The first home competition this spring for the University of Montana tennis team will start at 11:30 a.m. Saturday on the UM tennis courts with the Missoula Tennis Club providing the opposition.

Team captain Steve Meloy, senior from Helena, said that seven Grizzly netters will get into action during the match.

Playing in singles matches, in order, will be Rick Ferrell, Spokane, Wash., sophomore; Brian Kekich, Missoula junior; Meloy; Fred King, Rochester, Minn. junior; Bud Schatz, Missoula junior, and Gary Israel, New York City freshman.

Doubles teams will be Kekich-Meloy, number one; Ferrell-Israel, number two, and King-Kerry Bunker, Great Falls sophomore, number two.

The complete squad for the Missoula Tennis Club was not available, but Meloy said five of its players would be John Alexander of Great Falls; Randy Jacobs, Mike Hale and Gary Chumrau of Missoula, and Ron Wendte of Billings.

Alexander and Wendte are former UM players, while Hale and Chumrau compete on the high school level in Missoula. Jacobs played collegiately at Whitman College in Washington.

The Grizzlies are 2-3 after their trip into Washington and Idaho last week.
