University of Montana gridgers will wrap up spring drills for 1969 with the annual intrasquad contest Saturday at 2 p.m. at Dornblaser Stadium.

More than 60 prospects have been working hard since April 29, and Coach Jack Swarthout and his staff are eager to see the results Saturday.

"We had our best game scrimmage of the spring last Saturday," Swarthout said. "We're looking forward to a greater showing this weekend."

The third-year head mentor said the game will include everything but kickoffs. As of Tuesday, no decision had been made about how the team will be divided.

Admission will be charged for the contest, with adult tickets going for one dollar and grade and high school students being admitted for 50 cents. UM students will be admitted free with a student card.
