FRANKLIN ORTH TO SPEAK
AT U CENTER TUESDAY

MISSOULA--

Franklin L. Orth, one of the foremost experts on rifles and firearms legislation, will speak Tuesday (July 29) at the University of Montana.

The 62-year-old executive vice-president of the National Rifle Association will present his speech entitled "Alice in the Legislative Wonderland: Gun Control Laws" in the University Center at 8:15 p.m.

The speech will focus on the issue of firearms legislation, a bill which his organization lobbied against in the U.S. Congress.

Orth's speech at UM is part of the UM summer session lecture program.

TWO OUTDOOR TRIPS
FOR AUG. 1-3 STILL OPEN FOR PARTICIPATION

MISSOULA--

Two outdoor events planned by the University of Montana summer session for Friday through Sunday (Aug. 1-3) are still open to the public.

A pack trip to Big Salmon Lake in the Bob Marshall Wilderness area will leave the University Center at 8:30 a.m. Friday. A $45 fee includes all expenses.

A backpack hike, also set for Aug. 1-3, will go into the Mission Mountains. It will leave the University Center at 12:30 p.m. Friday. Cost is $5 a person.

Persons interested in either of the trips are urged to sign up now at the University Center Information Desk. Those interested also may phone 243-4103.
