MISSOULA--

A high school student and a university student from Montana will represent the state in music competition at the Western Division of the National Music Teachers Association convention Aug. 5-8 in Tempe, Ariz.

The high school student is Lora Le Christensen, a student at Drummond High School, and the University student is Barbara Myrick of Butte, who attends Montana State University, Bozeman. Both are pianists.

Each student won state auditions recently at the University of Montana, Missoula, during the 41st annual Montana State Music Teachers Association / Music Week.

Miss Christensen is a student of Mrs. Evelyn Lindblad of Anaconda and Miss Myrick is a student of Henry C. Campbell, an associate professor of music at MSU. (MSMTA)

Miss Christensen won the high school competition with several numbers, including Beethoven's Sonata, Opus 2, No. 3; Impromptu Opus 142, No. 3, by Schubert, and Passacaglia by Copland.

Miss Myrick won the college division in the state competition on the Missoula campus with the first movement of Bach's Italian Concerto, two movements of Beethoven's Sonata in A Major, Opus 101, and Brah'm's Intermezzo in B Flat Minor.
