10-8-1969

Fine artist classes for youngsters start Saturday

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Recommended Citation
http://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/5172

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mail.lib.umt.edu.
FINE ARTS CLASSES
FOR YOUNGSTERS
START SATURDAY

Fine arts classes for children from preschool ages 3-5 through 8th grade will be directed at the University of Montana beginning Saturday by Richard B. Reinholtz, a UM associate professor of art.

Areas of instruction will include sculpture, photography, drawing, painting, printmaking and film making and other media. This is the third year for the classes, which were started by Reinholtz. A special section will be offered for advanced students.

Classes will meet eight Saturdays from 9:30-11:30 a.m. in the Fine Arts Building beginning Oct. 11 and ending Dec. 6. A fee of $4 will cover all expenses.

Further information may be obtained from the art department office at UM, 243-4181, or from Reinholtz, 243-2781.