GRIZZLIES LAND ANOTHER CAGER
FROM WASHINGTON ALL-STATE JC TEAM

MISSOULA—

Coach Bob Cope added another big forward to his 1968-69 basketball squad Monday when he announced the signing of Howard Clark of Everett, Wash. College.

Clark is a 6-6, 225-pounder whose hometown is Kansas City, Mo. He played for Coach Bill Rowan at Lincoln High School in Kansas City.

Cope said that Clark averaged 13.5 points per game in 27 contests last season on his way to being named to the All-Washington Junior College team. He pulled down 344 rebounds during the season, for a 12.8 average.

"Howard has good quickness and strength," Cope reported. "He's an outstanding prospect for our ball club."

Cope and his assistant, Lou Rocheleau, will get their first look at the varsity hopefuls Oct. 15.
