Grizzlies Begin Big Sky Conference Season

Five of the eight Big Sky Conference coaches are new this season, and three of them, including the University of Montana's Mike Montgomery, will be making their conference debuts this weekend.

All three teams, UM, Gonzaga and Idaho have winning records at press time (Idaho will play at Montana State Friday evening), with Gonzaga boasting a 9-3 record, followed by Idaho and UM at 6-5.

In the preseason prospectus written by the the conference on October 23, Gonzaga's coach, Dan Fitzgerald, said, "We have a lot of potential. We are excited about our returning players and new recruits."

Well, with 12 games behind him Fitzgerald's optimism has probably turned to confidence. Stocked with excellent transfers (Carl Pierce, James Shepperd and Eddie White), the Bulldogs not only have racked up almost as many wins (they were 14-15 overall and 7-7 in conference last year) already this season, but they also have lost by slim margins to some very good teams.

The Bulldogs lost to Washington State (66-63) and Oregon State (59-58), and could have won either game. Their other loss was to Portland (91-76).

Gonzaga also is aided by veteran Paul Cathey, who was second in the Big Sky in rebounding last season with an 11.5 average.

Idaho has all of its starters back, not to mention smooth-shooting guard Don Newman, who is averaging 20.2 points a contest. Newman, a starter for LSU as a freshman, has scored more than 20 points in five games, including 29 in one.

The Vandals are coached by first-year mentor Don Monson, an assistant to Jud Heathcote at Michigan State, where they were 25-5 last season.

Montgomery said a few weeks ago. Although ranked 5 last season. UI's top returnee is Reed Jaussi the No. 7 scorer in the recent KOA Classic in Billings. Senior forward Allan ( ~

The Grizzlies now appear to be on their way, after two fine games in the recent KOA Classic in Billings. Senior forward Allan Nielsen showed the shooting form of last season in the tourney, scoring 47 points in two games, and canning 22 of 32 field goal attempts, including 27 in the 91-78 victory over LaSalle.

Center John Stroeder also played well, grabbing 16 rebounds in the two games, and dishing out seven assists in the 77-69 loss to Portland.

Montgomery said he was especially pleased with the play of the guards, "who are showing a better shooting touch, and playing with more poise."

Preseason prognosticators tabbed the Grizzlies to finish around third place. Montgomery's big concern was at the guard slots, and he feels Tim McCauley and Blaine Taylor have improved.

This weekend will be a crucial one for The Griz, because as Montgomery said, "this is a tough conference, and you have to play well at home to have a chance in it."

Mike Montgomery began his initial campaign as head coach at the University of Montana. He served as assistant coach to Jim Brandenburg for the past two seasons at UM. Montgomery is an outstanding recruiter, and handled the coaching duties on a few occasions last year for the ailing Brandenburg, who is now the head coach at Wyoming.

Prior to coming to UM, Mike spent three years as an assistant at Boise State University. Despite his young age he has eight years of major college experience.

Montgomery has also served in coaching stints at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, Colorado State University, the Citadel and the University of Florida.

Offensively, Montgomery likes to employ the fast break, "and use a structured, early offense, designed for people who can shoot the ball. I stress high-percentage shots, tough rebounding and a disciplined style of play."

On the defensive side, Montgomery likes his players to play a tough, physical style, "and make the offense beat us, and not help them by breaking down to give up the easy shot."

Montgomery uses several defensive looks, depending on his opponent's strong and weak points.

The 31-year-old bachelor is especially excited to start this season in Adams' Field House. "The Grizzlies have great fan interest, the best in the Big Sky, and I'm anxious to get the season underway, as I'm sure our "sixth man" — the fans are."

A native of Long Beach, California, Montgomery went to Long Beach State where he played basketball for four years and volleyball and rugby for two years. He graduated in 1968 with a degree in Physical Education. He earned his Master's degree in Physical Education from Colorado State University.

Mike remains active in sports and enjoys golf, racquetball and tennis.
Welcome to the University of Montana

The University of Montana in Missoula is located in a mountain forest setting in beautiful Western Montana. It is halfway between Glacier and Yellowstone National Parks.

Four wilderness areas are located nearby Missoula. The natural surroundings offer excellent opportunities for hunting, fishing, backpacking, river floating, camping and other outdoor recreational pursuits. Two excellent winter ski areas are located within minutes of the University. Several other ski areas are only a couple of hours away by car. UM owns and operates its own golf course adjacent to campus.

The University of Montana is one of the West's pioneers in education and was chartered February 17, 1893. The school opened in September, 1895, with fifty students enrolling the first day. Located on 201 acres at the base of Mount Sentinel, UM has grown from fifty students and seven faculty members to a present enrollment of 8,363 and approximately 450 fulltime state supported faculty positions.

Throughout its history, the University of Montana has sustained a high standard of academic excellence in teaching, research and service.

UM offers associate of arts degrees in two areas and bachelor's degrees in 58 fields. It offers master's degrees in 54 programs and doctoral degrees in 13.

The College of Arts and Sciences, which is the core of the University, includes a full range of programs and courses in the life sciences, physical sciences, social sciences and humanities. The College also offers curricula in interdisciplinary fields ranging from ethnic studies to interdepartmental studies.

Seven professional schools complete the academic program—Business Administration, Fine Arts, Journalism, Education, Forestry, Law, Pharmacy and Allied Health Sciences.

The aim of the University is to provide its students with a relaxing and meaningful learning experience with the best facilities possible. The administration, faculty and staff strive for this goal.

Dr. Richard C. Bowers assumed duties as the 13th president of the University of Montana on July 4, 1974. Bowers came to UM from Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, where he served as vice president and provost, and professor of chemistry.

As Northern Illinois' provost, he was chief academic officer of the University and had overall responsibility for many other university activities, including computer services, admissions and records, and the library. He also represented Northern Illinois University to the Illinois Board of Regents, the Board of Higher Education of the State of Illinois, and the State Legislature.

Prior to being named vice president and provost in 1969, Bowers served as the Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at NIU from 1965-69.

Bowers received his B.S. degree in chemistry from the University of Michigan in 1948 and his Ph.D. in chemistry from the University of Minnesota in 1953. He taught at Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill., beginning in 1954 and became Director of Chemical Laboratories and associate chairman of the Department of Chemistry at Northwestern in 1963.

Harley W. Lewis was named athletic director at the University of Montana effective April 14, 1976. He had served as acting athletic director from July 1, 1975.

A 1964 graduate of UM with an M.S. in health, physical education and recreation, Lewis became track and cross country coach at UM in 1966. Prior to assuming coaching responsibilities at UM, the 1959 graduate of Butte High School coached two years at the University of Portland.

Lewis served as cross country coach until 1976 and won nine Big Sky titles until resigning the position. He served as track coach through the 1978 season. While track coach, Lewis won the conference title in 1972. He has been named Big Sky Coach of the Year in cross country and track, ten times. He has served on numerous national committees, worked with U.S. Olympic endeavors and coached several All-American performers at Montana.

Marshall's job at UM is two-fold. He serves as assistant athletic director in charge of business affairs as well as head track coach for the men. This is his first year at Montana, coming from Stanford where he was head cross country coach and assistant track coach for men for the past ten years. He is a 1957 graduate of USC where he lettered in both track and cross country. He earned a master's degree from USC in 1958. He is considered one of the nation's outstanding distance coaches.

Dave took over the sports information job in mid-October of 1978, coming from Fresno, California, where he was sports editor of the Fresno Guide. He received a B.A. in journalism from Fresno State University in 1975. While attending FSU he worked as an assistant in the sports information office three years, and also wrote prep sports for the Fresno Bee. Dave handles press guides, releases and Grizzly programs, and is responsible for promotion of UM sports.

This is Chuck's second year as UM equipment manager, following 30 years of service to Powell County High School in Deer Lodge, Montana. Most recently he was head track coach there, but he also served as football and basketball coach, head of the physical education department and business instructor. He is a 1947 graduate of UM with a B.A. in health, physical education. He earned a master's degree in education in 1965. He is a member of the UM Basketball Hall of Fame.

Beginning his first year as UM's faculty representative, Ray has been a professor of pharmacy administration in UM's School of Pharmacy since 1966. He received a B.S. in pharmacy from Idaho State in 1951. He earned an M.B.A. in marketing from the University of Wisconsin in 1960 and earned a Ph.D. there in pharmacy administration in 1962. A native of Idaho Falls, he is affiliated with several professional organizations. He determines academic eligibility for UM athletes.

Naseby is the only athletic trainer Montana has known. A month after his graduation from UM in 1935, he was appointed Montana's first athletic trainer. He was a standout athlete while attending high school in Milwaukee and became one of Montana's finest all-around athletes earning nine varsity letters in football, basketball and track. He has received many honors and accolades during his 44 years at Montana, including the Grizzly Cup, which he won in 1935 and his son Pete won in 1958.

Gary has been ticket manager at UM since 1966. Last year he was also appointed fieldhouse manager. He schedules all events in Adams Fieldhouse and at Dornblaser Stadium in addition to handling ticket distribution. He is a native of Ronan, Montana and graduated in accounting from the Missoula Business College in 1962. He gained extensive experience in accounting and auditing before assuming his responsibilities at Montana.

Plugging the Holes in Your House

Before another winter comes, plug the holes in your house. It will help in the summer, too, keeping out some of the hot weather. Caulking around the windows, doors and where the siding meets the concrete foundation will reduce air infiltration — both hot and cold.

—18—
Craig Henkel
6-7, 200 lbs., Forward
Senior from Libby, Montana

Craig Henkel is one of three outstanding senior forwards returning to the Grizzly team this season. Henkel is a good passer, and can play well on both ends of the court as his stats from last year indicate.

Henkel played in all 28 games last year for UM. He was the leading scorer in one game and was the top rebounder in eight. He had 13 rebounds in a victory over Gonzaga last season.

Coach Mike Montgomery says, “As a two-year starter we expect Craig to shoulder much of the responsibility for scoring, rebounding and team defense. He has proved to be an excellent, steady performer. He will be one of our best performers this year, and plays a good overall game. He has played for three seasons for us and knows what’s expected of him.”

Although averaging 7.4 points a game, Craig connected on more than half of his field goal attempts for a .522 percentage last season.

As a prep he was a first team Class AA All-State selection at Libby High School where he was coached by Bill Anderson. He led the Class AA in scoring and rebounding his senior year, and was a unanimous pick for the state all-tourney team in 1975.

His goal for the Grizzlies is “to win the Big Sky,” something Henkel and the other returnees came very close to last year.

He is an Elementary Education major at UM and would like to teach math. His hobbies are golf, pool and tennis.

He is the son of Mr. Wallace Henkel of Libby. Birthdate: December 16, 1956.

NEW YORK (AP)—Guard Mike Richardson, the all-time leading scorer at the University of Montana, has signed a four-year contract with the New York Knicks for an estimated $800,000 to be paid over 30 years.

The 6-foot-5, 190-pound Richardson’s signing by the National Basketball Association was announced at a news conference Tuesday. He was their No. 1 pick in the college draft and the fourth pick overall in the league.

Richardson averaged 24.2 points per game in his senior year and was the club’s second leading rebounder. As a collegian, he scored a total of 1,827 points.

Coach Willis Reed said, “He can play with anybody. He has great quickness like Walt Frazier used to have. He also has size, passing ability and is a strong defensive player. He’s the first big guard we’ve had since Frazier aged and lost his effectiveness.”

Richardson, who was born in Lubbock, Texas, and grew up in Denver said, had played forward at Montana until last season.

He said, ”My chief goal in my rookie year is to play defense. I played forward most of my college career because of my jumping and rebounding, but I’m really not a forward. I’m a passer, shooter and dribbler and like to play defense.”

Michael Ray commented on his experience at the University of Montana:

"Missoula is a super basketball town which really supports the university and the Grizzly basketball program and coming to Montana gave me opportunities for improvement and achievement that might not have happened if I had went elsewhere."
