GLASGOW WOMAN'S BEQUESTS TO UM EXCEED $18,000

MISSOULA---

A prominent Glasgow woman has bequeathed money and property valued at more than $18,000 to the University of Montana, Missoula.

Benefactress of three bequests to the University, through the UM Foundation, is the late Mrs. Florence Fennessy Friedlund, who died in her Glasgow home July 16.

Most valuable of the three gifts is the bequest of 160 acres of farmland 12 miles southwest of Glasgow. Estate executor Paul E. Hoffmann, Glasgow attorney, said the property is estimated to have a value in excess of $10,000. The UM Foundation also will receive one-fourth of the crop-share payments realized from the land. This year, Hoffmann indicated, that is expected to amount to about $500.

Mrs. Friedlund, widow of the late Arthur B. Friedlund, who died in 1956, bequeathed $3,000 to the UM Foundation to set up the Arthur B. Friedlund Banking Loan Fund in her husband's memory. The fund would be available to students contemplating a banking career. Selection of beneficiaries are to be made by faculty of the UM School of Business Administration. Special consideration will be given students from Valley County.

A third bequest to the Foundation from the late Mrs. Friedlund is for $5,000 to set up and maintain the Friedlund Scholarship Loan Fund, to be used by music students in the UM School of Fine Arts. Selection of recipients will be made by music faculty members.

Mrs. Friedlund was a well known piano teacher in Glasgow for many years. Her husband was employed by the First National Bank, Glasgow, from 1914 until his death in 1956. He served as bank president from 1943-56.
