FACULTY VIOLIN-PIANO RECITAL SCHEDULED FOR TUESDAY

Pianist Dennis Alexander and violinist Walter Olivares will present a faculty recital Tuesday, Jan. 22, at 8 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall at the University of Montana.

The free program will include Sonata in Re (F. XIII no. 6) by Antonio Vivaldi; Sonata no. 7 in C minor, op. 30, no. 3 by Beethoven; and Partita no. 1 in B minor for solo violin by J.S. Bach.

Alexander received both bachelor and master of music degrees in piano performance at the University of Kansas. Since joining the UM faculty in 1972 he has been a teacher, clinician, and performer of both solo and chamber music repertoire throughout the United States. Alexander, an associate professor, also teaches piano and piano pedagogy and coordinates the piano division at the university.

Olivares, a native of Santiago, Chile, is a UM associate professor. He received his early training at the National Conservatory of Chile. At age 16 he performed on a national TV broadcast concert. He earned his master of music degree at Texas Tech University. He is concertmaster of the Missoula Symphony and is artist-in-residence for the Bay View Summer Conservatory of Music in Michigan.
