GOVERNOR'S LUNCHEON
OPEN TO PUBLIC

MISSOULA---

A noon luncheon at the University of Montana, featuring Gov. Forrest Anderson as keynote speaker, has been opened to the public.

The luncheon will be in the Five Valleys Room of the new University Center.

The luncheon, previously open by invitation only, is one of several events scheduled for the grand opening this weekend of the new $4.3-million Center and in recognition of the University's 76th anniversary.

Also speaking during the luncheon will be UM President Robert T. Pantzer and Edward J. Leary, president of the Associated Students at UM.

Tickets to the luncheon may be obtained at $2 each in the foyer of the Five Valleys Room on the third floor of the Center.
