A team effort . . .

Getting sufficient electricity to our customers is a team effort. We are helping to develop resources, including electrical energy, to provide jobs and opportunities for Montana’s young people who wish to continue to make the Big Sky Country their home. In the 1970’s, there will be 144,000 Montanans reaching age 21. They will require adequate electricity. So will the rest of us.
Coach Jud Heathcote

Jud Heathcote has guided the Grizzlies to a 46-33 record in his first three years as UM's basketball coach. He hopes to add considerably to the win total with this season's veteran team.

Last year he led the Tips to a 19-8 season, the best record for a Grizzly hoop squad in 24 years. Montana's 1972-73 record was 13-13, and in 1971-72, Heathcote's first season, the Grizzlies were 14-12.

The wins in the first two seasons represented the best back-to-back win total for UM since moving into Adams Fieldhouse in 1953. Last year's 19-8 team improved upon that substantially. The 1973-74 Grizzlies won 13 straight games, tied for the Big Sky regular season championship and attracted record crowds.

Heathcote came to the University from Washington State. At WSU he served as varsity assistant and frosh coach. His freshman teams compiled a 99-9 record and the Cougar varsity placed second in the tough Pacific 8 Conference three times.
Assistant Coach Jim Brandenburg

Jim Brandenburg is in his fifth season at the University of Montana. In his initial season he served as varsity assistant to Coach Lou Rocheleau. The last three years he has served as varsity assistant to Jud Heathcote and as coach of the UM freshman squad. He directed the Cubs to a 36-18 record against competition which included many junior varsity teams the last three years. This season his responsibility is to serve as varsity assistant.

Before coming to Montana he coached at Flathead Valley Community College. There, he led FVCC to a 23-4 record in the school's first year of competition. His impressive prep record of 171 wins and 46 losses was compiled in Texas and Colorado.

Frosh Coaches

Former Grizzly players Robin Selvig and Kevin Rocheleau are serving as coaches of the freshman basketball team. Both were three-year lettermen. Rocheleau was Montana's third guard for three years and sparked many UM victories with his fiery and hustling play. Selvig was voted the Grizzly Outstanding Defensive Player Award last year and was the recipient of the Babcock Award (Most Outstanding Montana Athlete) for the 1973-74 year. Selvig, a native of Outlook, is 22-years old. Rocheleau, a Missoula Sentinel graduate, is 23-years old.

TONIGHT'S GAME

Montana begins a three-game home stand tonight against the veteran Spartans of San Jose State University.

The Spartans, with 10 returning lettermen, precede the University of Portland and Seattle University into Adams Fieldhouse.

Montana opened its season in San Jose last year and was defeated by virtually the same ball club that is appearing in Missoula tonight. San Jose offset a 32-point performance by Ken McKenzie with balanced scoring while taking a 79-71 win a year ago.

Both teams will be playing their third game in four days tonight. Both clubs have been on the road for their last two games. Montana has just returned from the Sund Devil Classic in Tempe, Arizona, and San Jose is on the final leg of a journey which took it to Bozeman Friday night and Spokane (Gonzaga) Saturday night.

The Spartans brought a 2-1 record on their swing west. Before this past weekend they had wins over South Dakota (93-52) and North Dakota (87-79), and a loss to Nevada-Reno (75-76).

Guards Ken Mickey and Pete Miller were the top scorers from last year's team, but another guard, Eric Saulny, will see plenty of action tonight. Saulny scored 15 points against the Griz in last season's opener, but was hurt shortly afterwards and missed over 20 games. Mickey and Miller each averaged 13.3 points last year.

NEXT FOR THE GRIZZLIES

Montana takes a welcome break from road action by hosting the University of Portland Pilots Saturday night and the powerful Chieftains of Seattle University the following Thursday. Portland has two high scoring players in Tiny Banks and Stretch Braxter, plus a bunch of talented freshmen players. Portland waxed UM 96-76 a year ago and the Griz have something to prove. Seattle is favored in the West Coast Athletic Association and returns almost everyone from last year's fine team. Guard Frank "Magic" Oleynick averaged 25.1 points last year, and is one of the finest guards in all of college basketball.

UNIVERSITY'S YELLOW BAY BIOLOGICAL STATION
HAS USE OF NEW WINTERIZED RESIDENCE

A new winterized residence for University of Montana faculty and students conducting scientific research at the University's Biological Station at Yellow Bay on Flathead Lake has been dedicated for use this winter.

Thomas J. Collins, UM Foundation director, said contributions to finance the building came from Plum Creek Lumber Co., a Burlington-Northern subsidiary, and from Dr. Jessie M. Bierman, M.D., a UM alumnus.

Bierman, Lakeside, and Plum Creek Lumber Co. made contributions totaling $29,632 toward construction of the multiple dwelling unit. Plum Creek Lumber Co. also provided the lumber and plywood used in construction.

Dr. Richard A. Solberg, dean of the UM College of Arts and Sciences and former UM Biological Station director, said the new building and succeeding ones like it will gradually replace the wood-frame, uninsulated 8-by-12-foot cabins presently being used as living quarters at Yellow Bay.

C.R. Binger, St. Paul, Minn., president of resources development for Burlington Northern, said the firm provided financial assistance for construction of the housing facility "because the winterized residence will attract specialized personnel and strengthen year-round operation of the Biological Station by providing more adequate living facilities for UM faculty and students."

The winterized residence was officially dedicated at the July 26 meeting of the UM Foundation at Yellow Bay. A plaque is planned for the building, expressing the gratitude of University faculty and students.

"In appreciation of Jessie M. Bierman, M.D., and Burlington Northern Inc., whose generous donations in behalf of education made possible the construction of this residence.

"Students and staff, U of M, 1974."
ORVILLE FREEMAN TO SPEAK AT UNIVERSITY IN FEBRUARY DURING PUBLIC AFFAIRS FORUM

Former Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman will discuss the interdependency of nations during the Third Public Affairs Forum to be held at the University of Montana in Missoula Feb. 13-14. Theme of the forum will be "Montana and the Rest of the World."

Freeman, former governor of Minnesota, who was Secretary of Agriculture in the Kennedy and Johnson administrations, is the author of "World Without Hunger."

He is currently chief executive officer of Business International Corporation in New York City. Business International is an independent research, publishing, and advisory organization, serving corporations doing business across borders and those who support and govern them, including bankers, attorneys, accountants, consultants, colleges and universities, and government officials.

The Public Affairs Forum is sponsored by the Montana Committee for the Humanities, the Missoula branch of the American Association of University Women, the Cooperative Extension Service, and Program Council of the Associated Students of UM. Further information may be obtained from Verne W. House, Project Director, Montana State University, Bozeman, Mont. 59715, or Joyce Zacek, Project Promotion Director, Bureau of Business and Economic Research, University of Montana, Missoula, Mont. 59801.

Freeman is a past member of the Board of Trustees, Lutheran Church In America; member of Board of Trustees, National Recreation and Park Association; member of Board of Directors, Committee for the Future, KMS Industries Inc., Natomas Corp., U.S. Tree Farms System, Inc., Coalition for Rural America, Multinational Agribusiness Systems Inc., and Rural America Marketing; member, Executive Committee, Advisory Council on Japan-U.S. Economic Relations, and U.S.-E.C. Businessmen's Council.

Freeman will speak Thursday evening, Feb. 13, in the University Center Ballroom, following an international foods buffet and a dramatic presentation by the UM Department of Drama. Reservations for the dinner are necessary, but the public is invited to the keynote speech. Those interested may write Zacek or phone her at 243-6714.
Big Sky Conference

The Big Sky Conference was formed in February, 1963, when the presidents and athletic directors of six Rocky Mountain universities met in Spokane. The original conference members were Gonzaga, Idaho, Idaho State, Montana, Montana State and Weber. Gonzaga entered the conference as a non-football playing school.

The conference derived its name from a pair of Montanans and a Washington sports editor. A. B. Guthrie, Great Falls, Montana, wrote a novel entitled "The Big Sky" and Jack Hallowell, former Montana State Advertising director, promoted the Big Sky theme as a nickname for the state. Harry Missildine, Spokesman-Review sports editor, picked up the name and in a sports column promoted the name Big Sky as the name of the conference. On February 25, 1963, the conference adopted the name—Big Sky Athletic Conference.

In 1970 the conference expanded to include Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, Ariz., and Boise State College, Boise, Idaho. Both entered as football playing schools.

Jack Friel became the first commissioner in 1963, and the offices were established in Pullman, Wash., Friel's home. Following Friel's retirement July, 1971, the offices were moved to Boise, Idaho, and John Roning was named commissioner.

Big Sky Commissioner

John Roning was named Big Sky Commissioner to replace Jack Friel, who retired July 1, 1971. Friel was commissioner since the Big Sky Conference's inception in 1963. Not only was there a change at the helm, but the league offices were moved to Boise and a conference sports information director, Dan Peters, appointed. Roning first entered the collegiate athletic picture at the University of Minnesota as an end for Bernie Bierman's Golden Gophers from 1932-34. Bierman also coached at Montana from 1919-21. Roning coached in Minnesota high school leagues before a three-year stint at Gustavus Adolphus College, St. Peter, Minn., before returning to Minnesota for graduate work. Following naval service during World War II, Roning joined the Utah State University football staff and served four years as head football coach and athletic director for the Aggies. He was twice named Skyline Conference "Coach of the Year," Roning then became head football coach at the University of Denver and was the Pioneer headman for six years. He then moved to the University of South Dakota in 1960.
