GRIZZLIES vs. BOBCATS
198th basketball clash

ADAMS FIELDHOUSE
JAN. 10, 1975  50¢
A team effort . . .

Getting sufficient electricity to our customers is a team effort. We are helping to develop resources, including electrical energy, to provide jobs and opportunities for Montana's young people who wish to continue to make the Big Sky Country their home. In the 1970's, there will be 144,000 Montanans reaching age 21. They will require adequate electricity. So will the rest of us.
Coach Jud Heathcote

Jud Heathcote has guided the Grizzlies to a 46-33 record in his first three years as UM's basketball coach. He hopes to add considerably to the win total with this season's veteran team.

Last year he led the Tips to a 19-8 season, the best record for a Grizzly hoop squad in 24 years. Montana's 1972-73 record was 13-13, and in 1971-72, Heathcote's first season, the Grizzlies were 14-12.

The wins in the first two seasons represented the best back-to-back win total for UM since moving into Adams Fieldhouse in 1953. Last year's 19-8 team improved upon that substantially. The 1973-74 Grizzlies won 13 straight games, tied for the Big Sky regular season championship and attracted record crowds.

Heathcote came to the University from Washington State. At WSU he served as varsity assistant and frosh coach. His freshman teams compiled a 99-9 record and the Cougar varsity placed second in the tough Pacific 8 Conference three times.
Assistant Coach Jim Brandenburg

Jim Brandenburg is in his fifth season at the University of Montana. In his initial season he served as varsity assistant to Coach Lou Rocheleau. The last three years he has served as varsity assistant to Jud Heathcote and as coach of the UM freshman squad. He directed the Cubs to a 36-18 record against competition which included many junior varsity teams the last three years. This season his responsibility is to serve as varsity assistant.

Before coming to Montana he coached at Flathead Valley Community College. There, he led FVCC to a 23-4 record in the school’s first year of competition. His impressive prep record of 171 wins and 46 losses was compiled in Texas and Colorado.

Frosh Coaches

Former Grizzly players Robin Selvig and Kevin Rocheleau are serving as coaches of the freshman basketball team. Both were three-year lettermen. Rocheleau was Montana's third guard for three years and sparked many UM victories with his fiery and hustling play. Selvig was voted the Grizzly Outstanding Defensive Player Award last year and was the recipient of the Babcock Award (Most Outstanding Montana Athlete) for the 1973-74 year. Selvig, a native of Outlook, is 22-years old. Rocheleau, a Missoula Sentinel graduate, is 23-years old.

TONIGHT'S GAME

The basketball teams of the University of Montana and Montana State University meet for the 198th time tonight.

Last year Montana’s Grizzlies swept both ends of the home-and-home series. The Grizzlies topped the Bobcats 92-69 in Bozeman early in the season, then outscored MSU 95-86 in Missoula to finish the regular season and cap a 13-game win streak.

Overall, Montana State has recorded 114 wins compared to 83 victories for Montana since the rivalry began in 1902.

Coach Jud Heathcote’s Grizzlies picked up three wins last week and bring an 8-4 season record and a first-place 2-0 Big Sky Conference record into this evening’s game. Montana State enters the game with a 5-6 overall record and a 1-1 Conference mark.

“The outcome of this traditional game can’t be predicted by past scores,” Heathcote said. “I expect a rough, hard-fought game.”

Montana State has five players averaging better than 9.8 points. They are center Daryl Ross (11.2), guard Paul Kinne (10.6) and forwards Randy Rucker (11.5), Craig Buehler (10.8) and Rusty Smith (9.8). Rucker, the leading scorer, does not start but has been very effective as MSU’s sixth man.

Montana, which is the league coaches’ pre-season choice to take the Big Sky title, received some promising play at a couple of key positions during last weekend’s wins over Weber State and Northern Arizona.

Larry Smedley and Tim Stambaugh showed well at the forward slot opposite Eric Hays. The two combined for 38 points and 20 rebounds in the two games.

In addition, sophomore guard Ben DeMers played well in his return to action after being sidelined for more than a month with a broken foot. DeMers’ return gives UM “flexibility” in the back court.

All-Big Sky center Ken McKenzie turned in solid games for the Tips. “I would have to say he was the dominant force on both ends of the floor both nights,” Heathcote said.

NEXT FOR THE GRIZZLIES

Montana plays its final non-conference games of the year next weekend, and has chosen a nice place to do so—the sunny Hawaiian Islands. Montana meets the University of Hawaii’s talented Rainbow basketball team Friday and Saturday nights.

Upon its return from Honolulu, Montana travels to Bozeman for a return match with the Bobcats on Saturday, Jan. 25. After that UM has road games with Gonzaga and Idaho before the Tips host those two schools Feb. 7 and 8.

University of Montana senior football players Ron Rosenberg, Rock Svennungsen and Larry Farnam have been voted by their teammates as recipients of the University's football awards for the 1974 season.

Rosenberg, a middle-linebacker from Whitefish, led the team in interceptions and tackles during the 1974 grid campaign and was voted the Golden Helmet Award for being the hardest hitter. Rosenberg was a four-year starter for the Grizzlies, a two-time All-Big Sky Conference first-team selection and a third-team All-America this fall. He served as UM defensive captain the last two years.

A defensive tackle from Seattle, Farnam was UM's most consistent performer in the defensive line and is the winner of the Paul Weskamp Award as the outstanding lineman. The award was established in 1967 in memory of Paul Weskamp, a tackle for Ed Chinske's 1954 Grizzlies.

Quarterback Svennungsen, a Shelby product, was voted the Terry Dillon Award as the outstanding back. He was UM's total offense leader during the 1974 season with 969 yards passing and rushing. He was named to the Big Sky Conference's second-team all-conference unit.

Svennungsen is also the recipient of a $1,000 postgraduate scholarship from the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). He is one of 33 football players from across the nation selected by the NCAA and the only scholarship nominee from the entire Pacific Northwest region.
The Air Force ROTC College Program has 3 things to offer that other college programs don't.

1. Scholarships.
2. $100 monthly allowance.
3. Flying lessons leading to jet training.

Enroll in Air Force ROTC.
