July 19-21 and July 26-28.
