MISSOULA—

Monday, Oct. 14, is the deadline for filing applications for Fulbright awards for graduate study abroad in 1969-70, according to Dr. Merrel D. Clubb, University of Montana Fulbright adviser.

Full awards, joint U.S. and foreign government awards and travel-only awards are available to more than 950 American graduate students in 50 countries.

Information and application forms may be obtained from Dr. Clubb, a UM English professor, in Room 231 of the UM Liberal Arts building.

A limited number of Marshall Scholarships for 1969-71 also are available for study in British universities, Dr. Clubb said.

Deadline for filing applications forms to the appropriate regional center is Oct. 22, but applications should be sent as soon as possible before that date.

Information is available from Dr. Clubb.
