Robin
Selvig

Robin Selvig has compiled an impressive 54-31 record in his three years as head coach of the University of Montana women's basketball team. Last season's 22-8 record was the best in the school's history. A first place finish in the Mountain Division of the Northwest Women's Basketball League earned the team a berth in the playoffs for the third straight year. Selvig's teams have also led the NWBL in team defense the last three years, allowing just 55.5 points per game last year.

Selvig graduated from the University of Montana in 1974, playing four years for the Grizzlies. As a senior, he was a second-team All-Big Sky Conference selection and won the University's top athletic award, the Grizzly Cup. He was named the best defensive player on the UM team that year.

Jill
Greenfield

Jill Greenfield is entering her first year as assistant coach of the University of Montana women's basketball team.

Greenfield concluded an outstanding two year career with the Grizzlies last season. She practically rewrote the UM record book, claiming nine season and career records.

Greenfield will be the assistant coach of the varsity squad.

Annette
Whitaker

Annette Whitaker is entering her first season as assistant coach of the University of Montana women's basketball team.

Whitaker had been a starting guard for the Grizzlies the last two seasons. She also served as one of the Grizzlies' tri-captains last season.

Whitaker will be the head coach of the junior varsity team.
