10-2-1968

Many University of Montana alumni may hear Powell speak Thursday

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Recommended Citation
http://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/4023

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mail.lib.umt.edu.
MISSOULA---

Many University of Montana alumni may hear Adam Clayton Powell speak Thursday night on the Missoula campus.

The Negro leader, who represented the 18th District of New York (Harlem) in Congress until he was expelled from the House of Representatives months ago, will present the first lecture of the academic year in the Lecture-Artist Series sponsored by the Program Council of the Associated Students at UM. Powell speaks at 8:15 p.m. Thursday (Oct. 3) in the University Theater.

Oct. 4-5 is Homecoming Weekend at UM, and hundreds of University alumni are expected to participate in weekend activities. Local alumni and early arrivals from more distant cities will have an opportunity to hear Powell's lecture, which is open to the public without charge.

Powell is scheduled to arrive from Spokane at Johnson-Bell Field west of Missoula on Northwest Airlines flight 478 at 11:13 a.m. Thursday. Several interviews between Powell and news media have been scheduled.