WHITEMAN NAMED TO NATIONAL COUNCIL ON ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Henrietta V. Whiteman, director and professor of Native American Studies at the University of Montana, has been appointed to a two-year term on the Council on Academic Affairs of the College Board.

The council advises and makes recommendations on efforts to acquaint school and college faculty with the work of the College Board and to increase the participation of faculty members in program development, forum activities, and policy formulation.

The board is a non-profit, educational association serving students, schools, and colleges through programs designed to expand educational opportunity. Its members are more than 2,500 secondary and higher education institutions and schools, systems and association, and its programs assist the school-to-college transition of some 2.5 million students each year.
