MISSOULA---

George L. Mitchell, administrative vice president at the University of Montana, was recently selected to serve as chairman of the Education Council of the Missoula Chamber of Commerce.

Announcement of Mitchell's appointment was made by Sam Yewusiak, executive assistant of the Chamber.

A graduate of the University of Arizona, Tucson, Mitchell received his bachelor of laws degree from UM in 1962. Before being promoted to administrative vice president in September, 1968, Mitchell served as an assistant professor in the UM School of Business Administration and as the University's resident administrator for the Minuteman Education Program at Malmstrom Air Force Base.

The Education Council will be concerned with the educational aspects of the Chamber. One project will be an orientation program for Missoula teachers of commerce.

The council will help the YMCA and other local youth groups to set up a Youth Employment Service Program. It also plans to conduct studies on the high school and grade school bond issues.
