BETTE (TINA) HILLSTRAND,
A.W.S. President.

Dr. Maurine Clow joined the University personnel staff the fall of 1946 as Associate Director of Student Personnel. Dr. Clow is a graduate of Stanford University. She was dean of women at Whitman and more recently assistant to the dean of women at Stanford. While at Stanford, Dr. Clow received her Ph.D. in psychology and specialized student personnel work.

Secretary.....JOAN CARROLL
Treasurer.....HILDA MYRE

Welcome to Montana State University and to membership in the Associated Women Students organization. We are looking forward with much pleasure to sharing our university opportunities and especially our women's activities with you. A.W.S. has prepared this booklet as a guide for you in your life on the campus. In it you will learn about A.W.S., W.A.A., and other activity groups, their officers, living accommodations, and customs on the campus. We wish for you a stimulating, inspirational year and shall be happy to assist you at any time or to answer any questions we may have left unanswered. . .

MAURINE CLOW,
Associate Director of Student Personnel.

HOME IS . . .

You, Sally Student, will probably be quartered in either North hall or New hall for your freshman year, as all first-yearlings must live in a residence hall unless the Associate Director of Student Personnel gives you permission to do otherwise. Dorm girls must board in their halls. Upperclass co-eds under 21 must live in New hall, the co-operative house, or a sorority house, unless, again, the Director approves the home in which they plan to live.

Some girls work for room and board, thereby necessitating their residing in private homes. On the average, four hours of service a day in a private home should provide for board and room; three hours should provide board. Housing accommodations limit the number of these off-campus women. All off-campus girls are expected to abide by the same rules which apply to university women living on the campus.

The residence halls, the cooperative house and the sorority houses provide comfortable and attractive living quarters. Enforced quiet hours give you a chance to help raise that grade curve. In the halls, proctors, dependable upper-class girls, are assigned to each floor and attempt to keep peace and harmony within the fold. Each hall and house is supervised by a house-mother who should have your respect and courtesy at all times.

A. W. S. . . .

Never underestimate the power of a woman . . . or a group of women. Associated Women Students, a special governing body of, by, and for all college women, is no weak sister. It is one of the most powerful and effective organizations on the campus and every co-ed is a member.

This body will watch over you, Sally Student, like a mother hen over a chick. A.W.S., working with the director of women's activities, provides the wagons for you to hitch your star to. It builds the fences so you won't stray. Regulations concerning housing, late permission, hours and leaves are all enforced by a ruling board of A.W.S.

To accentuate the positive, it maintains a loan fund for upper-class women whose scholastic data is plus, but whose financial status is minus.

Co-ed Prom is planned with A.W.S. brains and money. This is the night, you, Sally, will date, dine, and dance your boyfriend to the jingle of your own pennies from your piggy bank.

A.W.S. honors its senior women with a Lantern parade in the Spring. This parade is the A.W.S. tribute to the four years of loyal activity of graduating women.

For you personally, Sally, A.W.S. has set up a counselor system, creating a big-little sister relationship between incoming girls and established women picked for good scholarship, character, and intentions. Your big sister will contact you some time during the summer. She is ready and willing to help you with any problems you have about campus life. She is your own personal friend. On one of the first nights of freshmen week, she will introduce you to A.S.M.S.U. female society at a skirt 'n sweater get-together in the Gold room of the Student Union. That is not the last you will see of her. Don't be shy of her for she is yours to question who, where, when, why, and how.

Your A.W.S. also keeps a A.W.O.C. (Active Woman on the Campus) on a strict, but well-balanced, diet of activities via the point system. This is a mechanical load leveler that limits the amount of outside activities a co-ed may carry over a four-year bridge. As yet, this won't bother you, but don't be forgetting that you must keep ahead of the grades if you expect to pass the curve.

Offices and activities are divided into letter groups—just like vitamins—A, B, C, and D. They are also classed as permanent and temporary.

WHAT EVERY YOUNG WOMAN SHOULD KNOW . . .

The law never recognizes ignorance as an excuse, and neither does society for long. So the sooner you learn and understand the rules and regulations on which student life is run, the higher the score for you, Sally. Around here, they are the things we live by. Penalties for infringement are determined by the A.W.S. board with the aid of the Associate Director of Student Personnel Services.

For a large group of people to live amicably together, it is necessary to surrender a few small privileges to insure everyone a maximum of comfort. Besides, everyone is doing it!

For the protection of its members, A.W.S. has legislated that:

HOURS . . .

1. Freshmen women students shall be in their homes by 10:30 p.m. on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. Upper class women shall have the same hours, with the exception of 11:00 p.m. on Sunday.
2. On Friday, Saturday, and nights preceding all University holidays, the hours are extended to 1:00 o'clock. University holidays are Thanksgiving, Decoration Day, and Track Meet.
3. Senior Women, in good standing, may use senior privileges, which are 11:30 hours on week nights. Use of the privilege to the extent of two week nights will not be considered an abuse in ordinary circumstances. As a point of honor, women will inform the housemother when they expect to use their privileges.

4. Any tardiness over 15 minutes for a quarter, in abiding with hour regulations, is automatically reported. Three lates are automatically reported regardless if they total 15 minutes or not.

First appearance before the board will mean a campus on the Friday night following the meeting of the board. For every 15 minutes tardy after the first 15-minute limit, an additional campus will be added. A campus consists of being restricted to your living center from 6:00 p.m. on until the following morning with no guests.

The second appearance before the board will be regarded in the same manner plus an additional week end.

The penalty for three or more appearances before the board will be left to the discretion of the board.

For a broken campus, the penalty will be two week ends.

5. Any first-year woman student, who has earned a "C" average, or better, for two consecutive quarters, may go off the campus during the week, afternoon or evening.

DATES

6. a. Freshmen women shall not have dates on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, or until 4:00 p.m. on Friday. Coke dates (10-20 minutes) excepted.
- b. Freshmen women are not permitted to leave the campus after 6:00 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday.
- c. Freshmen women will be permitted to be in the Student store on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday between the hours 4:00 and 7:30 p.m. and from 9:30 to 10:30 p.m. and after 4 p.m. on Friday, and during meal hours.

7. On Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights, no men are to be in upperclass women's residences from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. or before 4 p.m., or before 1 p.m. on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.
8. College women may not visit the residences of men without the approved chaperonage.

HOUSE REGULATIONS

9. Quiet hours: Houses are to be quiet from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. and from 10:30 to 7 a.m. on week nights. Radios, if used, should not be heard in adjoining rooms. No telephone calls after 11 p.m. From 9:30 to 10:30 p.m. houses should be sufficiently quiet for those who wish to study.

TRIPS

10. Women going on hikes or automobile trips shall inform their respective housemothers as to the direction of such hike or trips when possible, and must sign out if they expect to be away more than two hours.
11. Permission will not be granted to stay away from their respective houses overnight, except with parents.
12. Women shall not leave the city for the week end without special permission before Friday noon. In case of extreme emergency, word should be sent to the housemother as soon as possible.
13. The regulations shall not be waived at any time except during the Christmas holidays.
14. Women students who remain in town during vacation must have their housing arrangements approved by their respective housemothers.

15. If women students are traveling by any conveyance other than a public carrier, beyond the immediate vicinity of Missoula, they must obtain permission from their parents or guardian to do so, and special blanks must be secured.
16. a. Students who desire to be absent from the college should obtain a leave of absence card. (A leave of absence will not, in any case, relieve the student from being held responsible for the work of the class during absence.)
b. If leaving campus to stay with anyone other than parents or guardian, students must have a written invitation plus permission from their parents or guardian.
17. A woman student making an out-of-town trip with a man, other than a near relative, must file with her application for leave of absence a letter from her parents, or guardian, stating that such trip is approved. Parents' permission filed with housemother.
18. Special permission for women to attend any out-of-town function must be obtained.
19. Women on leave from the University may not stay in hotels without special permission.
20. All girls going home for the week end will be required to report back to their respective living groups according to University hour regulations. In case a girl is unable to return by the specified time, she will be required to notify her housemother.

AND DON'T FORGET

21. Upperclass women students under 21 years of age are required to live in a sorority house or dormitory unless excused because of work.
22. All exceptions to the above rules will be left to the discretion of the board.

AVOCATION AMBLINGS . . .

Yes, you're right, Sally, there are other things besides classroom drudgery.

A mad musician? You have come to the right place for we're proud of the most up-and-coming music school in the Northwest. The fine symphony orchestra gives quarterly concerts, sometimes playing with a world-famous instrumentalist, and plays on special occasions such as commencement. You'll find a pep band that specializes in fall football formation work and takes occasional tours around the state. Choral groups unite each spring to present a well-known musicale such as Mendelssohn's "Elijah." These groups also perform at Christmas time and give a sunrise service at Easter. Individuals appear in solo and ensemble at convos, recitals and meetings.

Or if you are dramatically inclined, Sally, you can drop in on the tryouts held each quarter for Masquer productions. Push, not pull, will give you that part. If you prefer to watch from the wings, wander down the labyrinth of steps in the backstage region to where flats and sets go from the two- into the three-dimensional stage. You can paint flats on stage if nothing has suited you so far, but count on stiff joints and worn knees. If you should be blessed with "wheels," the long arm of the property manager will rush you into wrestling with furniture and hand props for the actors' parts. If greasepaint is your favorite smell, hie yourself up three flights of stairs to the makeup room where all kinds of characters, and we do mean characters, are in various stages of transformation. The girl with the pins in her mouth is the costume mistress and she'll gladly annex your talents if you wish. There is the business end to the play which includes house management, publicity and ticket sales.

Oh, so you like to argue. Well, Sally, any student is eligible to try out for a place on the M.S.U. debate team. This team meets other collegiate groups in hot debate and individual members successfully enter state oratorical and extempore contests.

"The Mountaineer," quarterly magazine edited by the students, presents short stories, sketches, editorials, essays and poetry by campus writers. Maybe this literary field is for you, Sally.

The fourth estate, the press, cannot be overlooked. Every Tuesday, Thursday and Friday the well-trained co-ed dashes out of her ten o'clock and grabs the day's issue of the Kaimin, official student newspaper. Pencilpushers compile the news in the journalism building where the paper is then put on the presses and distributed to the campus buildings. This is where you get the latest roundup of campus news. The paper is useful as a guide to reliable Missoula merchants and is generally excellent for lining dresser drawers and protecting skirts from the dirt of the bleachers.

Spring comes. June rolls around. By this time you're well acquainted with college life and are anxious to have in permanent form a concentrated capsule of your school year. Enter, the Sentinel, the year book, which contains your complete year, your friends, profs, classes, traditions and dances. The Staff members are chosen spring quarter from the interested students who apply for work in the many divisions.

HONORARIES . . . Tanan-of-Spur

Honoraries for women include first and foremost—Tanan-of-Spur, an honorary for sophomore women. The Spurs are chosen by a point system for above average grades, dependability, school spirit, neatness, willingness to work, pep, personality, and activities. Points for activities are taken in dramatics, athletics, music, debate, publication jobs, and club work. These women in white take care of the unpublicized but necessary details such as ushering at games and concerts, meeting trains of students, serving at teas, selling tickets and helping drives. They also hold a jitney dance for track visitors at sorority houses.

Alpha Lambda Delta

Freshman women who have maintained a grade point index of 2.2 or an above "B" average are elected to Alpha Lambda Delta, national honorary which was founded here by the local chapter of Mortar Board. The active members encourage high scholarship among the freshmen women and participate in various campus activities such as sponsoring coffee hours and teas for freshmen women with above average grades.

Mortar Board

This honorary is one of the highest honors to come to a woman on the campus of M.S.U. Members of Mortar Board are chosen by unanimous vote of active members and are tapped at an S.O.S. during track week. These girls are definitely above average in scholarship, leadership and service. They sell mums for football games, give the "Smarty Party" and are responsible for the local Alpha Lambda Delta organization.

BETTY HYDE, President.

Kappa Tau

Kappa Tau is a local scholarship fraternity which takes in students who have kept a better than "B" average for their three years in school.

Theta Sigma Phi

Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary, takes an active part in the activities of campus life. Members are responsible for the campus scandal sheet, "Campus Rakings," which comes out on Aber Day. These Dorothy Thompsons-in-the-bud sponsor the annual Matrix Table which honors outstanding co-eds and brings to Missoula women a noted feminine journalist.

Other Professional Honoraries

In addition to Theta Sigma Phi, there are other professional honoraries which command attention. These honoraries, which usually require a junior standing and a "B" average in your major and "C" in general average, include Kappa Epsilon, pharmacy; Phi Delta Phi, law; Phi Sigma, biology; and Tau Kappa Alpha, debate and oratory.

Montana Masquers, dramatics honorary, pledges hard-working students on a point system that gives merit points for work on productions. Fifteen such points give you a pledgeship and 30 makes you a full-fledged member. One hundred merit points reaps you the highest title of a Masquer Royale. M.R.'s must have won points in all phases of dramatic work. The Masquers present three major productions a year, co-direct a spring operetta with the Music school, present plays in the informal atmosphere of the Salon theater held in the Silver Room with the audience on all four sides, and finally, sponsor the Little Theater Festival for high school dramatics during Track Week.

CLASS CLUBS . . .

Strictly voluntary, membership in class clubs is worth more than a fleeting glance if you, Sally, want to see the most interesting view of your major and its practical application.

Some go for the Sociology club, whose activities can hold the group of embryo welfare workers spellbound with descriptions of Inside Warm Springs.

Some become curious about Type Lice so sign up for the Press club. In this club members get the inside dope from survivors in their field along with a bi-weekly cup of java—the only type of its kind to be found, and the kind you'll never forget.

Spanish speakers organize as Los Gringos and salaam toward South America, land of the seniors' dreams.

English majors concentrate on the social life, picnic and balance tea cups and enjoy pleasantly effortless evenings.

Musicians work in a harmonious organization, sponsor music meets, assist in receptions given in honor for visiting music celebrities, and encourage high school talent.

SAWBONE SERVICE . . .

The Health Service is your guardian angel in time of need. A pounding of the chest and tapping of the knees in a preliminary examination for all freshmen will be your first introduction, Sally. Surviving this, all students are given a TB test and an X-Ray if the reaction is positive.

A spring quarter "must" for anyone who plans to place a dainty foot off the straight and narrow cement walk and lounge on the grass or picnic in Montana Power park are the tick shots.

If a student slips in front of Main hall and cracks her collar-bone, the service comes to the rescue. If the variety of Missoula's weather is too much for her constitution and she wakes up some morning with a cough, the service comes to her aid. Gallantry, however, ends with the campus limits and ski trip fractures or any other off-campus accident is the co-ed's own headache, (or legache).

All is paid for at the beginning of each quarter in a small fee which entitles you, Sally, to care for seven days of illness. Financial backing for rests in the hospital ends after the seventh day when co-eds are considered either cured or chronic, and charged for any further care. For anything from sniffles to pneumonia the service fixes it up with the faculty, supplies health excuses from classes while student is under its care.

BACK TO CHURCH . . .

Your religious activities will be stimulated, not stifled when you come to school. Center of religious activity at the University is the School of Religion under the direction of the Rev. Carl L. Sullenberger. The courses in religion have been designed to meet student interests and problems. Because the courses have grown out of the requests and suggestions of students like you, the school endeavors to provide maximum opportunity for student participation in planning the courses as well as in discussion. It's yours to take advantage of, Sally.

In addition, various Missoula churches sponsor university groups which meet for religious instruction and discussion—a fine opportunity to get acquainted with those who share your religious beliefs. Local pastors are anxious to contact and counsel members of their denominations.

FUN FOR THE MONEY . . .

Once you get your A.S.M.S.U. card, hold on to it, Sally, for it is the magic wand that admits you to all university activities and games as well as most outside entertainment. A.S.M.S.U. is a member of the local Community Concert association. This card entitles you to the Kaimin, pays for part of the yearbook, helps support the debate team, the band and the drama department. It also allows you the use of the tennis courts and permits you to vote in the spring elections.

TRADITIONS . . .

College life at Montana State University is more than living in a dormitory or sorority house and going to classes and University functions. A major portion of it is taking part in those many little customs and annual happenings which will fill such a large part of your memory book in later years. We call them traditions. Some are funny, some serious, others sentimental. They're all really intangible, the spirit being the thing that counts—and that spirit is typically Montanan.

We're proud of these traditions. In fact we can hardly wait till the annual Butte game, where rivalry between the Grizzlies and the Bozeman Bobcats reaches its peak. M.S.U. students board the special and arrive in that city with all the fighting spirit for which the ferocious Grizzlies are noted. A gala parade with high-stepping majorettes, the flashy pep band, acrobatic cheerleaders and a live Grizzly cub mascot leads the students to the scene of this traditional gridiron clash.

The University sponsors High School Track Meet in which high school students from all over the state compete in debate, dramatics and speech activities as well as the athletic events. The big University events of this week are the tapping of new Spurs and members of Mortar Board, Track Meet Serenade when fraternities hold a midnight song session for college women and their visiting high school guests, and the Jitney Dances sponsored in all sorority houses by the Spurs. During the week members of Mortar Board serenade the sorority houses and the residence halls from which new members have been chosen. These junior girls are then publicly made known at the S.O.S. held that week. Spur pledges receive their glad news by telegram Friday morning of Track Meet week. Then in the afternoon before the field meet crowd, they are called out on the track to publicly receive their ribbons and spurs which they must wear at all times during the following week.

Important social functions which have become traditional are Foresters' Ball given by the woodsmen in a bough-lined gymnasium in honor of Paul Bunyan, and Barristers' Ball, a swanky formal given by the lawyers in honor of J. Learnedbrow. The Nite Club Dance, presented by the Music club, transforms the Gold Room into a select night-spot complete with a half floor show of talent drawn from the Music school.

The R.O.T.C. unit each spring votes for a Co-ed Colonel whose duty it is to review the boys on parade spring quarter and who receives special honor at the Track Meet review. The identity of the Colonel is kept secret until she is presented at the Military Ball 'midst fanfare and flag waving.

We have such things as Convocation day—Spurs ushering, people streaming into the Student Union auditorium with books and instruments, low voices, a background of organ music, and once a week students forget classes for an hour and meet at convo. The program may be comedy, musical, educational, of local talent or of outside artists and lecturers, but it's always worthwhile.

The ding-dong-ding of the famous Victory bell ringing up in Main Hall tower to let the whole town know the glad news of another athletic triumph. Sometimes it is joyously tolled for four hours in one period.

Fun for you, frosh—the job of washing the face of the “M” on Mount Sentinel with whitewash. There’s more to this tradition than you’d think, for the work-weary men find freshwomen waiting at the bottom of the hill with food. To placate the first-yearlings, upperclassmen have dignified the procedure by calling it “Green Day.”

Ding-dong-ding But the bell is not ringing for victory this time but for Aber Day. At 6:00 a.m. on a fine spring day the ringing of this bell proclaims the clean-up day held in honor of Prof. William (Daddy) Aber, who a few decades ago centered his interests in making the campus beautiful. Now every lass and lad grabs a rake, a broom and a handy old garb to give the campus its annual spring cleaning. After a morning of work for everybody, faculty included, a picnic lunch and kangaroo courtmartial refresh the laborers. Aber Day is also the day of the yellow sheet “Campus Rakings” and of the primaries in student elections. An A.S.M.S.U. mixer night-caps the afternoon picnic parties.

S.O.S. tonight. Notice the lighted “M” on the bell tower? The whole student body is here around the steps of Main hall. Singing-on-the-steps is one of our most cherished traditions. At these gatherings honoraries such as Mortar Board, Bear Paw and Silent Sentinel tap their new members, Christmas student sings are held, pre-game cheers ring out, and school songs are worked over. S.O.S. begins at 7:30 and lasts for half an hour. As the bell strikes 8:00, everyone sentimentally sings “College Chums” and walks away humming the second verse. Unity of action and spirit at M.S.U. means much.

Senior week all the graduating co-eds are honored by under-class women in the Lantern Parade. Colored lanterns on wands are carried around the oval by university women. The seniors in caps and gowns form an "M" in front of Main hall on the oval. The underclass women with their lanterns stand around the Main hall steps while a senior girl sings "Montana, My Montana," from the tower. This parade is perhaps the most beautiful of all our traditions.

And then there's the Senior Bench, built at the right of the entrance to the oval by class of 1910 solely for the use of the mighty Senior, whose battle-cry is "Get off that bench!" when he finds anyone using it who doesn't belong.

Co-ed Prom, girl's treat, is the A.W.S. winter formal.

Sadie Hawkins' Day, when all the gals of the campus track down and tie down university males by tagging them with "This is my man" tags in true Daisy Mae and Lil Abner style, is fast on its way to becoming a tradition. A special mixer ends this this leap-day.

Greetings from the W.A.A. President:

As representative of W.A.A., I take great pleasure in welcoming you to the University. We'd like to have you join us in our program of fun and frolic, and invite you to participate in the varied sports offered for your enjoyment. We have a variety of both team and individual sports suited to each and every one of you. Come out and play with W.A.A. Good sportsmanship, co-operation and friendship await you.

ANN FRASER, President.

THE WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION . . .

GENERAL ORGANIZATION

All University women are inactive members of W.A.A. and are invited to participate in its program of sports and other events. Upon payment of her annual dues and earning one participation credit, a member becomes "active," with voting and other privileges. Active status is maintained by her yearly payment of dues, and by her continued participation in the program, amounting to not less than one "p.c." earned during any three consecutive quarters.

W.A.A. Board is made up of the Executive Officers, the editors, the sports managers, and the intramural managers. Each sports manager announces the rules and regulations of her activity, arranges the tournament, and keeps a record of the participants. Intramural managers, one elected by each competing group, keep their team informed of events and schedules, appoint (or act as) captains for each sport, and enter teams or individuals in the intramural tournaments.

INDIVIDUAL PARTICIPATION

A member may earn a "p.c." in not more than two different activities of W.A.A. each quarter, by fulfilling the requirements as announced by the sports managers at the beginning of each season. Upon earning six participation credits, a member is awarded the W.A.A. "M" pin. The highest individual award is election to "M" club. Initial requirements include junior or senior class standing, a "C" scholastic average, and ten participation credits in W.A.A. A candidate must also, however, have shown evidence of outstanding merit in leadership, skill, appearance, posture, service, responsibility, dependability, and sportsmanship. Members are selected by the existing "M" Club, and are entitled to wear the "M" sweater.

INTRAMURAL COMPETITION

Intramural competition is offered in several sports each quarter, with entries from sororities, dormitories, and independent town teams. No girl is allowed to play on more than one team during the same quarter; (that is, she may not play basketball for one team, and badminton for a different group). She is expected to play for her natural team, according to her residence or affiliation. If, however, a member's natural team fails to enter a team in the tournament, and she wishes to participate, she may apply to W.A.A. Board for permission to play as a "guest" on some organized team. This "guest" membership does not destroy her eligibility to play with her own team in other activities during the same quarter.

Teams may enter in any or all of the tournaments. A record is kept of the points earned by each team throughout the year and the highest and second highest all-year totals are awarded the Intramural trophy and Intramural Plaque, respectively, at Awards Convocation in the spring. A few sports have special trophies, awarded to the teams winning in those events.

Points awarded toward the intramural awards are:

Team games (including volleyball, basketball and softball) . . .
50, 40, 30, 20, for first, second, third, and fourth, respectively.

Individual and dual games (including horseshoes, table tennis, badminton, archery, and tennis) . . . 25, 20, 15, 10, for first, second, third, and fourth.

PLAY DAYS . . .

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY DAY . . .

High school play day was revived four years ago, when guests from the local and near-by high schools were invited to the University campus for a day of fun. Color-team competition in a variety of sports, a tour of the campus, lunch and stunts, a "splash party" in the pool, all make up a grand play day, for the high school and University girls, as well.

INTERCOLLEGE PLAY DAY . . .

Ten outstanding W.A.A. members are chosen each year to represent the University women at the intercolleage get-together. The several branches of the Greater University participate, with each school taking its turn at playing hostess. This year it is the turn of the Eastern Montana State Normal School at Billings to be hostess at the inter-college ge-together, and we know that they will show us a fine time. It's not only fun, but we exchange ideas, and really get acquainted with our sister college chums.

SOCIAL CALENDAR . . .

FALL RALLY . . . All University women, especially freshmen, are invited to a picnic spread at the beginning of fall quarter. Singing around the campfire, games and food make a pleasant evening for all.

CHRISTMAS FIRESIDE . . . This is the fall sports finale. W.A.A. awards are presented, "M" clubs members tapped, and Christmas Carols sung around the fireplace in the student union lounge.

SLACKS PARTY . . . Winter quarter awards are made at this informal get-together. Cowboy dancing, games, and entertainment are included in this Fun Night.

INSTALLATION BANQUET . . . Held after Spring Elections, installing new W.A.A. officers and board members and new "M" Club officers.

SPRING PICNIC . . . This climaxes a year of activities, with spring quarter sports awards and farewell to college friends for the summer.

WINTER ACTIVITIES . . .

BASKETBALL . . .

Manager

Betty Jo Staves

If it's a speedy game you enjoy, then get five more team mates and you can play a game of basketball. Six girls constitute a team and eight hours are required for a "p.c." There is a Round Robin Tournament and, of course, you can't all win; but it is the speed and teamwork which makes it fun for all and competition high.

TABLE TENNIS . . .

Manager

Margery Hunter

It's a game which is enjoyed by all, whether it is played in the gym or in the halls. Both Singles and Doubles Tournaments are offered and eight hours of practice are all you need for a "p.c." Come on out and join the fun.

BOWLING . . .

Manager

Carole McConnell

The sound of the ball on the hardwood alley is music to the ears of any bowler. Each team consists of five girls and each bowls three lines in the tournament. Ten lines of bowling are required for a "p.c." in this sport. So come on out and prove to yourself that bowling is a mighty fine pastime.

SKIING . . .

Manager

Georgia Wendt

This popular sport, just recently added to the list of W.A.A. activities, requires four trips for a "p.c." Want to know how a swallow feels in flight? Then buy a set of thin boards, some wax, a ski suit, and find out.

FALL FROLICS . . .

HORSESHOES . . .

Manager

Angelu Tripp

Whether you pitch them high or you pitch them low, it all adds to the fun of horseshoes. If you lose once, don't be downhearted as we have a double elimination tournament. Eight hours of pitching will bring you a "p.c." in horseshoes, so come along and see how many ringers you can make.

VOLLEYBALL . . .

Manager

Mary Ellen MacDonald

For a sport that's really fun, you'll find that volleyball is the one. It's the teamwork that really counts and keeps the ball flying over the net. Eight girls make up a team and then you'll be ready to enter the Round Robin Tournament. Eight hours of playing will bring you a "p.c." So come and bring your friends; they'll like it too.

BADMINTON . . .

Manager

Nancy Kincaid

Badminton is the game for you if you prefer a graceful indoor sport. There will be both a Singles and Doubles Tournament with double elimination for each. Eight hours of practice will be required for a "p.c." Check out a "bird" and a racquet and play badminton with us this fall.

SPRING SPRINTS . . .

SOFTBALL . . .

Manager

Lorraine Demko

Come rain or shine, a Round Robin Tournament is held in the spring as softball gets under way. Much competition is offered by many different teams who have entered the tournament, and a softball trophy is awarded the team that takes first place. Eight hours of practice are required for a "p.c." Home runs and stolen bases all add to the excitement of the game.

ARCHERY . . .

Manager

Kathy Lloyd

If a future Robin Hood you'll be, then come join us on the archery range in the spring. Eight hours of practice are required for a "p.c." and a cup is awarded the archer with the highest score. Each spring a Telegraphic Tournament is held in competition with other college women throughout the United States. So come on out and see how many "bulls-eyes" you can make.

TENNIS . . .

Manager

Marguerite Brandt

Love, deuce and game means that tennis is back again. Each spring both Singles and Doubles Tournaments are offered and eight hours of practice will bring you a "p.c." A cup is awarded the champion doubles team. So come out in the spring and you too can smash your way to a lot of fun and even a championship.

CONTINUOUS CAPERS . . .

SWIMMING . . .

Manager

Joanna Midtyling

One sure way to relax from your school day worries is a swim in the University's indoor pool. You can choose the depth of water in which you feel safest and a reliable person is in charge at all times. A National Telegraphic Meet and also Intramural Competition are held each year. And if you really like it, you can join the Aquamaids and learn to dance—in H₂O. Splash your way to fun and relaxation in the pool, anytime.

INTER-SEASONAL SPORTS . . .

Manager

Sally Woodard

If no other sport appeals to you, then here's one that just can't miss. We offer hiking, riding, and skating, so take your pick. It takes 15 hours of any one sport or the combination of two to earn your "p.c." So come on, there's something doing for everybody each quarter.
