MISSOULA—

Cadet Col. Richard T. Mirehouse, Augusta, recently was named commander of the Air Force ROTC cadet unit for fall quarter at the University of Montana, Missoula. Mirehouse’s right-hand man in the unit is Cadet Lt. Col. Larry T. Huggins, who has been appointed cadet executive officer.

Col. Jack Swayze, UM professor of aerospace studies on the Missoula campus, made the appointments. Selection was based on academic achievement, summer camp performances and leadership abilities.

Mirehouse is son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilman H. Mirehouse of Augusta and Huggins is son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Huggins, 3219 S. 17th St. W., Missoula.

Young Huggins is a former Grizzly football star. He was co-captain of the 1967 UM team and was named all-conference first-string defensive end in the Big Sky Conference a year ago, before completing his athletic eligibility. He is winding up AROTC requirements.
