Among the planned summer session recreation/activities at the University of Montana is a trip to four ghost towns in Montana Saturday (June 23).

Sites to be visited are Garnet, Granite, Southern Cross and Cable, all between Philipsburg and Anaconda. The event is open to the general public as well as to summer session students, faculty and their families.

Meeting place is the parking lot behind UM Main Hall. Participants should dress casually and bring a sack lunch.

Transportation will be provided in university automobiles for $5 a person. Those who wish may drive their own cars.

The day will be highlighted by a buffet dinner at the Marcus Daly Hotel in Anaconda. A $2.50 charge is required.

Saturday's schedule follows. Leave Missoula, 7 a.m.; arrive Garnet, 9 a.m.; leave Garnet, 10 a.m.; arrive Philipsburg for brief stop, 11:30 a.m.; arrive Granite for lunch stop, 12:30 p.m.; leave Granite, 2 p.m.; arrive Southern Cross, 3 p.m.; leave Southern Cross, 3:30 p.m.; arrive Cable, 4:15 p.m.; leave Cable, 4:45 p.m.; arrive Anaconda, 5:30 p.m.; dinner at Marcus Daly Hotel, 6 p.m.; leave Anaconda, 7 p.m., and arrive Missoula, 9 p.m.
