Esther England, a visiting voice instructor in the University of Montana music department, will be featured in a faculty recital Sunday (Nov. 30) on campus.

The recital, which is scheduled for 8:15 p.m. in the UM Music Recital Hall, is open to the public without charge. The event is sponsored by the UM School of Fine Arts and the Department of Music.

Miss England, who is a mezzo soprano, will be accompanied in her performance by pianist Rudolph Wendt, a UM music professor.

The singer received her bachelor's degree in music at the University in 1966. She was a Metropolitan Opera auditions winner in 1965 and she won a Fulbright Scholarship to study in Germany in 1966.

Miss England was an alto soloist for the Bavarian Rundfunk Choir in Munich from 1967-69 and she also filled other operatic roles during her stay in Germany.

Her numbers Sunday at the University will feature German selections by Schubert, Schumann, Brahms, Wagner and Wolf. Other music will include "Prison" and "Toujours" by Faure, "Dido's Lament" by Purcell and a number by Tchaikovsky.
