Lady Griz To Go After Fourth Straight Classic Title

By Linda Reaves, UM Assistant SID

The University of Montana Lady Griz basketball team will try to win its own tournament for the fourth time in a row when the Domino's Pizza Classic is held this weekend.

The three visiting teams who will try to deny UM are LaSalle, Pepperdine and Montana Tech.

The opening round matchups have Montana playing Pepperdine at 6:30 and LaSalle facing Montana Tech at 8:30 on Friday night. The consolation game starts at 6:30 and the Championship begins about 8:30 Saturday night.

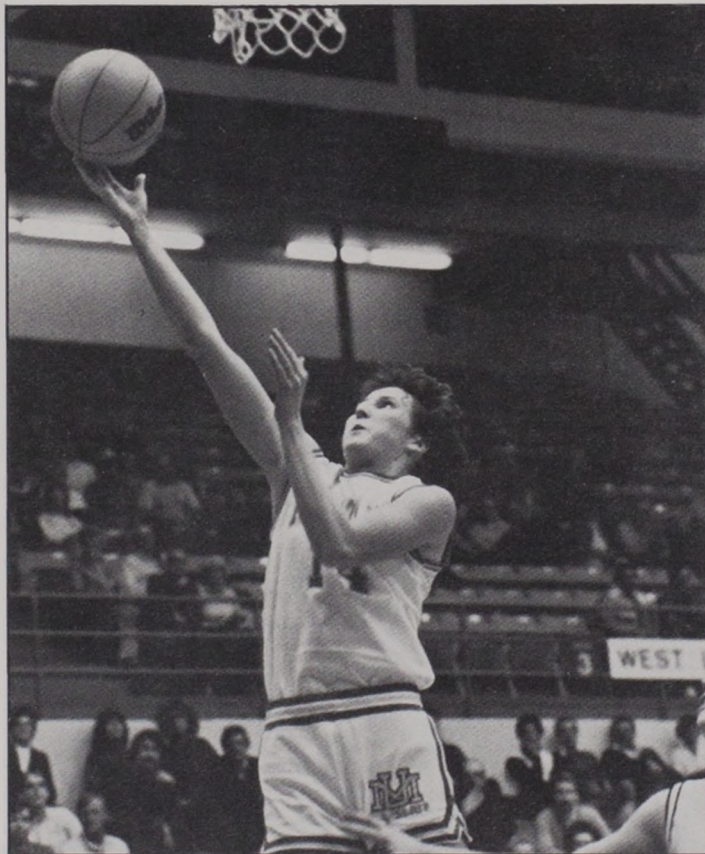

The Lady Griz come into the tournament with the best record at 4-1. They finished third in the Washington State Dial Classic last weekend, losing to BYU 71-67 in the opening round and beating Seattle University 75-47 in the consolation game.

A pair of sophomore guard-forwards—5-11 Cheryl Brandell and 6-1 Marti Leibenguth—are UM's leading scorers, averaging 11.4 and 11.2 points respectively. Next is 6-1 senior center Sharla Muralt at 9.6.

Muralt is also the team leader in rebounding with a 5.6 average. Brandell and 6-0 sophomore forward Dawn Silliker are averaging 5.4 rebounds apiece.

Brandell and 5-8 junior point guard Margaret Williams are UM's assist leaders with 4 and 3.6 a game.

Montana has shot well from the field and the team field goal percentage is 48.7. Six of the Lady Griz are shooting at least 50 percent from the field with Brandell leading the way at 55.8 percent.

Montana's Marti Leibenguth drives in for a layup. She is the Lady's Griz' second-leading scorer, averaging 11.2 points.

Forward Shawn Sturgeon averaged 14.4 points and 7.7 rebounds for the Pepperdine Waves last season.

However, UM has struggled at the free throw line, hitting only 61.4 percent. Reserve guard Kris Moede and Leibenguth are the only players on the team hitting better than 70 percent from the line. Moede, a 5-9½ sophomore, is at 72.7 percent and Leibenguth is close behind at 70.6.

The Lady Griz are averaging 70.4 points a game while giving up just 53.8. Their opponents are hitting just 34.7 percent of their field goal attempts.

UM Coach Robin Selvig has a career record of 155-55 in his seven-plus seasons with the Lady Griz.

"I'm pretty pleased with where we are right now," Selvig said. "We made some mistakes against BYU, but this is the time of the year that you're going to make mistakes. What I'm worried about is that we improve every game and I think we're doing that."

Pepperdine is 0-4, but has the talent to put it all together in the Classic. Its losses came against the University of Cincinnati (80-56), Toledo (65-54), Southern Cal (90-54) and Cal-Riverside (65-63).

The Waves are led by 6-0 senior forward Maureen Formico who is averaging 18 points and 14.2 rebounds. She was the nation's No. 9 scorer (24.6 ppg) and No. 12 rebounder (13.2 rpg) last season. However, she is only shooting 32.6 percent from the field this season compared to 46.2 last year.

The only other Pepperdine player averaging in double figures is

6-0 sophomore center Trish Maly who is at 11.5 points a game. She is also the only player on the team shooting better than 50 percent from the field, hitting 51.4 percent of her shots.

Shawn Sturgeon, a 5-11 senior forward who averaged 14.4 points and 7.7 rebounds last season, is off to a slow start, averaging just 5.5 points and 5.5 rebounds. She is a starting middle blocker on Pepperdine's nationally ranked volleyball team and missed pre-season basketball workouts.

Pepperdine's main early season problem has been its shooting. The Waves are hitting just 36.5 percent from the field and 54.7 percent from the line, while their opponents are at 47.5 from the field and 66.7 from the line. Consequently, the team is being outscored 76 to 55.8 points a game.

Coach Ron Fortner is 23-41 in his third season at Pepperdine. "Our main concern is their big scorer (Maureen Formico)," Selvig said. "We will have to do a great job against her. Whenever you're going against one of the top 10 scorers in the nation, your defense is going to be tested."

LaSalle has all five starters back from the team that went 22-8 last season and was 3-1 before a Tuesday night game against Villanova.

LaSalle defeated Delaware (65-55), Fairleigh Dickinson (81-64) and Fordham (81-57) while losing to Temple (65-62).

The Explorers are led by a 5-9 senior guard Linda Hester and 5-10 senior forward Jill Crandley, who are averaging 20.5 and 19.3 points respectively. Both passed the 1,000 point career mark earlier this season. Six-foot junior forward Allison Hudson is also in double figures, averaging 10.8 points a game.

Hudson is LaSalle's top rebounder with a 7.8 average.

The Explorers will be without 5-7 freshman guard Sheila Wall who is out with a knee injury. She started one game and is averaging 5.5 points and 2.7 rebounds.

LaSalle is shooting 45.9 percent of its field goals and 74.3 percent of its free throws. Its opponents are hitting 46.6 percent for the field and 63.8 percent from the line. The highest scoring team in the tournament, LaSalle is averaging 72.3 points and giving up 60.3.

Billy "Speedy" Morris is in his second year as LaSalle's head coach and has a 25-9 record.

"LaSalle is very experienced and obviously a very good team," UM's Selvig said. "This is the first Eastern team we've had in the tournament and I think the fans will enjoy seeing a little different style of play."

Montana Tech, a Frontier Conference team, is 3-1 this season. The Orediggers beat Colorado School of Mines, Northern Colorado and Northwest Nazarene, but lost to Eastern Oregon.

Tech is led by two former Missoula high school standouts—Kelly Sax, a 5-11 senior forward from Sentinel and Cyndi Moyer, a 6-1 freshman center from Big Sky. Sax is the team's leading scorer with a 20 point average and Moyer is the top rebounder, averaging 8 boards a game.

Coach Jo Buysse is 86-75 in six-plus seasons at Montana Tech.

"Montana Tech is a good NAIA team," said Selvig. "They're young, but they've gotten off to a good start. Personnel-wise, they might be a little overmatched, but they'll play good, solid basketball.

"I think this is a good tournament field," Selvig added. "We have a team from the East Coast and one from the West Coast and two Montana teams."
