Kristin E. Forssen, Missoula senior at the University of Montana, will present an oboe recital Monday (Feb. 10) at 8:15 p.m. in the Recital Hall.

Miss Forssen will be assisted by Linda Rhein, pianist; George Andrix, violinist; the Young Artists String Quartet and the Montana Chamber Players. Miss Rhein is a UM music major, and Mr. Andrix is director of the Missoula County High School Orchestra.

Miss Forssen plays first violin with the Young Artists String Quartet. Other members are Gerhard Wolter, violin; Heidi Syroid, viola, and Fred Inman, cello. They will perform Mozart's Quartet No. 30, F major, K. 370.

The recitalist is an applied music major in oboe and will play oboe in the other works. She will be assisted by Miss Rhein in Sonate (1938) by Hindemith and by Andrix and the Montana Chamber Players in Concerto for Violin, Oboe and String Orchestra.

The chamber orchestra is made up of UM faculty and students and Jeff Showell, Hellgate High School. Members from the University are Eugene Andrie, Gerald Doty, Mary Mader, Linda Ring, Erika Syroid, Heidi Syroid, Gerhard Wolter, violins; Lucien Hut, harpsichord; Jerry Mader and Showell, violas; Kim Forssen and Kenneth Grant, cellos, and Fred Inman, bass.

Miss Forssen is a member of the Missoula Symphony and the Montana Little Symphony. She belongs to Pi Kappa Lambda, national music honor society; Mu Phi Epsilon, national music sorority, and Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honorary. She has held several scholarships, including the Young Artists String Quartet scholarship and the University Honor scholarship.

Her senior recital Monday will partially meet requirements for the bachelor of music degree. The public is invited, according to Laurenc Perry, chairman of the Music Department.

Miss Forssen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Forssen of Missoula.
