#Skyline Conference opponents

Montana University was admitted in July 1950 as a member of the Mountain States Athletic Conference. The Grizzlies started their first new Conference affiliation competition with swimming, winter quarter 1951, and have competed in the full conference sports program since that time. In Football each member institution must play at least five Conference games to qualify for the Championship.

MONTANA ATHLETIC STAFF

EDDIE CHINSKE, head football coach, is starting his second year as Head Football mentor of a Collegiate Team. Eddie was elevated from assistant Coach to the top position when Ted Shipkey resigned to enter private business. Chinske joined the Grizzly Athletic Staff in 1946 as Assistant Football, Basketball, and Head Baseball Coach. The new Grizzly coach came to Montana University for the first time as a student back in 1926 as a Junior College Transfer from Winona Normal in Minnesota. He played as halfback and quarterback for three grid seasons, was elected Captain of the 1928 Silvertip Eleven. Eddie also lettered thrice in Basketball and was awarded two letters in Baseball and one in Golf while attending the University. He is still a par Golfer. The new mentor's first coaching assignment was handling the Grizzly Cubs in 1929, which lost only one game that season. In 1930 he moved to Miles City as head coach of all sports. The season of 1936 saw Chinske move to Missoula County High School where he remained until inking the University contract in 1946. In the 16 years that Eddie coached High School he chalked up more State Championship Titles in Football and Basketball than any Coach in the history of the State. Coach Chinske closed his high school coaching career with 22 straight victories. As Freshman coach at the U. the cub team, under his guidance, won 13 and lost 3 games. Born in Michigan City, Ind., one of nine sons. Married to the former Margaret Johnson of Paradise, also a University graduate, and they have four children, Edward 18; Mary Margaret 14; John 12; and Lewis 10.

JOHN ZEGER, line coach, is starting his second year at Montana University this fall. Zeger comes to the University from Olympic Junior College where he was Head Football Coach and instructor in Health and Physical Education. His teams there won the Washington-Oregon Junior College conference championships three years in a row. He is a native of Chicago, born February 6, 1919 and attended Harrison Tech High School in Chicago. He entered the University of Washington in 1939 and played football under Jim Phelan in 1940 and 1941. During the war he was in the Air Force and played on the Fourth Air Force football team. John returned to Washington University in 1946 where he made all Pacific Coast Conference that season and also was captain of the '46 Huskies. After one season of playing professional football with the New York Giants he returned to Washington as an Assistant Coach. In 1948, during the illness of Coach Howie O'Dell, Zeger held down the Head Line Coach duties. Young and hard-working, John is Coach Chinske's top-notch assistant.

GEORGE P. "JIGGS" DAHLBERG - HEAD BASKETBALL COACH, AND ASSISTANT FOOTBALL COACH. It would take all day to name the many attributes of hard-working, dependable Coach Dahlberg. "Jiggs," as he is known to his public, assists in football until early October, when it's time to trot his basketball squad out on the hardwood, and from then on it's a lot of Basketball for the ever-hustling Dahlberg. "Jiggs" not only continues to run his basketball teams in high gear and assists in football, but handles the freshman baseball team when spring rolls around and is also the Athletic Department's top proselytor. His friendly humorous nature makes him a natural in meeting the public.

Dahlberg graduated from Montana in 1925, not only with athletic honors but with scholastic honors as well. After graduation, Jiggs went to Miles City for four years during which time he chalked up two state championships. Hoquaim, Washington prep school, was second stop on Dahlberg's tour and here he piloted the Hoquaim lads to 10 victories in 11 games for two seasons, and captured the South-west Washington title in basketball. Jiggs moved to Anaconda for a year, then went back to Puyallup for four years. Just before coming back to his alma mater in 1937, Dahlberg was at Chehallis, Washington, for a season. Jiggs was basketball mentor and assisted with football until 1942, when he was called into the Army. He coached Fort Lawton baseball teams in Washington State to a semi-pro championship along with putting out some fine basketball teams. He returned to Montana in 1945 and in 1949 developed the Grizzly's greatest basketball squad; they broke 12 of the 20 existing University records that season. Jiggs is married and has two young children.

HARRY ADAMS, backfield coach and head scout, is starting his 32nd year as a member of Montana University's Athletic Staff. A graduate of Montana in 1921, Harry was signed as Assistant Football, Basketball and Track Coach that year and has remained loyal to the Grizzlies since. His main duties as Head Track Coach and Assistant Athletic Director have not kept him from participating wholeheartedly in the football program. One of the top scouts in the west, it is Coach Adams who travels the long scouting circuit for the valuable data needed for next-week's strategy.

As an undergraduate for Montana, Harry starred in Football, Basketball and Track. He was a member of the Track mile relay foursome which at one time held the world's record. Beyond a doubt, Coach Adams is one of the Grizzly's Greatest of Old. He served in the last World War as a Colonel. Noted for his fine track squads, Coach Adams has never lost a State Track Championship. Some of his products are Jack Emigh and Ole Ueland in the sprints and middle distances; Al Eiselein and James Sayler in the hurdles and jumps, Dick Doyle, discus, a member of the All-American Track Team of 1950, and most recent, Bill Rife, distance and Don Brant, sprinter, from 1953 squad.

He is married and has three children.

PAUL J. CHUMRAU, Athletic Business Manager. A 1939 Montana graduate, Paul was co-captain and an outstanding guard on the basketball team. His background includes coaching and teaching, army personnel work, a business of his own, director of the University placement bureau, and finally his present job which is a combination of personnel and business. He is a new, capable and valuable addition to the department staff at Montana.

NASEBY RHINEHART, Trainer. "Nase" is one of the best known and most respected trainers in the Northwest. He has been in the Montana training room since graduation from the University in 1935, except for time out to attend training and treatment of injuries schools in the East. He was an outstanding Grizzly end in '32, '33, and '34. He still holds that spot on the All-Time Grizzly team.

GRIZZLIES 1953 OUTLOOK

Generally conceded to the "cellar" spot, Coach Eddie Chinske brought his Silvertipped Grizzlies up the Skyline Eight ladder one step last year and is determined to go higher with his 1953 squad.

Hit hard by the loss of twenty-one lettermen via graduation, eligibility, injury, or to the services, Chinske has a tremendous re-building job and only time will tell if sophomores, transfers, and new material will fill the bill.

Half of Chinske's losses were three-year letter winners and most of them played both ways under a two-platoon rule. Eight offensive and eight defensive starters are gone, including the likes of Hal Maus, Jim Murray, Gordon Jones, Bob Antonick, Bob Lamley, Bob Stewart and Frank Nickel (injured) in the line. IN THE BACKFIELD: Gene Carlson, Bob Graves, Bo Laird, Fred Mirchoff, Dean Brott (service), Don Brant (sophomore sprint sensation--eligibility), and Dick Lindsey (defensive demon--to the service). Also gone are: Bud Bellis, conference leading punter, and Don Gerlinger, the big end with the educated toe.

Fifteen lettermen return (six in the backfield--nine in the line). Only five returning are two-year letter winners and four of them seniors.

Coach Chinske knows that spirit, drive and determination can go a long way in winning ball games, and Grizzly foes found, and will find, that his reputation for tutoring inspired ball is well founded. His long string of high school victories established him as one of the most outstanding coaches in Montana's history.

Last year the Grizzlies set two new records in Collegiate Gridiron Books. Against Montana State the Grizzlies ran 96 plays on the ground and passed 16 times for a total of 112 plays. The old marks were 85 running plays by Purdue against Indiana in 1948 and total running and passing plays of 105 by Missouri in 1949 and Loyola, Los Angeles, in 1950.

The 1953 Montana backfield may set another record in its own league. The tentative starting backfield of Murdo Campbell or Dick Heath at quarterback, Bill Gue at right half, Dick Imer at left half, and Bob Dantic at fullback, will average 165½ pounds and stand 5 feet 8 5/8 inches.

Campbell was one of the Conference's leading passers and among the top punter returners. Dantic, at 160 pounds, one of the Skyline's best ground-gainers.

The over-all outlook for Montana: A small backfield, inexperience in the line, and lack of depth in over-all team strength. Strength appears at center, guards, and quarterback with most apparent weakness in the end and fullback spots. One letterman, Owen Deuchler, returns at tackle, but three top prospects in Vince Barone, Walt Baird, and Paul Weskamp add the needed beef. Another bugaboo is adequate line-backers.

Campbell is backed at quarter with two very capable veterans, Dick Heath and Dick Shadoan (the only senior in the backfield).

Chinske feels he lost games last year because he did not have the break-away type runners. He should be better in that department and have a squad that is built for speed, finesse, and deception. Veteran speedsters like Dantic, Gue and Stocking will be lugging the leather, plus the addition of bright newcomers, Dick Imer, Dale Shupe, and Don Bissell.

Two-year lettermen in the line are: Capt. Joe Roberts, center; Jim Burke, guard; and Ed Anderson, end and punter. One-year veterans include: Marlyn Jensen, center; Joe DeLuca, Don Little, and Chet Swearingen, guards; and George Samuelson, end. New-comers with great potential are: Howard Burke and Doug Dasinger, guards; Barone, Laird, and Weskamp, tackles; and Tom O'Brien, big end.

SWITCH FROM THE TWO-PLATOON SYSTEM?

Supposedly the switch would help Montana, one of the small schools, who does not have the material to field complete offensive and defensive teams. Coach Chinske is in favor of a limited substitution rule. His main difficulty this year will be to field an offensive team that contains enough capable line-backers.

THUMBNAIL SKETCHES OF 1953 GRIZZLIES

*Denotes Letters

ENDS:

ED ANDERSON, Senior, Missoula, 6'2", 200 pounds, age 21. The University's most versatile athlete, Ed played a starting offensive end the past two seasons. He will fill one wing position this year and do the punting chores. A three-sport man, he has two letters each in Football, Basketball, and Baseball. This year he will co-captain the hoop and diamond squads. He is likely to become the 15th athlete in the history of the University to make nine varsity letters in college competition. He plays guard on the basketball team and catcher on the baseball team. A great competitor and on top of everything. He is in the top 5% of University students, scholastically. Married. Major: Physical Education.

SAM JANKOVICH, Sophomore, Butte, 5'10½", 175 pounds, age 19. The smallest of the end candidates, Sam is rough and ready and will make wingmen hustle to gain or hold their positions. He established himself as a good defensive man and a capable pass receiver on the Cub team last year. Was injured in the final Frosh game, worked without pads this spring, but is ready to go. Major: Education.

JOHN HELTERLINE, Sophomore, Plains, 6'1", 185 pounds, age 19. The other starting end, up from the Frosh squad, John is a pole vaulter and jumper on the track team. He came along fast in spring drills, is growing fast, and is definite varsity material. Major: Physical Education.

TOM O'BRIEN, Junior, Danielson, Conn., 6'3", 225 pounds, age 21. Big, exceptionally fast for his size, and an outstanding basketball prospect as well, Tom was All-Prep in Conn. He transferred to Montana from Notre Dame. He is an outstanding blocker and has capabilities of being one of top ends in the Skyline Eight conference. A top student. Major: Law.

*GEORGE SAMUELSON, Junior, Glendive, 6'4", 210 pounds, age 20. A big, rawboned kid from Eastern Montana, "Sam" gained needed experience at the end position last year, and will be a tough man to beat out for 1953. His big frame will be one of the chief targets for passes. Besides his outstanding gridiron exploits, George lettered last winter on the Grizzly basketball team. Major: Business Administration.

TACKLES:

VINCE BARONE, Junior, Elizabeth, N.J., 5'11", 197 pounds, age 21. An All-Junior College tackle in 1950, Vince played for Olympic J.C. and was considered one of the best linemen on the field at the Bakersfield, Calif. Potato Bowl Game. He was a much sought after prospect. Transfer from University of Washington, he may be starting for the Grizzlies this fall. Major: History.

*OWEN DEUCHLER, Junior, Seattle, Wash., 6', 200 pounds, age 20. The only returning letterman in the tackle position, Owen has experience at both offense and defense. He is fast and uses his power to great advantage in smashing line plays. He was an All-Junior College tackle at Olympic J.C. in 1951. Major: History.

TACKLES: (cont'd.)

WALT LAIRD, Sophomore, Miles City, 6', 200 pounds, age 24. An outstanding freshman prospect four years ago, Walt put a hitch in the service and is back to take up his football career where he left off. He is a brother to Bo, Grizzly fullback for the past three seasons, and is expected to shine as well at the tackle stop. A spring drill injury may hold him down some, but Walt should be right in there fighting for a starting berth. Major: History.

KEN LEUTHOLD, Sophomore, Laurel, 6'2", 190 pounds, age 18. A top freshman tackle, Ken is up from the frosh squad. He is steady, agile, quick-learning, and has a lot of football savvy. Played a good deal of tackle in spring drills, but may be switched to end to add strength and depth in that position. Major: Business Administration.

ARNOLD ROYCE, Sophomore, Belfry, 6'1", 190 pounds, age 18. Arnie made his numeral with the Cub squad last year. In high school he played six-man football and needs experience and time to develop eleven-man capabilities. Major: Forestry.

PAUL WESKAMP, Sophomore, Ronan, 6', 215 pounds, age 20. Another boy back from the service, Paul played with the freshmen a couple of years ago. In high school he was an outstanding fullback, but size and power mark him as an outstanding tackle. Spring drills proved to Coach Chinske that he had made a good change, as Paul showed well in the tackle slot. Major: Physical Education.

GUARDS:

JIM BURKE, Senior, Livingston, 5'10 $\frac{1}{2}$ ", 170 pounds, age 21. The main cog in the Grizzlies' guard strength, Jim is a small but scrappy lineman who has played a lot of good defensive football for Montana in the past two years. At Livingston high school he made the first string All-Eastern Division team. Like Anderson, he is one of the University's top students. Major: Business Administration.

HOWARD BURKE, Junior, Livingston, 6', 190 pounds, age 20. Younger brother of Jim, Howard is a returning non-letter squad member. He has more experience, is conscientious, and should see lots of action this season. Major: Business Administration.

DOUG DASINGER, Sophomore, Wolf Point, 5'10", 180 pounds, age 18. A kid that is "hot to go," Doug is one of the toughest and one of the keenest competitors on the squad. He was outstanding in the line for the Cubs last year and plays the game for all he has. Will be a tough man to stay in front of for guard assignments. Should be a future star for the Grizzlies. Major: Physical Education.

*JOE DELUCA, Junior, Weed, Calif., 6', 190 pounds, age 21. Turned in some outstanding ball games for the Silvertips last year as a guard and line-backer. Should keep his starting guard position. Big and rugged, Joe won the University heavyweight boxer crown last winter. Major: Physical Education.

*DON LITTLE, Junior, Helena, 6'1 $\frac{1}{2}$ ", 195 pounds, age 20. Another top guard, a veteran, who makes the position the least of Chinske's worries. Was an outstanding gridder for Helena high school during his prep days. Showed well in spring drills. Major: Business Administration.

GUARDS: (cont'd.)

*CHET SWEARINGEN, Junior, Port Orchard, Wash., 6', 195 pounds, age 21. A one-year veteran who was held down by a recurring injury last year. Chet lettered with the baseball team this spring, laying out of spring football drills. Barring further injury, he should fulfill potentialities and definitely add to the guard strength. Major: Education.

CENTERS:

LEE BOFTO, Sophomore, Great Falls, 5'11", 195 pounds, age 18. A block of strength for Great Falls high school and last year's freshman squad in the center of the line. Will have two strong veterans in Capt. Roberts and Jensen to understudy. Lee is also a top baseball prospect, with American Legion as well as his Cub experience. Major: Physical Education.

*MARLYN JENSEN, Junior, Miles City, 6'1", 185 pounds, age 23. A one-year letterman who played right behind Capt. Roberts as a sophomore. "Mar" is a very able replacement who plays the game with all he has and loves it when the going is toughest. Major: Physical Education.

JOE ROBERTS, Senior, Butte, 6', 185 pounds, age 22. Clean-cut and popular with his mates, Joe was elected Captain of the 1953 Grizzlies. He was converted from end to the pivot spot two years ago and turned into a natural. An integral part on the Silver-tip line, Joe played mostly offensive last year, but will be a pillar of strength in this year's edition of the forward wall. Married, his wife had a baby boy this spring. Major: Education.

QUARTERBACKS:

MURDO CAMPBELL, Junior, Great Falls, 5'11", 170 pounds, age 20. The youngest of four Campbell brothers to play for the University. Murdo is destined to be the greatest. Brother Ken was center and Captain of the 1950 team, and won considerable fame for his outstanding play. Murdo lettered with the varsity as a freshman QB. A cool, clever T-general with an excellent arm, Murdo is also a demon on defense and a break away, broken-field runner. Last year he completed 17 of 47 passes for a total of 267 yards and two TDs. Was the team's top punt returner, taking 21 punts for an average of 8.9 yards. Major: Journalism.

*DICK HEATH, Junior, Miles City, 5'11", 170 pounds, age 21. Considered one of the best QBs to hit the University in 1950, when he was field general for a good Cub team. Stayed out for a year and returned last year to alternate with Campbell on offense and win a starting berth on defense. An early season injury kept him on the sidelines. Hard-working, methodical, Dick is a natural T-server with the knack of getting backfield mates to do something with the "T." Married, his wife had a baby boy this summer. Major: Education.

DICK SHADOAN, Senior, Billings, 5'11", 165 pounds, age 21. Another fine quarterback, both offense and defense, who, coupled with Campbell and Heath, should give the Grizzlies a change of pace, finesse, deception, and versatility in running and passing attack. Dick is a tricky, intelligent field general and an honor roll student who carries his abilities to the gridiron. He also has a good passing arm. He is president of Kappa Tau (Scholastic Honorary) and Silent Sentinel (Senior Men's Honorary). Major: Business Administration.

FULLBACKS:

DON BISSELL, Sophomore, Belt, 6', 180 pounds, age 19. Big and fast, Don lettered as a freshman on the varsity track team. He was a bulwark in the Cub backfield. Though green and inexperienced, Don is considered a top prospect and is expected to develop fast in the Grizzly backfield. Major: Physical Education.

KEN BYERLY, Sophomore, Lewistown, 6'1", 183 pounds, age 19. Lettered with the Frosh in both football and basketball. Was an outstanding forward in the hoop sport and played in the backfield as a frosh, but Chinske may shift him to end to add depth to the wingmen. Has definite possibilities. Experience will find his proper slot. Major: Journalism. (Father owns two newspapers.)

*BOB DANTIC, Junior, Laurel, 5'8½", 160 pounds, age 20. One of the smallest men in the small Montana backfield, but pound for pound as great as any fullback in the conference. A top candidate for SMALL-AMERICAN. Bob was the Grizzlies' leading ground-gainer last year. He rushed 433 yards in 83 tries--an average of 5.2 yards per try! He can go inside or outside and drive up the middle with every ounce he has. Quick on his feet, Bob is most likely starting fullback. Major: Physical Education.

CURT MILNE, Sophomore, Glendive, 5'11", 175 pounds, age 19. Was a very capable quarterback for the Cub squad last year. Is fairly fast, an outstanding high school hurdler, and was switched to fullback in spring drills to take up the slack in the backfield. Needs experience in his new position, but should develop for future years. Major: Business Administration.

JERRY WALKER, Sophomore, Billings, 5'10", 197, age 22. Another outstanding sophomore with a lot of varsity possibilities. Jerry was injured in the final freshman game and worked without pads in spring drills. A Marine veteran and married. A good punter and possessing considerable speed, Jerry should establish himself as a future great at Montana, barring further injury. Major: Physical Education.

HALFBACKS:

*BILLY GUE, Junior, Great Falls, 5'9", 160 pounds, age 20. Top candidate for the starting right halfback spot. Fast, he earned his varsity letter with the track squad as a freshman, but worked with spring football turnout this year instead of reporting for track. Averaged two yards per type with the ball last year. Has a bright football future with the Grizzlies. Size makes him a difficult target for tacklers. Major: Business Administration.

DICK IMER, Junior, Highland, Ind., 5'6", 172 pounds, age 21. Brightest light of spring drills, this short left halfback was top ground-gainer. He displayed his speed in winning the intramural sprints crowns this spring. He is fast, tricky, has a good change of pace, and could prove to be one of the best backs in the conference. A transfer from the University of Washington, Dick was ineligible last year. He made All-State in Indiana high school league. Should be starting at the left half position. Major: Physical Education.

TOM POMROY, Sophomore, Butte, 5'10", 160 pounds, age 19. Was right behind Imer as an intramural sprinter. May fit in well with Chinske's speedy backfield. Needs experience. Ran well as a freshman and showed promise in spring drills. May play a prominent reserve role. Major: Chemistry.

DEL ROOD, Sophomore, Sidney, 5'9", 160 pounds, age 18. Quarterback with the freshman squad, Del was switched to halfback in spring drills. He showed well on defense. A tough little guy, Del showed a lot of determination and will be in there fighting hard for a spot on the traveling squad. Major: Forestry.

DALE SHUPE, Sophomore, Harlem, 5'10", 178 pounds, age 19. The top sophomore backfield prospect, Dale ran hard and well in spring drills. He may crowd Gue all the way for top berth at the right halfback post. Was sensational in small high school conference. A powerful runner, he is rugged and works hard on assignments. May be one of the top sophomores in the conference. Married. Major: Sociology.

BOB SKATES, Sophomore, Billings, 5'9", 160 pounds, age 19. Considerably fast, but like the other sophomores needs more experience. Saw a good deal of action with freshmen last year and worked hard in spring practice. Major: Business Administration.

*ED STOCKING, Junior, Whitefish, 5'10", 175 pounds, age 20. A veteran left halfback with speed and a lot of drive. Had a 2.6-yard rushing average last year as a sophomore. Should be a good alternate with Imer at left half. Did not report for spring practice, was on the track squad where he lettered as a javelin thrower. Major: Physical Education.

DERIVATION OF "GRIZZLIES" AND "TRADITIONS"

(By John T. Campbell, an old Montana hand, who is Director of Sports and Ace Sportscaster for Radio Station K X L L)

Montana's first football team was organized in 1897 and the sideliners appropriately dubbed the pioneer eleven the "varsity." This was the name of Montana grid teams for more than ten years. Somebody liked the name "Bruins" so it was tacked on in 1909, but it was brief-lived. When Montana played Utah University on October 31, 1912, a sports writer called the marauding Montanans the "Grizzlies." Since then until the time Montana entered the Pacific Coast conference, Montana football teams bore the names Bruins, Grizzlies or Bears, -- it didn't make any difference. However, it made a difference to two California schools, as the University of California and University of California at Los Angeles, also carrying portions of the bear phylum, demanded that the situation be cleared. California was, therefore, given the title "Bears" which it later changed to "Golden Bears," UCLA adopted "Bruins" and Montana was plenty satisfied with "Grizzlies." Of the three types, the Grizzly is the most ferocious, strongest and smartest -- according to a man named Webster.

"THE LITTLE BROWN STEIN"

It has come to be a sacred, coveted thing, something cherished by the school holding it, for it represents superiority in football between two intense rivals for at least one year. Where Montana and Idaho grid players struggled for glory in the past, they now battle each other for the handsome wooden-shaped trophy, shaped like a large brew container which symbolizes prestige and honor for their school. Idaho captured the traditional Stein the first year in 1938. It has changed hands many times since then, the most recent being when the Idaho Vandals carried it back home in 1951 after winning the Home Coming game in Missoula 12-9. The recaptured it last fall with a 27-0 triumph. The Stein will go on the block again October 3, when the Grizzlies entertain the Vandals for Dad's Day in Missoula.

(Editor's Note: The fall of 1951 brought a new era in football to Montana State University. The kick-off to New Mexico on September 29 marked the Grizzlies' debut in the "Skyline 8" Conference. With the start of the Skyline Competition for Montana, Mr. Ray T. Rocene, Sports Editor of the Daily Missoulian, will start picking his third All-Time All-Star Grizzly Team. In his close to 40 years as Sports Editor, Ray has closely analyzed the abilities of over 1600 players who have vied for his selection. These are the boys who were tops and made the All-Time teams. The following has been extracted from Ray's letter as he picked the first member to make the third era group.)

"First name the equal of any of the backs previously named on the All-Star cast:"

"ROBERT LEE BYRNE, the Billings Blockbuster, grand competitor, fast, shifty, enduring, never hurt, a team man at all times. He can run, kick, pass, catch passes, tackle, block, do everything on the gridiron. The fans will never know how good he was until they miss him this fall and future falls."

-1953-

"JAMES MURRAY, tackle, a savagely aggressive player of superb spirit, showed to distinct advantage through his Grizzly football career. He played for the love of the sport, gave every ounce every minute of the game, never appeared exhausted no matter how severe a battering he had suffered. An old-fashioned type of football star playing the modern game at its best."

"HAROLD MAUS, a magnificent end used mostly on defense through three gruelling seasons, was an exceptional wingman of Grizzly football history."
