Course description: An overview of the description, interpretation, and evaluation of visual art as practiced in the discipline of art criticism. Both traditional and postmodern critical approaches to art will be considered with an emphasis on contemporary art criticism. Students will read a range of past and present art critics and write several examples of art criticism based on direct observation of contemporary art works.

Learning Objectives:
• Develop improved observation and analysis of art
• Comprehend and use various interpretive perspectives
• Develop and apply aesthetic evaluative criteria to contemporary art
• Become familiar with contemporary artists and art works through first-hand viewing and careful reading of art criticism
• Improve communication skills through writing brief responses to weekly questions, and writing and revising two argumentative or persuasive essays and three 5-page papers

Pre-requisites for Course: ARTH 200H and ARTH 201H with C- or better grade. Students majoring in Art are required to have earned a grade of C.

Requirements for Course: You are expected to attend lectures. Students will complete all assignments in order to earn credit for the class. Students are expected to keep copies of all assigned work. Students will utilize Moodle at http://umonline.umt.edu/ for course syllabus, lectures, assignments, other course materials, announcements, and grades.

Late Work: Late work should not exist; turn in work on the due date indicated at Moodle and/or on the assignment document. Sometimes, however, life gets in the way and then you need a LATE PASS. Every student gets one (1) LATE PASS. The LATE PASS is a piece of paper on which you have artistically requested a one-week extension for your work. You may submit the LATE PASS to me in person or by email anytime prior to the assignment due date. You need not supply a reason; every student gets one LATE PASS, no questions asked.

I would recommend that you save your LATE PASS for an assignment with a lot of points. It doesn't make sense to use your LATE PASS for the 10-point Weekly Writing Assignments. In addition, the LATE PASS is not valid for Sidecar activities and assignments.

After you have used your LATE PASS, any late work will be penalized five (5) points/day. For example, if you use your LATE PASS to provide more time for the Library Assignment, and then submit a Weekly Writing Assignment one day late, you will have only five (5) possible points to earn.

Finally, if after using your LATE PASS, you become ill or a victim of an emergency, you should contact me as soon as possible to discuss your options.

Classroom Etiquette: Please arrive on time to class. Prepare to sit down for the duration of class. Silence your phone and/or other digital devices and pay attention to what is happening in the classroom. If you are using a laptop computer, focus on classroom activities, especially if other students can see your screen. Remember to engage with others in a respectful manner. Check out the College Classroom Etiquette
Hints for How to Study: For each hour of class time, you will benefit from at least two (2) hours of outside study time when you will review handouts and class-time notes, check Moodle updates and websites, and read your textbook. Check out the following helpful advice in order to prepare for success.

Academic Misconduct and the Student Conduct Code: All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at http://www.umt.edu/vpsa/policies/student_conduct.php.

What is plagiarism?
Plagiarism is the representing of another's work as one's own. It is a particularly intolerable offense in the academic community and is strictly forbidden. Students who plagiarize may fail the course and may be remanded to Academic Court for possible suspension or expulsion. (See Student Conduct Code that follows in this section of the catalog.)

Students must always be very careful to acknowledge any kind of borrowing that is included in their work. This means not only borrowed wording but also ideas. Acknowledgment of whatever is not one's own original work is the proper and honest use of sources. Failure to acknowledge whatever is not one's own original work is plagiarism.
