I. Required readings for this course will be drawn from the following resources: Tribal Peoples & Development Issues: A Global Overview by John Bodley, Mayfield publishing; Genocide in Paradise, Breaking the Iron Bonds, Indian Control of Energy Development by Marjane Ambler, University Press of Kansas; and Reserved Readings Progress Can Kill, How Imposed Development Destroys the Health of Tribal Peoples, a Survival International Publication, and Paradigm Wars.

II. This course is designed to acquaint students with issues as they relate to the impact that industrialization and global development has had upon Indigenous peoples. Because this is an anthropology class, students will be introduced to the topic by reading some of the classical anthropological research and literature.

III. Tests will be based on assigned readings, lectures, and videos. It is the student's responsibility to keep up with the assigned readings, lectures and videos if they wish to maximize their potential for learning and test grades in this course. Students should assume that where lecture material and information from the text cross, such information will most likely show up on exams. Lectures will be presented on the premise that students have read the assigned material and are bringing to the class an inquisitiveness and level of participation that will spark discussions.

IV. Objective: By the end of the course students will have become familiar with the impact that corporations and development have had on Indigenous cultures.

V. Graded assignments:

A. Short Answer Exam

This exam will consist of 5 short answers (5 pts ea.) and 5 Identifications (2 pts ea.)

worth 35 pts (17.5%)

B. Mid Term

The mid-term will consist of 30 multiple choice questions (1 pt. ea) and 7 Identification problems (2 pts ea.).

worth 50 pts (25%)

C. Group Facilitated Discussion

Each group will provide a summary and assessment of a video, or an assigned section of the course readings. The objective of the group is to research beyond the assigned material and present students with questions designed to generate discussion on underlying ethical issues as well as answer questions. It will be the responsibility of groups 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, must obtain and preview the videos they will be leading discussions on a week in advance of their discussion so they will be better prepared to discuss their topics. Each group will have a 40-60 minutes for discussions, or,

Term Summary paper Students not assigned a group will write a 3 page paper summarizing class lectures, videos, readings and discussion.

worth 15 pts (7.5%)

D. Research Paper

The final research paper must discuss a development issue/s that pertain/s to a group/s of Indigenous people and how these people have either been positively or negatively impacted. The paper must fall between 2,100 - 2,200 words in length, anything less or more than this will result with the paper receiving a lower grade. The paper must be properly referenced, with a properly written bibliography of no less than 6 references, of which only 2 can be from the internet.

The final paper is due in class on April 25th.

worth 100 pts (50%)

Any final paper turned in after class will be late and will have 2 points deducted each day until turned in.

VI. Grading Scale : A = 181 - 200 B = 161 - 180 C = 141 - 160
D = 129 - 140 F = 0 - 128

Academic Honesty: Under no circumstances should students represent another person's work or ideas as their own. To do this is to plagiarize and it is an intolerable offense in the academic community. Students who plagiarize will fail the assignment, and as a result may fail the course. Students should also be advised that they should not submit the same paper for more than one course.
