University of Montana, Missoula

The University of Montana at Missoula is located in a mountain forest setting in Western Montana. Camping, backpacking, river floating, hunting, fishing and skiing are popular outdoor activities. Four wilderness areas are located nearby Missoula, and Glacier and Yellowstone National Parks are within a short driving distance. The University maintains a Campus Recreation Service to promote recreation. Travel in the area is facilitated by major airline service, the Amtrak railway system and a major east-west freeway.

The University of Montana was chartered February 17, 1893, and opened in September, 1895, with fifty students enrolling the first day.

Throughout its history, the University has sustained a high standard of academic excellence in teaching, research and service. Today the campus has an enrollment of 8,250, approximately 450 fulltime state-supported faculty positions and more than 38,000 alumni. The University of Montana is one of six units in the Montana University System and has been designated the state's most comprehensive institution of high learning.
President Richard Bowers

Dr. Richard C. Bowers assumed duties as the 13th president of the University of Montana on July 4, 1974. Bowers came to UM from Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, where he served as vice president and provost, and professor of chemistry.

As Northern Illinois' provost, he was chief academic officer of the University and had overall responsibility for many other university activities, including computer services, admissions and records, and the library. He also represented Northern Illinois University to the Illinois Board of Regents, the Board of Higher Education of the State of Illinois, and the State Legislature.

Prior to being named vice president and provost in 1969, Bowers served as the Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at NIU from 1965-69.

Bowers received his B.S. degree in chemistry from the University of Michigan in 1948 and his Ph.D. in chemistry from the University of Minnesota in 1953. He taught at Northern University in Evanston, Ill., beginning in 1954 and became Director of Chemical Laboratories and associate chairman of the Department of Chemistry at Northwestern in 1963.

Athletic Director Harley Lewis

Harley W. Lewis was named athletic director at the University of Montana, effective April 14, 1976. He had served as acting athletic director from July 1, 1975.

Lewis also serves as the University's track and field coach.

A 1964 graduate of UM with an M.S. in health, physical education and recreation, Lewis became track and cross-country coach at the University in 1966. Prior to assuming coaching responsibilities at UM, the 1959 graduate of Butte High School coached two years at the University of Portland.

Montana's cross-country teams have won seven Big Sky Conference championships and the UM track teams have captured one Big Sky title and placed second six times with Lewis as head coach.
Jim Brandenburg moves into his second season as head coach of the Montana Grizzlies. For six years, Brandenburg served as assistant coach to Jud Heathcote. Since 1970, Jim Brandenburg has been a major contributor in molding the Grizzly basketball program. Montana's basketball fortunes are in experienced and capable hands.

A dedicated student of the game, Brandenburg has enjoyed tremendous success with every team he has directed. He coached UM's 1971-72 and 1972-73 freshman teams to a combined 28-8 record. The 1971-72 frosh team was 17-1, the best first-year record in the school's history. Before coming to Montana, he led Flathead Valley Community College to a 23-4 record in the school's first season of competition. Prior to that, he established a 150-42 record at Hinkley High in Aurora, Colorado, and at Burbank High in San Antonio, Texas.

Much of Brandenburg's success can be attributed to his encompassing philosophy of the game. "We coach the kids to be able to play at different tempos," he explains. "We feel that a good ball club has to be able to control the tempo of the game to their advantage against any particular opponent."

Offensively, Brandenburg stresses, "poise, patience, and shot selection, with the constant threat of the fast break," as key elements. He employs multiple offenses and likes to use a variety of play patterns against his opponents.

A staunch believer in tough defense, Brandenburg also employs multiple defensive tactics. "Our main emphasis is on defense. In most cases we'll substitute for defensive, not offensive, reasons." Brandenburg considers intensity, team approach, consistency and patience as the major components of a successful defensive unit.

A letterman in basketball and track, Brandenburg graduated from Colorado State in 1958 with a B.S. in physical education. In 1966 he received his M. Ed. in physical education from CSU.

Jim and his wife Jan have three children. They are Gaye (17), Shannon (14) and Bart (6).
Mike Montgomery begins his second season as assistant coach at the University of Montana. Mike spent three years as an assistant at Boise State University before joining the Grizzly basketball program. He brings youth and seven years of major college experience to UM.

Montgomery has also gained valuable coaching experience at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, Colorado State University, The Citadel and the University of Florida.

“One of the major pluses about Missoula,” Montgomery says, “is the basketball enthusiasm. I'm very happy to be involved with the program in this community.”

In addition to assisting with floor coaching, Montgomery is recruiting coordinator and scheduling supervisor. He feels that he can continue to upgrade the program and the University will continue attracting quality student-athletes.

The personable young coach attended Millikan High School in his hometown of Long Beach, California, where he participated in football and basketball. He continued his education at Long Beach State where he played basketball for four years and spent two years competing in rugby and volleyball. He graduated in 1968 with a B.A. in Physical Education. He earned his Masters Degree in Physical Education from Colorado State University.

He remains active in sports and is involved with the Missoula community.

Assistant Coach

Phil Rosemurgy
Assistant Coach

Phil Rosemurgy is the newest addition to the Grizzly coaching staff. An assistant coach at the University of Washington the past three years, Phil joins the UM program as assistant varsity coach and junior varsity coach.

Rosemurgy earned a B.A. degree from Western Washington State College in 1969 after attending Yakima Valley College. He participated in basketball and rugby there.

He taught and coached at Central Kitsap Junior High in Silverdale, Washington and led his team to the conference championship in his first year. He served as an assistant coach at Mercer Island High School from 1971-74. That team was league champion each of those three seasons and finished third, eighth and fifth in the state AAA tournament.

While at the University of Washington, Rosemurgy was involved in recruiting, scheduling, scouting and coaching among other responsibilities.

He has coached numerous other youth teams including high school all-star teams that have toured Canada, Australia, New Zealand and the Fiji Islands.

Although he's only been in Missoula for a few months, Rosemurgy is already impressed with the enthusiasm for basketball and feels he can contribute to the already successful Grizzly program.

A newlywed, Phil is married to Geri Cooper Rosemurgy.

Moving into his second season as Grizzly head basketball coach, Jim Brandenburg has set several goals for this basketball season. “Once again we’ll shoot for the top four in the Big Sky and be competitive throughout the season,” Brandenburg said. “Last season we gained confidence in our ability to win on the road and we established ourselves as a consistent winner. To attain our goals, we must get help on the front line and improve our outside shooting.”

The only proven starter returning to the Grizzly camp is 6-5 senior co-captain Michael Ray Richardson. “Sugar Ray” saw action mostly at forward last season, but will move back to the guard spot where he played as a freshman. Richardson averaged 19.2 points per game last season, grabbed 8.6 rebounds a game and handed out 3.6 assists. He’s a two-time all-Big Sky first team choice, two-time team most valuable player and enters this season as the fifth highest scorer in UM history. Considered by many to be the outstanding player in the Big Sky conference this season, Michael Ray Richardson is a candidate for All-America honors.

“Michael Ray has played the entire cycle,” Brandenburg said. “As a freshman, he was a defensive specialist at guard. As a sophomore he became an offensive threat at both guard and forward. Last season he scored and rebounded with the best in the league playing mostly at forward. He’s seen all kinds of defenses the opposition has come up with in an effort to stop him. I think he’s matured now to where he can handle anything on the court.”

Moving Michael Ray back to guard is a big step and Brandenburg has reservations about it. “With M.R. back at guard and Michael John Richardson graduated, we’ve lost our top two inside rebounders. Our ability to control the boards is now somewhat of an uncertainty,” Brandenburg said. “Who will materialize to play inside and the other guard spot are two big question marks.”

The Grizzlies must get front line help from juniors Craig Henkel (6-7), Charlie Yankus (6-6) and Allan Nielsen (6-6). All three saw quite a bit of playing time last season. Henkel started the last half of January and most of February.

“For our team to be successful this season the three juniors must show vast improvement and become major contributors to the program,” Brandenburg said.

Senior co-captain Jim Molloy (6-2) is a contender for the other starting guard spot. His experience and backcourt savvy are major pluses.

Two redshirt players, freshman Blaine Taylor (6-1) and sophomore Rick Zanon (6-0) are also contenders for starting spots. Both were sidelined last year with injuries.

Sophomore Tim McCauley (6-1½) gained valuable experience last season with the junior-varsity squad and will also be contending at guard.

A lot of weight falls on the big shoulders of sophomore center John Stroeder (6-9½, 238) this year. Stroeder is being counted on heavily to play the post position like a seasoned veteran. Backing him up will be freshman Marty Green (6-9).

Sophomore Rick Nelson (6-6) is working hard to battle for a place at forward.

Three freshmen will also see playing time this year. Rodney Brandon (6-6), Craig Zanon (6-6) and Dennis Gay (6-2½) could figure into immediate court plans.

“There’s no doubt that our freshmen are going to play this year,” Brandenburg said. “Rodney Brandon, Craig Zanon, Dennis Gay and Marty Green are outstanding additions to our basketball program and they will definitely be challenging our returning lettermen.”

The Grizzlies lost two fine seniors in guard Ben DeMers and forward-center Michael John Richardson. “It will be a most difficult task to replace Ben and Michael John,” Brandenburg said. DeMers was an outstanding defensive player with fine outside shooting ability. Richardson was the Big Sky’s leading rebounder (11.3 per game) and leading field goal shooter (56%) last season.

“With only two seniors on the team, we are still a relatively young and inexperienced ball club,” Brandenburg said. “Therefore, we can expect the team to improve as the season progresses. We hope this improvement will not be too late.”

Brandenburg said the team must establish itself as a winner on the road and be able to win some early conference road games. Five of Montana’s first six Conference games are on the road.

honors last January. He finished third in the Big Sky Conference scoring race with a 19.2 point per game average, just behind seniors Steve Hayes of Idaho State and Stan Mayhew of Weber State. He finished seventh in conference rebounding with 8.6 boards a game playing both guard and forward. He’s been UM’s MVP for the past two years.

“Michael Ray is the most complete player in the Big Sky Conference,” according to Jim Brandenburg.

“He plays tough defense, he’s an excellent passer, he can score big, he rebounds from either forward or guard and he’s unselfish. He takes pride in the amount of assists he’ll hand-out. But most importantly, he’s a team player and he puts team performance ahead of individual performance. Michael Ray is a winner in every sense of the word.”

Michael Ray is used to winning. As a prep standout at Manual High School in Denver, his team lost only one game in his last two seasons. He earned all-Conference, all-City and all-State honors at Manual and was coached by Floyd Theard. As a freshman starter on the 1974-75 Grizzly team, he played on a conference championship club that lost only one league game all season and finally left the NCAA regional tournament when the eventual champ—UCLA—beat Montana by just three points.

More than 9,000 fans watched M.R. score 40 points against Montana State in the last game of the 1975-76 season, setting a UM Field House record. For two years he has been among the statistical leaders in the Big Sky.

Michael Ray’s skill and determination earned him an invitation to the 1976 United States Olympic tryout camp for the eventual gold medal basketball team. A pulled hamstring, however, forced him to leave early.

Michael Ray would like to play professional basketball after this season and is also interested in coaching. He’s a Physical Education and Recreation major at UM and enjoys tennis when not on the basketball court.

As added incentive this season, M.R. has been nominated for a spot on the annual Pizza Hut All-Star ballot. Balloting is done by the public for the outstanding senior players in the country.

His mother is Mrs. Luddie Hicks of Denver.

Michael Ray Richardson begins his fourth and final season as a starter on the University of Montana basketball team. To say his presence has been felt would be an understatement.

In three years of playing on the UM court, “Sugar Ray” has developed into one of the outstanding college basketball players in the Northwest. His final season as a Grizzly promises to be better than ever.

Michael Ray is a team leader by performance, experience and attitude and is a candidate for ALL-AMERICA honors in 1977-78.

Richardson earned all-Big Sky first team honors last season for the second straight year and was named to the American Association of Basketball coaches District 7 first team. He was named to the all-tournament team at the Pillsbury Classic in Minneapolis last season and earned player-of-the-week honors.

As co-captain of the Grizzlies, Jim Molloy will be counted on to provide confidence and leadership on the court. Jim played well in a reserve role last season and is vying for a starting guard spot this year.

Coach Brandenburg thinks Molloy will continue to develop in all areas of play. "Jim worked hard this summer to improve his game and it should pay off," Brandenburg says. "He is an intelligent player with good ball handling skills."

Jim played for the Malta High School basketball team that was state class B champion in 1972. An all-around athlete, he captained the Malta basketball and football squads and received all-conference honors in both sports. He also lettered in track three years. Jim's high school basketball coach was Bill Ryan.

Jim majors in Political Science and Social Work at UM, carrying a 3.82 GPA. He is a Rhodes Scholar applicant and hopes to enter Law School next year. Currently he works as a volunteer with the Missoula Youth Court Probation Department. In his spare time, Jim enjoys skiing, backpacking and music.

Jim's parents are Dr. and Mrs. D.T. Molloy of Great Falls.

Birthdate: September 27, 1955.

Craig Henkel is expected to mature into one of the best Big Sky forwards this season. Henkel possesses all the raw materials to accomplish this. He has good hands, a fine shooting touch and can adjust quickly from offense to defense. He is a good passer and likes to run.

Jim Brandenburg believes Henkel has the potential to develop into a major college forward. “Henkel should be a bigger factor on the boards and a bigger scorer this year.” However, Brandenburg feels that Craig must perform more consistently on defense.

Craig was a first team class AA all-state selection at Libby High School where he was coached by Bill Anderson. He led all of class AA in scoring and rebounding during his senior year and was a unanimous choice for the state tourney team in 1975.

Craig hopes to contribute to the team with some key rebounds each game and maintain a good shooting percentage. His goal for the Grizzlies is “to win the Big Sky.”

He is an Elementary Education major at UM and would like to teach math. Craig also enjoys playing golf, pool and tennis.

He is the son of Mr. Wallace Henkel of Libby.

Charlie Yankus is looking to Charlie Yankus for rebounding strength this year. His varsity experience and hard work should pay off as Charlie vies for a starting spot on the UM squad.

“Charlie’s aggressiveness around the basket is a definite asset to the team,” says Jim Brandenburg. “However, he needs to change his own priorities to defense and rebounding,” Brandenburg adds.

Charlie was an all-around athlete at Medical Lake High School in Washington. He lettered in basketball, track and cross country, earning all-conference and all-state honors in basketball. He set tournament and single game rebounding records in Washington’s class AA state tournament as a high school senior in 1975. Captain of his team and coached by Jerry Skaife, he was also named most valuable player.

An art major at UM, Charlie enjoys woodworking and plans to open a cabinet shop. His goal for the season is “to be part of the team that will take it all in the Big Sky.”

Charlie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Yankus of Colville, Washington.

Birthdate: April 21, 1956.
Allan Nielsen is a junior who saw valuable playing time last year. His varsity experience and scoring ability make him valuable to the Grizzlies.

Jim Brandenburg praises Allan’s ballhandling and shooting skills but says he needs to improve in other areas. “Allan is a good outside scorer and passes well. He does need defensive work and aggressiveness around the boards.”

Nielsen was Montana’s premiere class C player during the 1974-75 high school season. He averaged 30 points and 19.6 rebounds per game while leading his Westby team to the state championship. He also lettered in football and track and captained both the football and basketball teams at Westby. He was named all-conference and all-state in basketball and all-conference in football. His coach at Westby was Dick Norden.

Allan is a Physical Education major and enjoys hunting, fishing and softball.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nielsen of Westby.

Birthdate: April 17, 1957

John Stroeder comes into this season as the leading candidate for the starting center position. With more experience and playing time, John could become a fine Big Sky center.

“John is in excellent shape and shows a lot of improvement,” Brandenburg says. “He worked hard all summer and is in good condition. He’s quicker, jumping better and shows more confidence in his offensive skills.”

Stroeder was a standout basketball player at Port Townsend High School in Port Townsend, Washington where he was captain of his team. He was coached by Jim Kearns. He also lettered in track.

John enjoys hunting and fishing and he plans on going into the construction business after college.

Brandenburg says “John is a good outside shot and has always been a better than average passer.” He warns that Stroeder’s “lack of experience could lead to foul trouble.”

John’s own goal for this season is to lead the team in rebounds, an ambition the coaching staff would like to see him reach.

His father is Mr. Tony Stroeder of Port Townsend, Washington.

Birthdate: July 24, 1958.
10  Rick Nelson
6-6, 211 lbs., Forward

Rick Nelson is a strong, aggressive player and could fill a need for rebounding,” says Jim Brandenburg. “Rick played last season on the Grizzly JV team after recovering from off-season knee surgery. His performance this year will depend largely on the speed and degree of his rehabilitation.

At Flathead County High School, Rick captained the basketball and football teams during his senior year. He was named to all-state teams in both sports in 1974 and was team MVP in basketball in 1973 and 1974. His basketball coach at Flathead was Jack McWhorter.

Rick is a Business Administration major at the University of Montana. He also participates in golf and softball.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zanon of Kalispell.

Birthdate: November 22, 1957.

4  Rick Zanon
6-0, 168 lbs., Guard

Rick Zanon is healthy and ready to play for the Grizzly cagers this season. He played during the 1975-76 season on the freshman team and showed the ability to become a solid basketball performer.

Redshirted last season because of a viral foot infection, Rick is now ready to play. “Rick is a steady performer with good speed and an accurate outside shot,” Brandenburg says. “He needs experience and playing time so the year of inactivity hurt him somewhat.”

At Flathead County High School, Rick captained the basketball and football teams during his senior year. He was named to all-state teams in both sports in 1974 and was team MVP in basketball in 1973 and 1974. His basketball coach at Flathead was Jack McWhorter.

Rick is the son of Mrs. Gwyneth Nelson of Libby.

Birthdate: December 14, 1956.
24 Tim McCauley 6-1½, 169 lbs., Guard  Sophomore from Des Moines, Iowa

Tim McCauley is a walk-on player who saw action on the Grizzly JV squad last year. He should bolster the UM guard contingent this season.

"If Tim continues to improve as much as he did in his freshman year, he should make a valuable contribution to the varsity," says Brandenburg.

Tim is from Sun Prairie High School in Wisconsin where he was captain of the conference championship team, coached by Dave Genzmer. He was named conference player of the year and garnered second team all-state honors. Tim also lettered in baseball and volleyball. He lived in Helena before moving to Des Moines and Sun Prairie.

McCauley is a team-oriented player and looks forward to the 1977-78 season. His goals are "to help out the team and get as much playing time as possible."

Tim is a Business Administration major.
His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roland McCauley of Des Moines, Iowa.

14 Blaine Taylor 6-1, 177 lbs., Guard  Freshman from Missoula, Montana

Blaine Taylor enters this season hoping to regain the form that earned him first team all-state guard honors at Missoula Hellgate High School. Blaine sat out last year due to back problems and is now recovering from a broken finger. However, according to Jim Brandenburg, "he should be ready for action."

The Grizzly coach anticipates good things from Taylor. "If he can shake injury problems, Blaine can give us immediate help at the guard position," says Brandenburg, "Taylor is a good shot and ballhandler. He is an excellent passer, picks defenses apart and hits the open man."

Blaine averaged 18 points per game from Hellgate in 1976, leading the Knights to the number four spot among state AA teams. He was the most valuable player in the class AA state tournament that year and was outstanding in the Montana-Wyoming high school all-star series. Taylor also lettered in football at Hellgate. His high school basketball coach was Russ Sheriff.

Blaine looks forward to playing this season and has an optimistic outlook. "I hope to stay healthy and contribute in some way to the success of this year's team," he says.

Blaine plans to major in History or Political Science at UM.
He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon B. Taylor of Missoula.
Birthdate: January 14, 1958.
Rodney Brandon should see quite a bit of playing time as a freshman at UM. The 6-6 forward is that good.

Brandon was a standout forward for his Garfield High School team in Norwalk, California, where he was coached by Tom Pryor. He averaged 22 points per game and 14 rebounds a game last season at Garfield. A fifty percent field goal shooter, Rodney captained his team, was named most valuable player in the San Gabriel Valley League, was all-league first team and all-Southwest.

A good student in addition to being a fine young basketball player, Rodney was recruited by several highly regarded schools.

"Rodney displays excellent high school coaching and could develop into one of the best defensive players we've had in recent years," Brandenburg says. "He has good speed and quickness which is enhanced by his tremendous playing intensity. He's also an excellent passer and gives up the ball well."

Rodney plans to major in Accounting at UM. He enjoys tennis, swimming and bike riding in his spare time.

Rodney's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brandon of Norwalk, California.

Birthdate: January 1, 1959.

Flathead County High School basketball standout Craig Zanon is one of three outstanding Montana prepsters to join the UM basketball program this year.

The 6-6 freshman played center for Montana's third place team at the class AA state tournament last year. He was named to the all-tournament first team in addition to being a first team all-state and first team all-conference selection. He was also an all-conference basketball selection in 1975-76.

Zanon averaged 20.2 points per game last season, scoring 524 points in 26 games. He's a 54 percent field goal shooter and 70 percent shooter from the charity stripe. He averaged 15.7 rebounds per game during his team's 21-5 season under Coach Jack McWhorter.

Craig was an "A" student at Flathead County High and plans to major in Accounting at UM. He joins his older brother Rick in the Grizzly basketball program. Craig will see varsity playing time this year.

"Craig is an exciting player and is sure to please Grizzly fans with his intense style," Brandenburg says. "With his size, speed, quickness and ball handling ability, we will be assured of having a young, quality swingman in our program. Craig is a major addition to our squad."

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zanon of Kalispell, Montana.

Birthdate: March 14, 1959.
12 Dennis Gay
6-2½, 159 lbs., Guard
Freshman from Glasgow, Montana

This 6-2 athlete from Glasgow, Montana was the only guard recruited by the UM coaching staff this season. Dennis Gay completed a very impressive career at Glasgow Senior High School this past spring, leading his team to a 17-7 mark in class A competition.

He averaged 20.8 points per game last season and handed out about five assists a game. He pulled down 7.6 rebounds a game from his guard spot, shot 51 percent from the field and 65 percent from the free throw line.

Dennis was a starter at Glasgow since his freshman season and was coached by Cactus Warner.

In addition to being a basketball standout, Gay was also one of the top track competitors in class A last year. He’s the state class A champ in both the high jump and triple jump with bests of 47-9 and 6-8½. He’s also a 23 foot long jumper and finished second in the 440 in last spring’s class A state track meet. He was a four-year basketball and track letterman.

“Dennis has the speed, quickness and shooting ability to develop into a major college guard,” Brandenburg says. “He must improve his guard skills and his intensity of play. When he does, he’ll be a major contributor to our program.”

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Don Gay of Glasgow.

50 Marty Green
6-9, 186 lbs., Center
Freshman from Missoula, Montana

At 6-9, Marty Green has the size to help the UM basketball program in the very near future. His potential and desire should pay great rewards.

Marty earned second team all-state and first team all-conference honors at Missoula Hellgate High School where he was coached by Russ Sheriff. In addition, he was named second team all-tournament at the Montana state tournament last spring.

Although Marty missed a portion of the 1976-77 season due to mononucleosis, he appeared in 19 games and averaged 14 points a game and nearly 10 rebounds per game.

“Marty needs to make the transition from high school ball to college ball,” Brandenburg says. “To do this he must improve his strength and aggressiveness. He’s an excellent shooter and has good mobility for his size.”

Marty’s parents are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Green of Missoula.

The Big Sky Conference was formed in February, 1963, when the presidents and athletic directors of six Rocky Mountain universities met in Spokane. The original conference members were Gonzaga, Idaho, Idaho State, Montana, Montana State and Weber. Gonzaga entered the conference as a non-football playing school.

The conference derived its name from a pair of Montanans and a Washington sports editor. A. B. Guthrie, Great Falls, Montana, wrote a novel entitled "The Big Sky" and Jack Hallowell, former Montana State Advertising director, promoted the Big Sky theme as a nickname for the state. Harry Missildine, Spokesman-Review sports editor, picked up the name and in a sports column promoted the name Big Sky as the name of the conference. On February 25, 1963, the conference adopted the name—Big Sky Athletic Conference.

In 1970 the conference expanded to include Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, Ariz., and Boise State College, Boise, Idaho. Both entered as football playing schools.

Jack Friel became the first commissioner in 1963, and the offices were established in Pullman, Wash., Friel's home. Following Friel's retirement in July, 1971, the offices were moved to Boise, Idaho, and John Roning was named commissioner. Steve Belko was named commissioner and assumed duties July 1, 1977, following Roning's retirement.
