For the first time since Jack Swarthout took over as head football coach at the University of Montana in 1967, the Grizzlies will have season captains rather than those appointed on a game-by-game basis.

Tri-captains for UM football '69 will be senior quarterback Ray Brum of Honolulu, Haw., senior offensive tackle Tuufuli Uperesa of Aiea, a Honolulu suburb, and junior defensive end Jim Nordstrom of Vancouver, Wash.

The selection of two offensive captains resulted because of a tie between Brum and Uperesa. Nordstrom was selected by his defensive teammates. Voting took place following the final major scrimmage Saturday.

All three are one-year lettermen with the Grizzlies, and all were 1968 starters.
