Young Grizzlies Host Stout St. in 1981-82 Opener

Often times, prior to an athletic season, coaches talk about how inexperienced and young their teams are. The 1981-82 University of Montana Grizzly basketball team definitely fits that bill.

Coach Mike Montgomery’s 12-man Grizzly team of 1981-82 has only three juniors, six sophomores and three freshmen on its roster. There are no seniors back from UM’s team of a season ago which was 19-9 overall and 11-3 in the Big Sky Conference.

However, two of those players, juniors Craig Larsen (6-11) and Derrick Pope (6-6) started in most of Montana’s games last year, and sophomore guard Marc Glass (6-3) started in six.

Montgomery has guided the Grizzlies to the playoffs in all three of his seasons as head coach at UM, including second place Big Sky finishes the last two years. He is the first mentor in Grizzly history to win 50 games in his first three seasons as head coach.

“We lost more experience than any other Big Sky team,” Montgomery said. “Our nonconference schedule will be very important for us and answer a lot of questions personnel-wise.”

Nonconference matchups include Utah State, Gonzaga, Washington State, Washington and others — including this evening’s foe, Stout State.

The Grizzlies and Blue Devils are not strangers. The teams have played five times, UM winning all five.

However, according to Montgomery, “I don’t know that much about Stout State; but I do know they are well-coached and do not hurt themselves. They are very patient offensively and take the shot they want. When a team does that it makes them a good team, one which you have to play hard defensively to beat.”

Montgomery also noted that UM and Stout State, “have had some close games against each other. Plus they’re coming in having played a couple of games.”

The Blue Devils opened their season Nov. 23, playing Northland College, and played at Eastern Montana last night.

Mike Montgomery begins his fourth season as head coach at the University of Montana, and his sixth as a Grizzly coach. He served as an assistant coach at UM prior to becoming the head coach.

Mike has taken the Grizzlies to the Big Sky Conference’s postseason playoffs all three of his seasons as head coach. The last two seasons the Grizzlies have been the runnerup in the tournament and a quest for a berth in the NCAA Regionals.

He is the first coach in Montana history to win 50 games in his first three season and has a career mark of 50-33. His winning percentage (.606) is the best in the school’s 72-year history.

"Monty’s" 1980-81 record of 19-9 is the sixth best in the school’s history. His record was 17-11 in the previous season and 14-13 his first year. His 17-11 mark was the seventh best in UM history.

Montgomery has 11 years of major college coaching experience. He served as an assistant coach at Boise State for three seasons before coming to UM. He has also had coaching stints at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, Colorado State, the Citadel and the University of Florida.

"Basically our offense is designed to get the high percentage shot, depending on the capabilities of our personnel," Montgomery said. "That shot changes from year-to-year, from inside to outside."

"The highest percentage shot comes out of the fast break, so we do emphasize the break in our offensive development," he continued. "Regardless of our offensive talent, defense has to be the emphasis in our program. We take great pride in our defense, and we want our opponent to only take low percentage shots. We strive for consistent, hard-nosed defense."

Montgomery is a 1968 graduate of Long Beach State and is a native of Long Beach, Calif. He played basketball for the 49ers and was a starter. He earned a masters degree in Physical Education from Colorado State.

His wife’s name is Sarah.

Kelly Arkell begins his second season as head junior varsity basketball coach at the University of Montana. He guided the Grizzlies to a 5-3 overall record during the 1980-81 season.

"Kelly is now in his second year in the Grizzly program, and he knows our system well, and is teaching the junior varsity team the ins and outs of our program," said head coach Mike Montgomery.

"He did a very good job for us last year, and communicates well with the players," Montgomery said. "We are delighted to have him in the program for another year."

Arkell, 25, is from Tacoma, Washington, where he was a basketball and baseball standout at Washington High School. He graduated from there in 1974. He was team captain his senior year in basketball.

Prior to coaching at UM he was junior varsity basketball coach at Sumner High School in Sumner, Washington for three seasons. All three were winning seasons; in his last season he was 16-4. His overall coaching record there was 36-24.

He is a 1978 graduate of Washington State University. He received his B.S. in Physical Education.

Arkell is single.

Blaine Taylor
JV Coach

A Missoula product, Blaine Taylor was one of the outstanding players at the University of Montana in recent years. This is his first year as a Grizzly coach.

Taylor was a Big Sky Conference honorable mention selection as a junior and a senior. He was named to the conference post-season all-tourney team last year.

He is the No. 17 career scorer in Grizzly history with 753 points. Taylor was also known for his passing and ball-handling skills. He was on a record-setting pace for assists last season until he was sidelined for five games with an injury. He finished the season with 102 assists in 23 games, for a 4.4 average.

He was Montana’s leading scorer in five games in 1980-81, including a team and game-high 21 points in UM’s 85-64 win over Montana State in the first game of the Big Sky tournament.

"Blaine should be an outstanding coach, based on the contribution he made to Grizzly basketball during his career," Montgomery said. "He has good knowledge of the game and understands Grizzly basketball and its traditions."

Taylor was an all-state player at Hellgate High School for three years. He was the state “AA” MVP as a senior.

Blaine’s wife’s name is Annie Marie. They have a one-and-a-half-year-old daughter, Amber Lee.

A returning starter for the Grizzlies, Craig Larsen must have a good year for the Grizzlies to be successful in 1981-82. He showed that he had recovered from ankle problems that he had his freshman season, playing in 28 games, and starting in 22 last year.

Although he is a junior, Larsen played very few minutes his first season because of his ankles. He played in only 8 games that season (see stats below).

However, the 1980-81 season of a year ago was another story. Craig was the No. 5 scorer for the Grizzlies, averaging six points a game. He was the fifth leading rebounder as well, averaging 3.6 a game.

Larsen was one of the top shot blockers in the Big Sky Conference. He had 28, averaging one per game, and ranked 7th in the conference, and led the Grizzlies.

"Craig is a returning starter and came on steadily last season," said Grizzly coach Mike Montgomery. "He was a significant factor for us late in the year. He is a very intense player and a good leader. Craig has fine offensive tools."

Larsen led UM in rebounding in four games, and had a season and career-high 10 in a 63-58 win over Montana State in Missoula late in the season.

"Craig must have a good year for us to be successful," Montgomery said. "He needs to improve his defense and rebounding, but has been a very hard worker in the off-season since he has been here. He wants to be a player."

Larsen was all-state one year and all conference twice at Aurora Central High School. He was a two-year letterman in basketball and team captain his senior season. His coach was Bryon Bookhart.

His hobbies are fishing and backpacking. His nickname is "Lars."

He is a Geology major.

Craig's parents are Ray and Hilda Larsen of Aurora.

Birthdate: April 1, 1960.
