HIGH SCHOOL FINE ARTS CAMP
IS JULY 28-AUG. 9

MISSOULA---

Nearly 200 high school students from several states and Canada will arrive at the University of Montana, Missoula, Sunday (July 28) for the orientation sessions of the two-week Montana High School Fine Arts Camp.

Their arrival will trigger a burst of artistic activity that will peak in a series of public performances beginning Aug. 4 with an outdoor orchestra and chorus concert set for 3 p.m. in the UM Clover Bowl (across from Music Recital Hall).

The students will also present a chamber music concert Aug. 7 and a final concert of the band, orchestra, chorus and ballet, and a drama workshop production both Aug. 9.

Official fine arts camp dates are July 29-Aug. 9.

Under the tutelage of staff experts, the young artists will spend two weeks specializing in a major interest and sampling allied arts.

Directors of camp study areas are Richard B. Reinholtz, UM, art; Dr. Joseph Mussulman, UM, chorus; Myron Russell, Northern Iowa University, Cedar Falls; and Avery Glenn, Billings, Mont., public schools, band; Dr. Florence Reynolds, UM, and Zaven Melikian, San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, chamber music; Roger DeBourg, UM, drama; Dana Bunnell, UM, dance; Walter Green, San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, orchestra, and J.
