MISSOULA--

Karen (Kory) Hellmer will replace Cheryl Sue Hutchinson as publications editor at the University of Montana Information Services, according to Lawrence D. Stuart, Information assistantship Services director. Miss Hutchinson has accepted a graduate / in journalism at UM.

Miss Hellmer will be replaced as UM coordinator of events by M. Pat Smirnoff. The changes are effective on October 1.

Miss Hellmer, a native of Lynnfield, Mass., was graduated from St. Lawrence University in Canton, N.Y., in 1964. She taught high school English in Wilmington, Mass., before assuming a post as editorial assistant in the UM graduate school in 1967. She became coordinator of events in July, 1968.

Miss Hutchinson, a 1966 graduate of the University, will study journalism with cognate assistantship study in art and an emphasis on the graphic arts under the / awarded her by the UM School of Journalism.

Miss Hutchinson assumed her post as UM publications editor after her graduation. She has developed a wide range of new informational and promotional materials, both internal and external, with new and modern graphic patterns. Her Total Information Packet for UM earned an award of excellence at the 1967-68 American College Public Relations Association convention in Seattle, Wash., last year.

Pat Smirnoff is a native of Rolla, N.D. She was graduated from the University of North Dakota at Grand Forks in 1968. Her husband Steve will do graduate work in journalism at UM this fall.

As the first full-time coordinator of events at UM, Smirnoff will publish the campus calendar and keep a daily list of events on the University campus. ###
