LGIC V Features A Different Look

By Linda Reaves
UM Assistant Sports Information Director

The Lady Griz Insurance Classic V will feature a different format than the previous four tournaments did.

Because of the late pullout by Baylor, the tournament will have only three participating teams and will follow a round-robin format.

The three teams battling for the title are the Universities of Montana, Minnesota and Colorado.

Two-time defending champion Montana brings the best record into the tournament at 4-1. The Lady Griz finished second in the Eastern Montana Tipoff Tournament last weekend, losing to North Dakota 49-46 in the championship game.

Montana also comes into the tournament with a 41-game home winning streak.

Junior center Sharla Muralt leads UM in scoring and rebounding, averaging 19.4 points and 10 rebounds a game. Senior forward Anita Novak is second in both categories with averages of 12.8 points and 8.8 rebounds.

Senior guard Barb Kavanagh is Montana's third-leading scorer with an 11.2 point average. She also leads the team in assists with 4 a game.

Montana forward Anita Novak handles the ball on the outside.

Colorado's Kris Holwerda tries to steal the ball.

The Lady Griz' other probable starters are freshman guard Cheryl Brandell and freshman forward Dawn Silliker. Brandell is averaging 5.4 points and 4.4 rebounds. Silliker adds 3.2 points and 6 rebounds a game.

Sophomore guard Natalie Streeter, who has missed all but one game after having an appendectomy, may return to the lineup this weekend. She was expected to be a starter at the beginning of the season.

UM is averaging 65.6 points and 45.2 rebounds while giving up just 51.4 points and 39.2 rebounds. The team is shooting 39.6 percent from the field and 57.1 percent from the free-throw line.

The Lady Griz are coming off a very poor shooting performance in the Eastern Montana Tipoff Tournament. UM was 48-132 (36.3 percent) from the field and 14-39 (35.9) percent from the field in the two games.

"We were really disappointed in the way we shot last weekend," UM coach Robin Selvig said. "We're a much better shooting team than we showed. I can't explain what happened, but we're not going to worry about it.

"We're a young team and we should improve every time out." Selvig added. "North Dakota is a good team and I think we learned a lot in that game. It should help us in the long run."

Minnesota brings a 3-3 record to Missoula. The Golden Gophers have played a very difficult early season schedule and one of their losses came against nationally-ranked Northwest Louisiana (82-66).

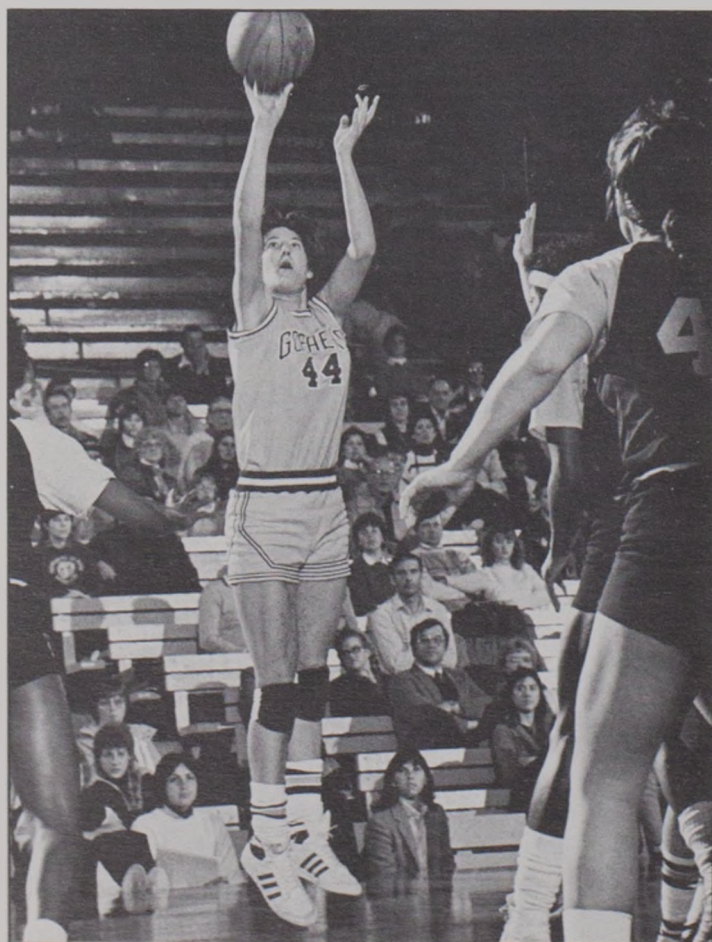

Senior forward Laura Coenen is averaging 23.8 points and 13.7 rebounds to lead Minnesota in both categories. Junior forward Carol Peterka is second in scoring with a 19.7 point average and third in rebounding with an average of 8.2 a game. Sophomore center Molly Tadich is third in scoring at 11.2 points a game and second in rebounding with an average of 9.8 rebounds.

Minnesota's starting guards are junior Lisa Hoelscher and senior Denise Freese. Hoelscher averages 2 points and 2.8 rebounds while Freese adds 2.2 points and 1.2 rebounds a game.

Minnesota is averaging 65.5 points and 44.2 rebounds. The opponents are scoring 66.8 points and grabbing 39.7 rebounds a game. The Golden Gophers are shooting 43.2 percent from the field and 67.6 percent from the line.

"Minnesota has a traditionally strong program and they've played a tough schedule this season," Selvig said. "This will be only the second Big 10 team we've ever played and we're really looking forward to a good game."

Colorado is 2-4 this season. The team's leading scorer and rebounder is junior center LeaAnn Banks who is averaging 15.6 points and 10.2 rebounds.

Minnesota forward-center Laura Coenen goes up for the shot.

Colorado's starting forwards are sophomore Terri Jackson (9.5 ppg, 6.8 rpg) and senior Aileen Murray (1.6 ppg, 0.8 rpg). Junior Kris Holwerda and (4.4 ppg, 4.2 rpg) and freshman Therese Puchalski (7.2 ppg, 2.2 rpg) are the starting guards.

Colorado is averaging 59.8 points and 37.8 rebounds while giving up 70.2 points and 33.8 rebounds. The Lady Buffs are connecting on 47.1 percent of their field goal attempts and 57.8 percent of their free throws.

"Colorado also has a traditionally strong program," said Selvig. "They have good talent and have played a good schedule.

"We're disappointed that we don't have four teams for this year's tournament, but I think we have a very good field," Selvig added. "Our fans will get the chance to see the Lady Griz play two very good teams from different parts of the country."

Montana's leading scorer Sharla Muralt puts up a shot.
