Call it tradition . . .
Call it success . . .
Call it winning . . .
“We call it program.”
The University of Montana ranks 16th in the nation among the 2,400 eligible colleges in Rhodes Scholars. UM ranks 4th among schools west of the Mississippi.

The UM Yellow Bay Biological Station, located on Flathead Lake, is the nation's oldest inland station and ranks 3rd nationally for its program facilities and student population.

The Department of Geography has one of the region's best cartography laboratories.

University of Montana education majors are very successful in gaining employment. Approximately 84 percent of students with bachelor's degrees are placed in teaching positions or are engaged in other education related career opportunities. Nearly 100 percent of UM students with graduate degrees in education are gainfully employed within the profession.

The School of Journalism has had 17 of its students selected as Sears Congressional interns — more than any other journalism school in the country.

The Department of Drama/Dance is home base for a professional theater group — the Montana Repertory Theater — which tours throughout the Northwest and is the only professional Actors Equity company between Minneapolis and Seattle.

The UM School of Business Administration is the only School of Business in the state accredited by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business at both the bachelor's and master's level. UM is one of only about a half dozen schools in the Northwest with such credentials.

The Department of Art enjoys a national reputation for excellence in ceramics.

Construction will begin in 1982 for two new buildings on campus that will enhance the education of UM students. The Fine Arts/Radio-Television Building, an $8.6 million structure, will house UM's fine arts and radio-television programs. Clinical psychologists and "psychologists-in-training" will benefit from a new $440,000 Clinical Psychology Building.

UM law students qualified in regional competition for two years in succession for the national finals of the prestigious National Moot Court Competition in New York City. The UM law school is one of two Northwest schools that have won the national championship since the competition started in 1950.

The University of Montana in Missoula is located in a mountain forest setting in beautiful Western Montana. It is halfway between Glacier and Yellowstone national parks.

Four wilderness areas are located near Missoula. The natural surroundings offer excellent opportunities for hunting, fishing, backpacking, river floating, camping and other outdoor recreational pursuits. Two excellent winter ski areas are located within minutes of the University. Several other ski areas are only a couple of hours away by car. UM owns and operates its own golf course adjacent to campus.

The University of Montana is one of the West’s pioneers in education and was chartered February 17, 1893. The school opened in September, 1895, with 50 students enrolling the first day. Located on 201 acres at the base of Mount Sentinel, UM has grown from 50 students and seven faculty members to a present enrollment of 9,101 and approximately 450 fulltime state-supported faculty positions.

Throughout its history, the University of Montana has sustained a high standard of academic excellence in teaching, research and service.

UM offers associate of arts degrees in two areas and bachelor’s degrees in 58 fields. It offers master’s degrees in 54 programs and doctoral degrees in 13.

The College of Arts and Sciences, which is the core of the University, includes a full range of programs and courses in the life sciences, physical sciences, social sciences and humanities. The College also offers curricula in interdisciplinary fields ranging from ethnic studies to interdepartmental studies.

Seven professional schools complete the academic program—Business Administration, Fine Arts, Journalism, Education, Forestry, Law, Pharmacy and Allied Health Sciences.

The aim of the University is to provide its students with a relaxing and meaningful learning experience with the best facilities possible. The administration, faculty and staff strive for this goal.

From Seattle, Washington, Denney is associated with several professional organizations. He determines eligibilities for UM athletes, makes NCAA rulings at the institution level, and is a University of Montana representative to the NCAA. Denney and his wife Terri have two children.
Mike Montgomery begins his fifth season as head coach at the University of Montana, and his seventh year as a Grizzly mentor. He served as an assistant coach at UM for two seasons prior to becoming the head coach.

Mike has taken the Grizzlies to the Big Sky Conference’s postseason playoffs all four of his seasons as head coach. Last year his team narrowly missed advancing to the title game, bowing to Nevada-Reno 97-93 in double overtime.

Not only has Montgomery, who is called “Monty” by friends and players alike, qualified four times for the playoffs, but the 36-year-old has already established himself as one of the winningest coaches in the university’s history.

His overall record of 67-43 gives him a winning percentage of .609 — the best in the school’s 73-year history. Montgomery’s 67 wins is the fifth most in the school’s history.

Montana’s 19-9 record in 1980-81 was the school’s fifth winningest in 78 years.

Montgomery has 12 years of major college coaching experience. He served as an assistant coach three seasons at Boise State before coming to UM. He has also had coaching stints at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, Colorado State, the Citadel and the University of Florida.

He likes his teams to fast break on offense, and employs a structured, early offense, “designed for people who are disciplined and can shoot the ball. I stress high-percentage shots and tough rebounding, and patience for the good shot.”

Defensively Montgomery likes his opponents “to beat themselves by playing tough and physical, forcing them to take poor percentage shots.” He added that he uses many defensive looks, depending on the opponent.

The Grizzlies have led the Big Sky in defense the 10 of the last 11 seasons, and were ranked fourth in the nation in 1978-79 — Mike’s first season as head coach.

Montgomery is a 1968 graduate of Long Beach State, and is a native of Long Beach, California. He played basketball at LBS for four years and volleyball and rugby for two. He earned his master’s degree in Physical Education from Colorado State.

Mike and his wife, Sarah, are expecting their first child in April.
Assistant Coaches

Stew Morrill is in his fifth season as the number one Grizzly assistant in charge of recruiting and scheduling.

He was an assistant coach at former Big Sky Conference member Gonzaga University for three years. During those three years he was the number one coaching assistant and was the school's recruiting coordinator for two seasons. He was a graduate assistant for the Bulldogs for one season.

Morrill, 30, was an All-Big Sky center at Gonzaga his senior year in 1973-74, and was named team captain and Most Valuable Player for the Bulldogs that season.

Prior to playing at the four-year level he participated in basketball at Ricks College, where he averaged 23 points a game as a sophomore and was named a JC All-American.

He played pro basketball in Europe for a Division I team in Bordeaux, France, after his graduation from Gonzaga in 1974. After a few months with the team he was named player-coach.

From Provo, Utah, Morrill earned nine letters in basketball, football and track at Provo High School.

His wife's name is Vicki. They have two sons, Jesse and Allan.

Bob Niehl is in his third season at UM and joined the basketball program in August of 1980. He assists in varsity coaching, along with scouting and recruiting, as well as supervising the Grizzly junior varsity program.

Before coming to Montana he served as a part-time coach for head coach George Raveling at Washington State University in Pullman. At WSU he was head coach of the JVs, and assisted in varsity scouting and recruiting in 1978-80. He has also had a lot of experience coordinating in basketball camps.

Bob also served as a graduate assistant at WSU for a season. From 1975-77 he was the head basketball and girl's and boy's track coach at Sprague High School in Sprague, Washington.

He was a standout athlete at WSU, where he was a three-year letterman in basketball and team captain his senior season. He was a seven-foot high jumper for the Cougars, and qualified for the NCAAs all four of his collegiate seasons. He is a 1970 graduate of Bethel High School in Spanaway, Washington, where he was also a basketball and track star.

Niehl is a 1975 graduate of WSU, receiving a B.S. in physical education.

The 31-year-old is single.
A Missoula product, Blaine Taylor was one of the outstanding players at the University of Montana in recent years. This is his second year as a Grizzly coach.

He is head JV coach and assists in varsity coaching.

Taylor was a Big Sky Conference honorable mention selection as a junior and a senior. He was named to the conference post-season all-tourney team last year.

He is the No. 17 career scorer in Grizzly history with 753 points. Taylor was also known for his passing and ball-handling skills. He finished the 1980-81 season with 102 assists in 23 games, for a 4.4 average. He is the No. 2 assists man at UM with 300.

He was Montana’s leading scorer in five games in 1980-81, including a team and game-high 21 points in UM’s 85-64 win over Montana State in the first game of the Big Sky tournament.

Taylor was an all-state player at Hellgate High School for three years. He was the state “AA” MVP as a senior.

Blaine’s wife’s name is Annie Marie. They have a two-and-a-half-year-old daughter, Amber Lee.
1982-83 Grizzlies Should Be In Thick Of Big Sky Title Chase

With all five starters back from last year’s 17-10 squad, coach Mike Montgomery’s University of Montana basketball team should be in the thick of the Big Sky Conference title chase.

Last season the Grizzlies were 10-4 in league action, good for second place. Montana narrowly missed qualifying for its second straight postseason tournament title game, bowing 97-93 in double overtime to Nevada-Reno.

The Grizzlies have 10 lettermen returning from last season. Montgomery employed 10 different starting lineups because of injuries and trying to find the right combination. At season’s end the starters were Derrick Pope (all 27 games) and Rob Hurley (eight games) at forwards, Craig Larsen (started 24 games) at center, and Marc Glass (started all 27) and Doug Selvig (23 games) at guards. Both Larsen and Selvig were slowed with leg injuries during the season.

Pope, the Grizzlies’ All-American candidate, was a first team All-Big Sky choice last season and also named to the league’s postseason tournament team. He was the only player from a team which lost in the first round to be named to the all-tournament squad.

Pope led the Grizzlies in scoring in 10 of 27 games and in rebounding 18 times. He led UM in scoring with 17.3 points a game and rebounding with 8.3 per contest.

Hurley scored a game-high 19 points in the playoffs against Reno, and started the last eight games for UM.

Larsen, who has finished strong the last two seasons, averaged six-plus rebounds a game, and was elected team co-captain, along with Pope, by his teammates.

Selvig was the team’s No. 2 scorer as a sophomore, averaging almost 11 a game. He ranked among the Big Sky leaders in assists (97) and steals (45). Glass was the third leading scorer as a sophomore, with almost 10 a game.

Other players with playing experience include forward Jim Caler (11 starts), guard-forward Brian Morris (eight starts), guard DJ Johnson (three starts) and center Larry McBride (one start). Guard Leroy Washington and forward John Bates are both returning lettermen.

“Depth should be one of our strong points, as we have several players who are capable of helping us,” Montgomery said. “The big thing for us during preseason drills is to mold together as a unit, learn each other’s strengths and play to those strengths.”

According to Montgomery one of his team’s biggest drawbacks last season was in the rebounding department. However, he expects help in that area from redshirt Bruce Burns and freshman Larry Krystkowiak.

Burns is a transfer from Humboldt State (CA) and a starter there as a freshman. Krystkowiak is a very physical player and was the Montana “AA” MVP last season at Missoula’s Big Sky High School.

Freshmen Todd Powell and John Boyd are the other two new additions to the Grizzly basketball program.

The Grizzlies, who did not have one senior on their team last season, and have only three on this year’s team, came on strong in the final half of the 81-82 season.

At one point of the season Montana was 9-8 overall and 1-2 in the Big Sky Conference. However, the Grizzlies won 9 of their last 11 conference games to qualify for the league playoffs.

Montgomery has now guided the Grizzlies to the postseason playoffs all four of his seasons as head coach.

The Grizzlies did not win the Big Sky defensive crown last season, but they yielded only 59.6 points a game. Montana has won the Big Sky defensive title 10 of the last 11 seasons, however. Montana led the Big Sky in attendance in conference games, with an 8,690 average in seven home games.

Montgomery feels there are several good teams in the Big Sky this season, and expects his team to be in the running for the championship.

“We feel that with the returning personnel and normal improvement we should have a legitimate chance at competing for the conference championships,” he said.

“We feel that Idaho must be considered the favorite, until someone proves otherwise,” he said. “Weber State and Boise State should also rate as championship contenders at this point, and Reno could also be there.”

“I do feel that every school in the Big Sky Conference has the personnel to be in the conference tournament,” he added.

. . . . To Be An Honors Candidate

What The Coaches Say . . .

"We have played against Derrick Pope each of the past two years and he is as good as any forward in the Western part of the United States."

—Bill Mulligan, head coach UC Irvine

"Last year it was evident that Derrick Pope has the jumping ability, strength and quickness to be a great player this season. He has improved through his dedication towards the game. Derrick has the capability of being a dominant player in the Big Sky Conference, and has worked extremely hard to improve his game."

—Don Monson, head coach University of Idaho (ranked 8th in both polls in 1982)

"Derrick Pope is definitely one of the best, if not the best, player in the Big Sky Conference, and there are a number of good players in this league. He is a very solid major college player, who I feel could play in the Pacific-10. As a small forward he is a tremendous scorer within 10 feet of the basket, and has excellent moves and touch. Most of all he is a big game player."

—Sonny Allen, head coach University of Nevada-Reno

"Without question, Derrick Pope is the best player in the Big Sky Conference."

—Jay Hillock, head coach Gonzaga University

"Derrick is capable of carrying a team by himself. He is a man among boys, he is a very intelligent, physical player. He is one of the best players we saw last year (1981-82)."

—Ed De Lacy, head coach UC Santa Barbara

Not only is the Grizzly All-American candidate an outstanding scorer but Derrick also shoots for an excellent percentage. He connected on 183 of 305 field goal attempts for a 60 percent average. He ranked nationally in that category the entire season (21st nationally and 2nd in the Big Sky Conference). He was also among the league leaders in free throw percentage (79.5), and was fourth in rebounding (8.3).

Pope’s 35 points against the University of Gonzaga last season was the top point output in the Big Sky in 1981-82.

One of the most prolific scorers in Grizzly history, he ranks 17th on the all-time scoring list with 769 points and will also break into the top ten in rebounding (he has 328 going into this season).

“One of the best players in Montana basketball history and potentially in Big Sky history, Derrick is an explosive jumper with strength to go inside and speed and quickness to shoot from the perimeter,” said Grizzly coach Mike Montgomery.

“There’s no question Derrick is an All-American as a person,” Montgomery said. “He has a great attitude and desire to excell and is potentially an NBA player with his continued improvement.”

“He is a coaches’ dream,” Montgomery said. “I think he would excel on any team in any league in the country. He has always risen to the challenge and played to the level of his opponent.”

He was a first team All-Big Sky player, two times League Player of the Week, named to the conference post-tournament team and all-tourney in the Champion Holiday Classic II.

He was All-State and all-conference at Smoky Hill High School in Aurora. He led the league in rebounding and blocked shots his senior year. He was voted Most Improved as a junior and senior. His coach was Nick Cozza.

Derrick’s parents are Cesar and Dorothy Pope of Aurora.

This will be Craig’s third season as a starter for the Grizzlies. “Mr. Intensity” on the Montana team, Larsen is an extremely physical player to go along with his 6-11, 222-pound frame.

“A fifth-year senior Craig has finished strong for us each of the last two years.” Montgomery said. “He’s gotten off to slow starts because of injury problems, but we feel that barring injury Craig could be the outstanding center in the Big Sky this season.”

A very hard worker on defense Larsen has ranked in the top ten in the Big Sky the last two seasons in shot blocks. Last year he was third blocking 30 shots in 24 games, averaging almost one-and-a-half per contest.

He was Montana’s number two rebounder last season with 149 for a 6.2 average. He was the number four scorer with an 8.9 average.

As a sophomore he was the number five scorer and rebounder for Montana. He also had 28 blocked shots that season.

“Craig is a very physical and intense player and I expect Craig to be one of the keys to our success this season,” Montgomery said.

Larsen was an All-State player at Aurora Central High School. He was team captain his senior year. His coach was Bryon Bookhart.

He is a Geology major.

His hobbies are cooking and backpacking. His nickname is “Lars.”

Craig’s parents are Ray and Hilda Larsen of Aurora.

One of the Grizzlies most experienced players and a returning starter, Marc played in all 28 Grizzly games as a freshman. His first season here he was red-shirted with a shoulder injury and is now a fourth-year junior.

He was Montana's third leading scorer last year with a 9.4 average and was one of only two players to start in all of UM's 27 games.

He led the team in scoring four times including a career high 23 points against Boise State.

In Big Sky action he ranked ninth in free throw percentage making 85 of 111 for a 76.6 percent average.

He is already one of the Grizzlies all-time assist leaders and dished out 78 last season.

"A starter for us last year, Marc showed steady improvement at point guard," said Montgomery. "He plays extremely hard and is a very strong player inside considering he is 6-3."

"Marc had several big ball games for us and with added consistency should be an outstanding Big Sky guard."

As a freshman Marc made the KOA Classic All-Tournament team and in the first Champion Holiday Classic he made a diving layup against Maine-Orono to win the game in the closing seconds.

A versatile player, Brian has the size to play quick forward and the shooting touch to play big guard. He will get an opportunity to play both those roles this season. He started 8 games last year and made two clutch baskets against Northern Arizona in Flagstaff for a key road win in '81-82.

He was the team's number five scorer with 140 points. He is also one of the team's outstanding free throw shooters and made 79.4 percent of his charity tosses a year ago.

“Brian played a vital role in some key victories last year,” Montgomery said. “He is a great shooter and has a very good knowledge of the game.”

“I hope that with last year’s experience Brian will relax and have a great senior year,” Montgomery said. “As a 6-7 guard he gives us a good height advantage especially from a defensive standpoint.”

He was a two-time All-State player for coach Bob Luoma at Missoula’s Sentinel High School. As a senior he was selected to the high school coaches All-American team, the Montana All-Star team, and averaged 19.3 points and 12.7 rebounds a game.

He was a three-year letterman for the Spartans, team captain, and the state “AA” scoring leader that season too.

He is a Business Administration major.

His hobbies are water skiing and fishing. His nickname is “Merc.”

Brian’s parents are Charles and Patricia Morris of Missoula.

Brian Morris

6-7, 185, Guard/Forward
Senior from Missoula, Montana
Another returning starter, Doug averaged almost 11 points a game (10.9) as a sophomore. He started in 23 of 26 games.

A great shooter with outstanding hands Selvig should be one of a few select Big Sky players to take advantage of the league’s new three-point play.

Not only is he a great shooter but also an outstanding passer. He ranked ninth in the Big Sky in assists with 97 for a 3.7 average and also had 8 assists in three different games.

He also ranked in the league in steals with 45 and had a team high 81.3 percent shooting from the free throw line.

“One of the outstanding long range shooters in the Big Sky Conference, Doug is very competitive and has great hands,” Montgomery said.

“He is a very good defensive player, good rebounder and a fine passer.”

“At 6-4½ Doug can go inside and score, yet he can also hit consistently from the perimeter. With added strength that will come with maturity we think Doug will be outstanding Big Sky guard.”

He was the Class “C” MVP his senior year at Outlook High School. He was also an All-State, All-District, All-Region and All-Conference player. His 1980 Outlook team was 23-3 and won the state title.

His prep coach was Rollie Sullivan, who is now his brother-in-law and married to former Lady Griz star Sandy Selvig.

Doug’s brother Robin was a former All Big Sky player for the Grizzlies and is now head coach of the Lady Griz.

He is a Health-Physical Education major.

His hobbies are hunting, fishing and softball. His nickname is “Smoogie.”

Doug’s parents are Roald and Agnes Selvig of Outlook.

At Chief Sealth High School in Seattle he was an all-metro and all-conference selection as a senior. He averaged 16.7 points and 9 rebounds a game for a team that was 24-2 his senior season.

"John is a swing type of player who plays extremely hard and has a very good first step to the basket," Montgomery said. "He should help out at big guard and small forward."

Boyd lettered three times in basketball and once in baseball. He was named to the Converse All-American team as a senior. His coach was Ray Jones.

He is a General Studies Major.

Bruce Burns
6-6, 200, Forward
Sophomore from
Pittsburg, California

Bruce is one reason Montgomery feels optimistic about the 1982-83 season. He is coming off a redshirt year after transferring from Humboldt State in California. He was a starter at Humboldt State as a freshman and voted the team's MVP and Most Improved Player.

At Pittsburg High School he lettered twice, was an all-conference pick and team captain his senior year. His coach was Pete Richardson.

"Bruce will give us much-needed depth on the strong side of the floor," Montgomery said. "He is a very good rebounder, excellent shot blocker, and that is the result of great timing and long arms. He is very good defensively as well as offensively, particularly around the basket."

His hobby is listening to music.

Bruce's major is Radio/Television. His nickname is "Brougham."

His parents are Joe and Bettye Burns of Pittsburg.

Jim Caler
6-5½, 195, Forward

One of the strongest players on the team, Jim started in 11 games and played in all 27 as a sophomore.

He redshirted in 1980-81 at UM.

He was the number four rebounder, averaging 3.4 a game.

"Jim is a very physical, hard working, punishing type of forward who will be able to play at his more natural position on the small side of the floor this season," Montgomery said. "He is a very good perimeter shooter, who comes to play every night. Defensively, he will be a factor for us this season."

Caler had a career and team high 11 rebounds in UM's 69-49 win over Arkansas State in the Champion Classic II. He was All-State, league MVP, member of the Colorado All-Star team and All-Metro at Bear Creek High School.

A “gamer,” Hurley scored a career high 19 points in the double overtime loss to Nevada-Reno in the opening round of the Big Sky playoffs. He was Montana’s number six scorer with a 5.8 average and averaged 2.4 rebounds.

“Fundamentally Rob is a very sound forward,” Montgomery said. “He is a great perimeter shooter, has good hands and is a very good passer. Despite his 6-4 1/2 stature, he is very physical and is able to board because of his position anticipation. We are looking for Rob to have an outstanding year at the small forward position.”

10 Dave “DJ” Johnson
6-3, 180, Guard
Junior from Los Angeles, California

The Grizzlies’ top assist man in several games, DJ will be battling for a starting berth this season.

He worked hard on his outside shooting touch this summer was in evidence during pre-season practice this year.

Perhaps DJ’s biggest thrill so far as a collegiate player was his game-winning 20-foot jump shot at Boise State last season. The Grizzlies won the game 70-69 in the key league contest.

He is an outstanding passer and established a Champion Holiday Classic assist record in a single game, dishing out nine against Cal-Irvine last season.

He was one of only four players to play in all 27 of UM’s games last year.

“Perhaps the outstanding passer in the Big Sky, DJ had several eight or nine assist games for us last year,” Montgomery said. “He has improved physically each year. He is probably best against zone defenses where his passing skills are best demonstrated.”

Johnson was an all-city pick as a senior at Washington High School. He was also a first-team all league choice, averaging 18 points, 10 assists and five rebounds a game. He was also team captain his senior year. His coach was Andy Davis.

Larry Krystkowiak
6-8½, 210, Forward-Center
Freshman from Missoula, Montana

A potential Grizzly star in the future, Larry could be in the middle of the action in his initial season as a collegiate player.

Coach Montgomery is working him at both the strong forward and center positions and Larry is already playing an extremely physical brand of basketball.

The Montana "AA" MVP as a senior, Larry averaged 22 points and 16 rebounds a game at Missoula's Big Sky High School.

As a prep he was a two-time all-state choice and in his senior year he participated in the Montana-Wyoming all-star game.

"Larry is a tremendous freshman prospect at 6-8½, he has the strength to play inside, yet possesses the basketball skills needed to play outside at forward," Montgomery said.

"He has a very good shooting touch for a big man," Montgomery said.

"He is perhaps our best passing big man. I would expect with normal improvement that Larry will be a future standout in the Big Sky Conference."

He was a Converse All-American and winner of the C. R. Dragstedt scholarship as a senior. A three-year basketball letterman, Larry also lettered in track, tennis and football. His prep coach was Bill Langlas.

He is a Business/Accounting major.

His hobbies are fishing and coin collecting. His nickname is "Krysco."

His parents are Bernie and Marla Krystkowiak of Missoula.

Larry McBride
6-10, 235, Center

Another in a long line of good big men at Montana, offensively Larry excels and he is still working on the defensive end of the game going into his second collegiate season.

He only started one game as a freshman but made the best of the opportunity, scoring a career high nine points, grabbing four rebounds and blocking two shots against St. Mary's of California. He played in 13 varsity games as a frosh and four Big Sky contests.

"Tabbed to be a center of the future, Larry has shed some weight and added some strength which has led to greater mobility and helped him to improve his play considerably," Montgomery said.

"With additional experience and maturity we expect Larry to be an outstanding center for us."

Larry was a first team All-State player three times at East Anchorage High School. During his varsity career his teams compiled a 67-5 record.

He was the state MVP as a senior and his team was 23-1 that year. Larry averaged 19 points and 14 rebounds a game to lead his team to the state championship. His coach was Chuck White.

He is a General Studies major.

His hobbies are hunting, fishing and anything in the outdoors. His nickname is "Big Mac."

His parents are Wilbur and Doris McBride of Anchorage.

Leroy Washington
6-0, 172, Guard
Long Beach, California

Easily the quickest player on the Grizzly team, Leroy has shed 12 pounds since last season. He will definitely see action at the lead guard position and was battling for a starting berth during pre-season drills, but was slowed with a knee injury.

Leroy played in 14 games as a freshman scoring 23 points and scored a career high nine points against Augustana, SD.

He was also one of the leaders on the JV team and scored 20 points or more twice.

He was the lead guard on his Long Beach Poly High School team which won the prestigious CIF Championships his senior year.

Leroy won the game for his team on a 14-foot jump shot at the buzzer. The Ron Palmer-coached team was 26-2 his senior year and won its last 20 games in a row. Washington, who averaged eight assists a game that season, was an All-City pick.

He is a Radio/Television major.

His hobby is fishing. His nickname is “Eldridge.”

His parents are Levi and Martha Washington of Long Beach.

Todd Powell
6-3, 170, Guard
Freshman from
Corvallis, Oregon

Another two-time All-State player from Oregon (John Bates and Powell were teammates at Corvallis High School in 1980 when Corvallis won the state title), Todd has excellent athletic skills.

He averaged 16 points, 6.2 rebounds and 3 steals as a senior. He was an all-league player since his sophomore season. He was also an all-state baseball player twice. His prep basketball coach was Mike Doherty.

“Todd is a gifted athlete who when he makes the transition to the more physical college basketball and becomes more comfortable at the guard position, should be an outstanding Big Sky Conference guard,” Montgomery said. “He has good touch, excellent spring and good quickness.”

Todd’s majoring in Accounting.

His hobby is ceramics.

His parents are Gary and Carolyn Powell of Corvallis.

The Big Sky Conference was formed in February 1963, when the presidents and athletic directors of six Rocky Mountain universities met in Spokane. The original conference members were Gonzaga, Idaho, Idaho State, Montana, Montana State and Weber State. Gonzaga entered the conference as a non-football playing school.

The conference derived its name from a pair of Montanans and a Washington sports editor. A. B. Guthrie, Choteau, Mont., wrote a novel titled “The Big Sky,” and Jack Hallowell, former Montana State Advertising director, promoted the Big Sky theme as a nickname for the state. Harry Missildine, Spokesman-Review sports editor, picked up the name and in a sports column promoted the name Big Sky as the name of the conference. On Feb. 25, 1963, the conference adopted the name—Big Sky Athletic Conference.

In 1970 the conference expanded to include Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, Ariz., and Boise State College, Boise, Idaho. Both entered as football playing schools.

Nevada-Reno became the newest member of the Big Sky July 1, 1979.

Jack Friel became the first commissioner in 1963, and the offices were established in Pullman, Wash., Friel's home. Following Friel's retirement in July 1971, the offices were moved to Boise, Idaho, and John Roning was named commissioner. Steve Belko was named commissioner and assumed duties July 1, 1977, following Roning's retirement.

Ron Stephenson became the fourth Big Sky commissioner in May, 1981. A native of Idaho, Stephenson's most recent position was Assistant Athletic Director at Boise State. He has 16 years of working experience in intercollegiate athletics as a student, coach and administrator.

Welcome to Missoula The “Garden City”

WELCOME TO MISSOULA! A friendly town protected by a ring of mountains, breathtaking in its beauty, cultural in its taste, and a place we hope you will return to.

The “key to the city” is yours and the “red carpet” is out. Make yourself at home, we’re glad to have you here.

MISSOULA is located 100 miles from the Idaho border at the junction of Interstate 90, U.S. Highways 10, 12, and 93, and Montana Highway 200. These same crossroad attracted the original settlers over 120 years ago. Five valleys open into the Missoula basin and make Missoula an exciting city of 70,000 with a trade area of 150,000.

Nestled at the base of Mount Sentinel the University of Montana has an enrollment of 8,800 students from throughout the world. The faculty is exceptional with 72% holding a Ph.D. degree. The University heritage includes a Pulitzer Prize winner, twenty-three Rhodes scholars, a Nobel Prize recipient, and countless honors bestowed on its students for excellence in many fields. The Maureen and Mike Mansfield Library on the University of Montana campus is a source of pride to Missoula and Montana.

MISSOULA is one of the fastest growing cities in Montana. We are striving to maintain the best of all worlds . . . the flavor of a small town with the advantages of a city.

We know you will enjoy Missoula’s Magic, where else within a short distance from a business center could you find wilderness areas, mountain lakes, ranches, fishing streams, and other recreational opportunities for all ages.
