MONTANA POWER

We care
Coach Jud Heathcote

Jud Heathcote is in his third year as head coach of the University of Montana Grizzlies. In his first year Heathcote guided the Grizzlies to their first winning season since 1965-66. The Tips wound up 14-12 and were at the top of the Big Sky Conference with two weekends to go in the season. Injuries to two key players resulted in a disastrous road trip that ruined Montana’s title aspirations. Last year guard Robin Selvig underwent knee surgery two weeks before the season and the Grizzlies never got untracked. They finished with a 13-13 record. Heathcote’s 27 wins in two years represents the best back-to-back win total UM has had since moving into Adams Fieldhouse in 1953. Heathcote came to the University from Washington State. At WSU he served as varsity assistant and frosh coach. His freshman teams compiled a 99-9 record and the Cougar varsity placed second in the tough Pacific 8 Conference three times.

Assistant Coach Jim Brandenburg

This is Jim Brandenburg's fourth season at the University of Montana. In his initial season he served as varsity assistant under Lou Rocheleau. He took over the task of coaching the frosh team as well as being varsity assistant when Jud Heathcote replaced Rocheleau. Brandenburg's two freshman teams have a combined 28-8 record, 17-1 in 1971-72 and 11-7 last year. Before coming to Montana Brandenburg coached at Flathead Valley Community College where he led FVCC to a 23-4 record in the school’s first season of basketball. He compiled an impressive 171-46 prep record at Luther Burbank High in Texas and Hinkley High in Colorado before entering the collegiate ranks.

Assistant Frosh Coaches

Former Grizzly players Dale Parker and Mike Murray are serving as assistant coaches with the freshman basketball team. Parker, who is 27-years old, was a two-year starter at forward and won the Naseby Rhinehart Most Inspirational Player Award last year. Murray was a two-time All-Big Sky selection at guard and last year’s Most Valuable Player. The 22-year old is the tenth highest scorer in the University’s history. They bring youth, playing experience and enthusiasm to the Grizzly coaching staff.

This Weekend's Games

The 1973 segment of the Grizzlies 1973-74 basketball campaign comes to a close Friday and Monday nights when the Vikings of Portland State University and the Scots of Macalester College (St. Paul, Minnesota) invade Adams Fieldhouse.

Two wins would give the Grizzlies a winning 5-4 slate for the first portion of the season and momentum for when they begin Big Sky Conference play January 4.

A desire to avenge an early season 66-64 loss to the Vikings will spur the Tips Friday night. In the first meeting of the teams Montana was outrebounded by a smaller PSU squad and the Grizzlies will be out to reverse that situation, as well as the final score, Friday night.

Ed Buchanan, a 6-4 senior guard, has been the Vikings leading scorer through 10 games with a 15 point average. PSU began the season with a rush, but four straight losses, including contests with Montana State Monday and the College of Great Falls Wednesday, have evened the Viking record at 5-5.

Macalester won four of its first six games. The Scots will be a little travel weary when they come to Missoula. They played in Hawaii December 21 and 24 and plan to drive to Missoula after playing in the Chico (Calif.) Invitational Thursday, Friday and Saturday (Dec. 27-29). Eric Anderson leads the Scots in scoring with an 18 point average. Quitman Pinkett has a 12 point average.

The Grizzlies gained an important victory over Seattle University last Thursday. The Tips received balanced scoring—four players in double figures—and fine floor games from the guards. The win broke a long skein of road losses for the Tips and moved them into a position where they can finish 1973 with a winning record.

Ken McKenzie continues to lead UM in scoring and rebounding with respective averages of 24.6 and 11.4. Larry Smedley is the only other player averaging in double figures with a 10.0 scoring mark.

Next for The Grizzlies

Big Sky Conference play begins next weekend with the Grizzlies making a swing through Idaho for games with Idaho State (Pocatello) and Boise State (Boise). Coach Jud Heathcote believes the Grizzlies can be contenders for the Big Sky championship, but to do so his team must win some away games with league teams. Both ISU and BSC have strong teams and the Friday and Saturday encounters give the Grizzlies a chance to prove they are contenders. Montana’s next home games are January 18 and 19 against the College of Great Falls and Puget Sound.

Class AA State Basketball Tournament

Tickets for the 1974 Class AA Basketball Tournament, which will be held in Adams Fieldhouse March 7, 8 and 9, are currently on sale in the Fieldhouse Ticket Office. Single game and season tickets are available. Missoula Sentinel’s Spartans are the defending champs.

Grizzly Press Brochures

The 1973-74 Grizzly Basketball brochure is being sold for $1.00 by members of the University’s women’s basketball team. The brochure has complete information on the players, the 1973-74 opponents and contains the school basketball records.
With a fine view of the University, the only thing we overlook, is the beautiful Clark Fork River. Good Luck Jud Heathcote and the Grizzlies!

Coach: Doug Bolstorff
Ken Edwards is in his second year as head basketball coach at Portland State University after taking over in June of 1972. Regarded as a strong recruiter as an assistant under Bob Miller at Los Angeles State and Jerry Tarkanian at Long Beach State, Edwards has done a remarkable rebuilding job.

The native of Butte hit the recruiting trail hard after PSU's 12-12 1972-73 season and garnered a host of new players. He brought in six standout junior college players from California and four fine freshman prospects.

Edwards is a 1967 graduate of the University of Nevada at Las Vegas and earned three basketball letters during his undergrad playing days.

100 YEARS

1974 marks the anniversary of the Macalester College Charter. Macalester's history began 100 years ago with a man who persevered to see his dream of a fine college become a reality.

In 1874 Macalester College came into being, after 22 long years of preparation and persistence on the part of Edward D. Neill, a Presbyterian minister and former wartime secretary to President Lincoln.

The St. Paul, Minnesota, school has grown to a student body of 2,000 and a faculty of 161. Macalester has seen many changes and now has a high percentage of minority students, educational flexibility, many foreign students, a number of new departmental and inter-disciplinary majors as well as a special interim term in January—in which students work on independent projects, often off campus.

University of Montana Athletic Director Jack Swarthout receives the keys to four automobiles during a break in press day activities which annually take up the first day of fall football practice at UM. The cars will be used for recruiting and other travel purposes during the next year and are courtesy of the Wes Sprunk automobile dealership. Handing the keys to Swarthout, who doubles as football coach at UM, is Wesley G. Sprunk.

Some people might need to be coaxed with more than a full college scholarship to join the Air Force ROTC. So, if free tuition, lab and incidental fees aren’t enough... the Air Force offers a monthly allowance of $100.00, tax-free, in your junior and senior years. And free flying lessons to those qualified provide the most exciting fringe benefit of all.
