6TH ARMY COMMANDING
GENERAL VISITS UM

MISSOULA--

Lt. Gen. Stanley R. Larsen, commanding general of the U.S. 6th Army, visited the Army ROTC Department at the University of Montana Thursday as part of a command inspection tour of several military installations in Montana and Idaho.

While on the Missoula campus, Gen. Larsen also talked briefly with UM President Robert T. Pantzer and other University administrators.

As 6th Army commander, Gen. Larsen is responsible for all reserve and active army activities in eight western states comprising the 6th Army area.

Gen. Larsen was commanding general of the 8th Infantry Division in Europe from 1962-64 and served in Vietnam from 1965-67. He has been 6th Army commander since July.
