There's Gold in Them Thar Hills!

The first gold discovery in Montana was at Gold Creek, southeast of Missoula by Francois Finlay in 1850. The Gold Creek area was later mined for gold in 1862 by Jesse and Granville Stuart and Reese Anderson.

The University of Montana was recently awarded its 22nd Rhodes Scholar. This ranks UM sixth in the nation of all public institutions and sixth in all public and private schools west of the Mississippi for Rhodes Scholars.

The UM Yellow Bay Biological Station, located on Flathead Lake, is the nation's oldest inland station and ranks 3rd nationally for its program facilities and student population.

The Department of Geography has one of the region's best cartography laboratories.

University of Montana education majors are very successful in gaining employment. Approximately 84 percent of students with bachelor's degrees are placed in teaching positions or are engaged in other education related career opportunities. Nearly 90 percent of UM students with graduate degrees in education are gainfully employed within the profession.

The School of Journalism has had 19 of its students selected as Sears Congressional interns — more than any other journalism school in the country.

The Department of Drama/Dance is home base for a professional theater group — the Montana Repertory Theater — which tours throughout the Northwest and is the only professional Actors Equity company between Minneapolis and Seattle.

A University of Montana student has received a Truman Scholarship for six of the eight years since its establishment. The national scholarship is given annually to a student in each state who is committed to a career in government and who has superior academic ability and leadership potential.

The UM School of Business Administration is the only School of Business in the state accredited by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business at both the bachelor's and master's level. UM is one of only about a half dozen schools in the Northwest with such credentials.

Travel abroad programs to Austria, France and Spain are sponsored by the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures. Students earn UM credit and register through the University for the program.

UM's Speech, Language and Hearing Center is one of fewer than 300 of the nation's 2,500 clinics and centers accredited to provide speech, language and hearing services.

The UM Dance Division is the only degree-granting dance program in Montana, and most graduates of the program have successful professional and academic careers in dance and related arts.

The Department of Geology has an outstanding national reputation. Students receive hands-on experience at the University's Seismic Station, the Earthquake Research Laboratory, and a field station in southwestern Montana.

The Department of Physics and Astronomy has excellent laboratory facilities and several terminals connected to UM's main computer. The department operates a 12-inch heliostat for solar observations, and students use a 16-inch telescope housed on nearby Blue Mountain.

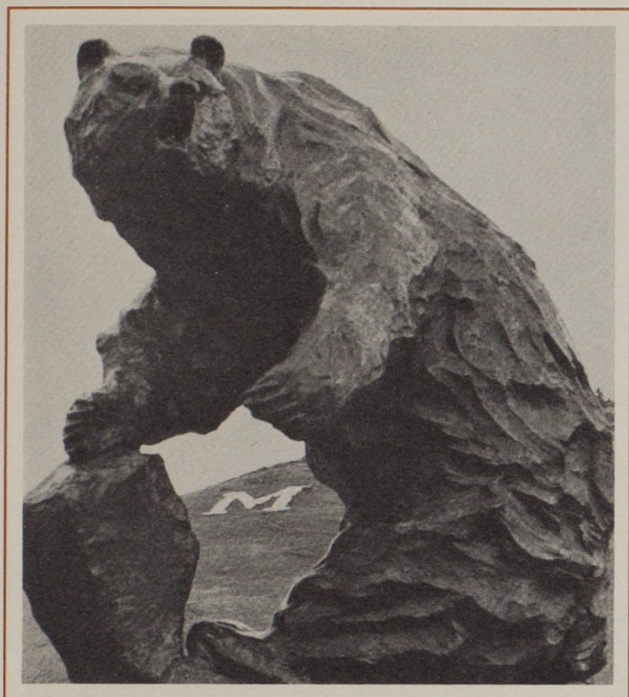

The fully accredited Department of Social Work is the only one in Montana that assures its graduates of a year of advanced standing in graduate schools of social work.

Lubrecht Experimental Forest, a 30,000-acre tract 30 miles from campus, is a research facility for the School of Forestry. Lubrecht Forest and the millions of acres of national, state and private forest and park lands in western Montana serve as outdoor laboratories and classrooms for students in forestry, range management, recreation and wildlife biology.

The Department of Art enjoys a national reputation for excellence in ceramics.

In the fall of 1984, the new Performing Arts/Radio-Television Center opened and Drama/Dance along with Radio/Television began work in this new facility.

In addition to major performing spaces, the building offers the students outstanding technical support spaces such as scene shops, sound studios, costume shops, and complete radio and television production spaces that allow for all aspects of theater and dance, as well as television and radio production.

University of Montana

The University of Montana in Missoula is located in a mountain forest setting in beautiful Western Montana. It is halfway between Glacier and Yellowstone national parks.

Four wilderness areas are located near Missoula. The natural surroundings offer excellent opportunities for hunting, fishing, backpacking, river floating, camping and other outdoor recreational pursuits. Two excellent winter ski areas are located within minutes of the University. Several other ski areas are only a couple of hours away by car. UM owns and operates its own golf course adjacent to campus.

The University of Montana is one of the West's pioneers in education and was chartered February 17, 1893. The school opened in September, 1893, with 50 students enrolling the first day. Located on 201 acres at the base of Mount Sentinel, UM has grown from 50 students and seven faculty members to a present enrollment of 9,400 and approximately 450 fulltime faculty positions.

Through its history, the University of Montana has sustained a high standard of academic excellence in teaching, research and service.

UM offers associate of arts degrees in two areas and bachelor's degrees in 58 fields. It offers master's degrees in 54 programs and doctoral degrees in 13.

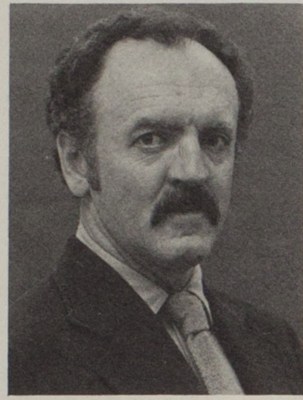

The College of Arts and Sciences, which is the core of the University, includes a full range of programs and courses in the life sciences, physical sciences, social sciences and humanities. The College also offers curricula in interdisciplinary fields ranging from ethnic studies to interdepartmental studies.

Seven professional schools complete the academic program — Business Administration, Fine Arts, Journalism, Education, Forestry, Law, Pharmacy and Allied Health Sciences.

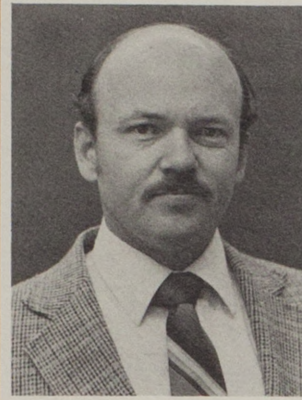

The aim of the University is to provide its students with a relaxing and meaningful learning experience with the best facilities possible. The administration, faculty and staff strive for this goal.

Grizzly Staff

Head Coach

Mike Montgomery

Now in his seventh year as head coach, Mike Montgomery boasts one of the most successful collegiate basketball programs in the Northwest. He has the best winning percentage in Montana history (65.7%) and averages almost 19 wins a season.

In his first five years he guided Montana to the four-team, postseason Big Sky Tournament, and would have last year with a second place regular season finish. However, last season all eight Conference teams participated in the tourney.

"Monty," 37, has 111 victories — ranking him second, only behind the Dahlberg Arena namesake, Jiggs Dahlberg, in total number of wins. Montana has won 20 or more games only six times in its 77-year basketball tradition and Montgomery has two of those.

Last year's 23 wins was the second most in Grizzly history, only behind Dahlberg's 27 (and 4) in 1950. UM's back-to-back 20-win seasons in 1983 and 1984 was the first time in school history a coach and his teams have accomplished that.

Montgomery has 14 years of major college coaching experience and is beginning his 12th year in the Big Sky Conference. He served as an assistant at Boise State for three seasons before coming to UM.

He has also had coaching stints at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, Colorado State, the Citadel and the University of Florida.

Sound defense has been Montana's forte over the past decade and Montgomery has continued that tradition. Last year UM was 10th in the nation in field goal percentage and led the Big Sky in defense. UM has led the league in defense 11 of the last 13 seasons.

"We take a lot of pride in having tough, hard-nosed players who are willing to sacrifice themselves for team success," Montgomery said.

"Basketball to me is a percentage game where you take advantage of your personnel and allow them to do the things they can do within a team concept," he said. "Our goal is to reach our potential as a team. This requires a very thorough approach to the game. Discipline and dedication from everyone within the program helps us reach that potential."

Montgomery is a 1968 graduate of Long Beach State where he was a four-year letterman in basketball. He also participated in volleyball and rugby. He earned his master's degree in Physical Education at Colorado State.

Mike and his wife, Sarah, have a two-year-old son, John, and are expecting their second child in February.

Assistant Coaches

Stew, 32, is in his seventh season as the number one Grizzly assistant in charge of recruiting and scheduling. He was an assistant coach at former Big Sky Conference member Gonzaga University for three years. During those three years he was the number one coaching assistant and was the school's recruiting coordinator for two seasons. He was a graduate assistant for the Bulldogs for one season.

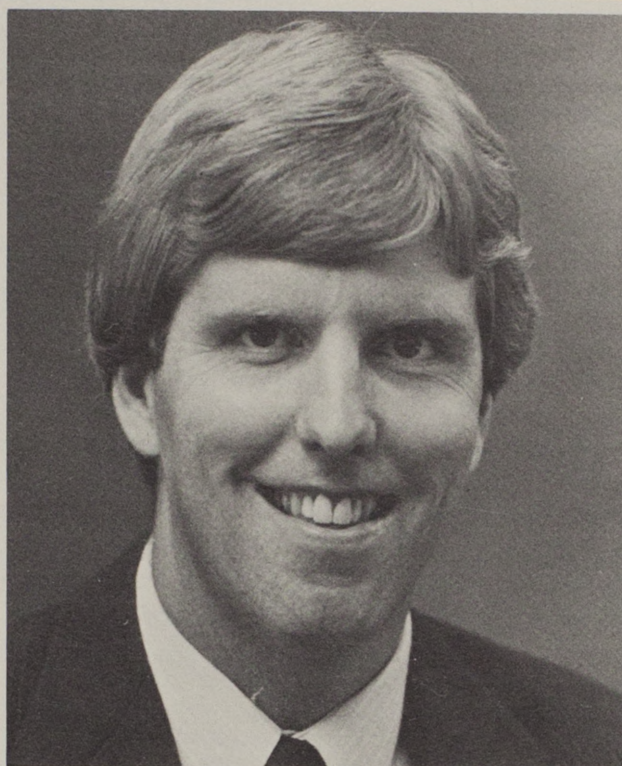

He was an All-Big Sky center at Gonzaga his senior year in 1973-74, and was named team captain and Most Valuable Player for the Bulldogs that season.

Prior to playing at the four-year level he participated in basketball at Ricks College, where he averaged 23 points a game as a sophomore and was named a JC All-American.

He played pro basketball in Europe for a Division I team in Bordeaux, France, after his graduation from Gonzaga in 1974. After a few months with the team he was named player-coach.

From Provo, Utah, Morrill earned nine letters in basketball, football and track at Provo High School.

His wife's name is Vicki. They have three children.

Stew Morrill

Assistant Coach

Bob Niehl is in his fifth season at UM. He assists in varsity coaching, along with scouting and recruiting, as well as supervising the Grizzly Cage Camps each summer.

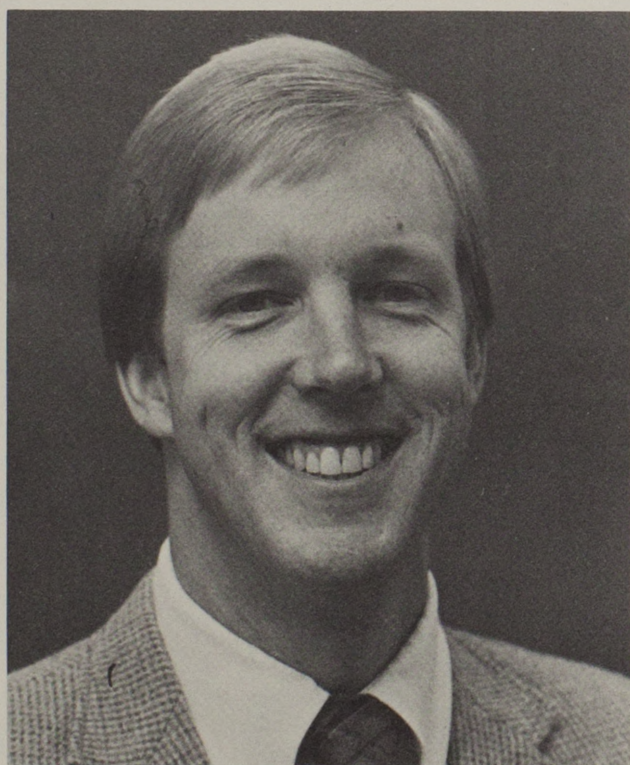

Before coming to Montana he served as a part-time coach for George Raveling at Washington State University in Pullman. At WSU he was head coach of the JVs, and assisted in varsity scouting and recruiting in 1978-79-80. He has also had a lot of experience in WSU's basketball camps.

Bob also served as a graduate assistant at WSU for a season. From 1975-77 he was the head basketball and girl's and boy's track coach at Sprague High School in Sprague, Washington.

He was a standout athlete at WSU, where he was a three-year letterman in basketball and team captain his senior season. He was a seven-foot high jumper for the Cougars, and qualified for the NCAAAs all four of his collegiate seasons. He is a 1970 graduate of Bethel High School in Spanaway, Washington, where he was also a basketball and track star.

Niehl, 33, is a 1975 graduate of WSU, receiving a B.S. in physical education.

His wife's name is Tricia.

Assistant Coach

Doug Selvig Student Assistant Coach

One of the best defensive players at the University of Montana in recent history, Doug has hung up his jersey, but not his tennis shoes and is pursuing a career that two members of his family are involved in.

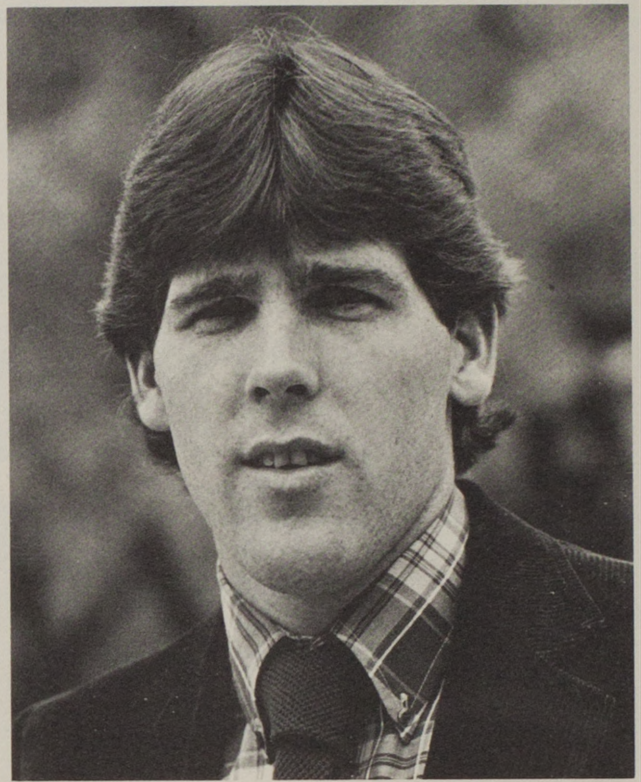

He was a three-year starter for the Grizzlies in 1982-83-84 and finished his career with 1,000 points and 361 assists. He is the 12th player in UM history to score 1,000 points and ranks third in career assists.

He was an honorable mention All-Big Sky Conference selection his junior and senior seasons. He won the John Eaheart Award both those seasons as well, which is given annually to the best defensive player on the team. He was one of the top three scorers at UM all three of his seasons as a starter.

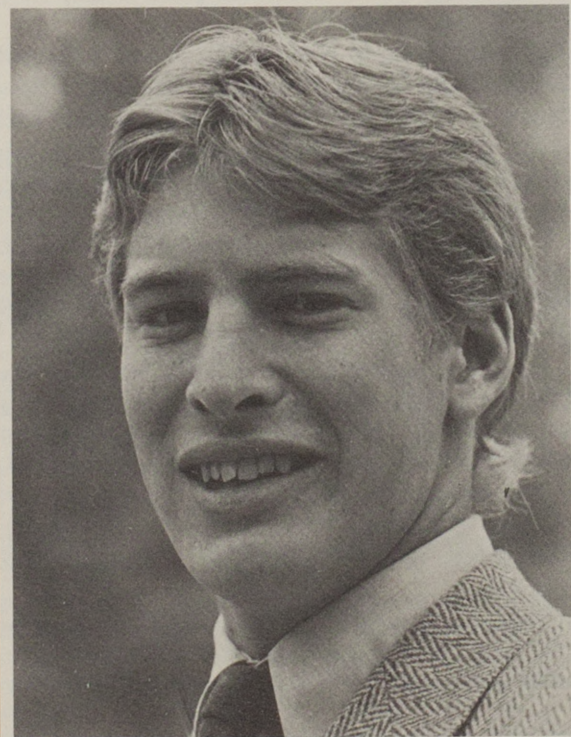

His older brother Robin is a member of the Grizzly Basketball Hall of Fame, and coaches the Lady Griz. His sister, Sandy Sullivan was formerly the girl's basketball coach at Circle High School and played at UM.

He was the class "C" MVP as a senior at Outlook High School, and a three-time all-state player.

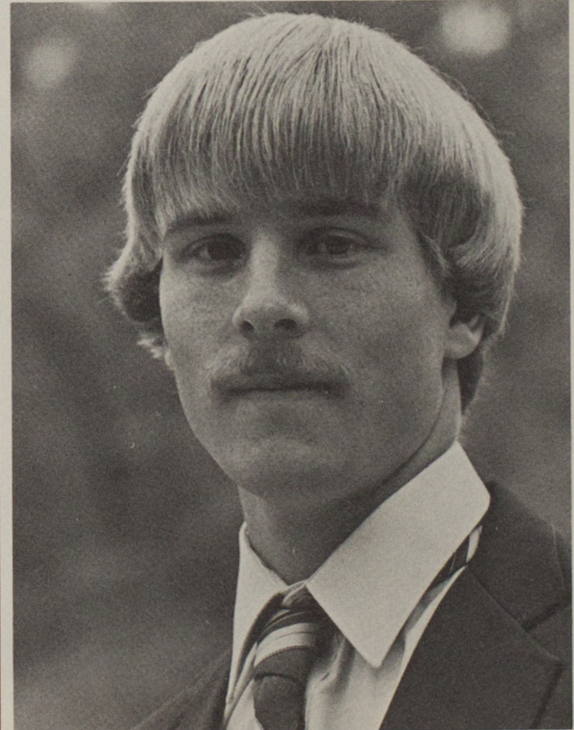

Doug is engaged to Anita Novak, a starting forward for the Lady Griz basketball team. They will wed in August of 1985.

1984-85 Grizzlies Feature New Look

Glass, Hurley and Selvig are three players University of Montana Grizzly basketball fans got used to watching—and winning, but in 1984-85 it will be a different cast of characters.

The trio of three-year starters has graduated and seventh-year UM coach Mike Montgomery (111-58, 6 years) is hoping the names of (John) Bates, (Wayne) Tinkle, (Leroy) Washington and (Scott) Zanon will make UM fans forget about Marc, Rob and Doug.

The good news is that juniors Larry Krystkowiak and Larry McBride return to their starting forward and center positions.

"Krysko," Montana's All-American candidate, was the Big Sky Conference's MVP as a sophomore, led the Big Sky in scoring and rebounding, averaging 18 points and 10.5 rebounds a game.

McBride was second in the league in blocks with 58.

No other returning Grizzly player started last year, although Washington and forward Bruce Burns, both seniors, played in all 30 games. Bates played in 27 contests.

"Losing three, three-year starters who we gave a lot of freedom to when they were on the court and who could all shoot from the perimeter is losing an awful lot," Montgomery said. "Now that will all change. Basically there are a lot of question marks at those positions.

"We will have a new look," he continued. "We will have to do things differently because we have a different kind of personnel. We have to wait to become comfortable with our players and see how they react in pressure, game situations.

"We will take advantage of our inside people, and with their ability they might be able to take some pressure off our perimeter people and give them a chance to become confident in what they can do."

Montgomery, who guided Montana to a 23-7 record last season—the second best in school history, said UM, "is starting at ground zero until we find out who responds best to pressure."

He said that was especially true at off-guard, where lettermen Todd Powell and John Boyd return, and along with JC transfer Mike Wnek will battle it out for the starting berth.

Washington, Zanon and freshman Tony Reed are at point guard, where three-year letterman Washington has the inside track. Because of Washington's quickness, "we might be able to fast break more because of his ability to go from the top of the key to the top of the key, and the way he passes the ball," Montgomery said.

Montgomery said he hoped McBride "was at least 25 percent improved" and he will be backed up by Burns, letterman Steve Vanek and frosh Wayne Tinkle.

Bates could get the nod at one forward position, although Montgomery expressed concern over his physical strength.

He added he felt very good about Krysko, McBride and Burns, "especially Burns has improved his strength and will make a bigger contribution this season." Tinkle and freshman redshirt Herb Jones could also contribute underneath, but neither has played at the collegiate level. Montana's other recruit is forward K.C. McGowan, from Missoula's Big Sky High.

Powell could be a factor at guard with his shooting range and the Big Sky's three-point shot, although he has had injury problems the last two years. "He is a solid defensive player with fine athletic ability," Montgomery said.

"Wnek is the one player we brought in who we hope can help right away," Montgomery said. "He gives us more flexibility, depth and experience. We'll have to wait and see how Tinkle and Herb can contribute. Reed is an extremely quick player who can play either guard position and we plan to bring him along slowly."

"Because of the way we have run our program over the years we have stayed away from a rebuilding program, although I would definitely have to classify this season as a 'restructuring' year," Montgomery said.

Montgomery said the pre-conference schedule of Oregon, Air Force, Washington State, Irvine, Fullerton and Loyola, "will give the young kids experience under fire."

In the Big Sky he said three of the four top finishers of last year, Weber State, Montana State and Reno return the majority of their players, and Northern Arizona will be vastly improved.

"It will be an interesting challenge," Montgomery said, "We must use our personnel intelligently and bring along our depth. We cannot become complacent because of the success we've had."

All-American Candidate Larry Krystkowiak

The name may be hard to pronounce (Kriss-Stove-Ee-Ack) and even harder to spell, but his athletic ability isn't difficult to see at all.

He established himself as one of the best forwards in the West, if not the nation, when he made the final 32 for the 1984 United States Olympic Team under coach Bobby Knight.

Krystkowiak's 10.5 rebounds a game ranked him first in the Big Sky Conference and 18th in the nation. He was the mention, Krystkowiak was an All-District 7 selection. He was an Academic All-America honorable mention and All-Big Sky academic choice.

"Larry plays very close to his potential for a long period of time," said head UM coach Mike Montgomery. "From a coaching standpoint that makes him an All-American type player.

"In other words, at the end of the ball game he's going to win for you," Montgomery said. "He's going to have the numbers, he's going to make you have to play him for 40 minutes, but you may not realize the things he's doing until you look at his stats, and some of the intangible things that go into making All-Americans. He's more than numbers — he does everything."

He made his mark in the Big Sky as a freshman, being named "Top Reserve" that season.

Says BYU head coach Ladelle Anderson: "Larry Krystkowiak is without question one of the finest front court players in the country. As I analyzed his play at the Olympic Trials I found him to be unusually quick for his size. He is fundamentally a very solid player."

only underclassman ranked in the top 20 in rebounding.

He was the Big Sky's Player of the Week three times — an honor he won more than any other player in the league. His 18 points a game ranked him first in the league and his 539 points ranked him third on the UM single season scoring list. He will soon break into the UM top 10 career rebounds list and has 435 entering the season.

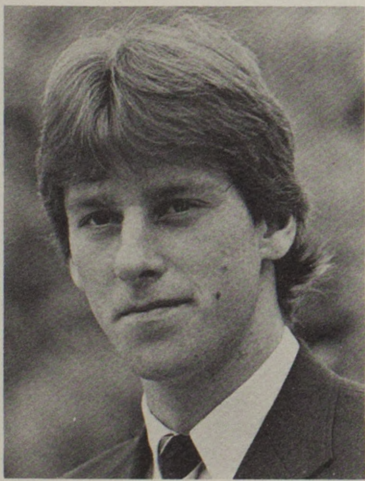

In the summer of 1984 he played for the United States team that went undefeated in Jones Cup play and won the gold medal. In the summer of 1983 he played for the national Sports Festival West team and then went on to play in the FIBA World Basketball Championships in Spain.

Larry Krystkowiak
6-9, 222, Forward
Junior from Missoula, MT

Named the Big Sky Conference's Most Valuable as a sophomore, "Krysko" has already established himself as one of the premier players in Grizzly basketball history.

He led the Grizzlies in rebounding in 26 of 30 games and in scoring 16 times. His 18 points and 10.5 rebounds a game led the conference in both categories.

Not only did Larry have success in both phases of his game, but he also shot for high percentages. His 54.7 percent from the field ranked him third in the conference (along with UM's Marc Glass) and his 80.5 percent from the free throw line rated him fifth.

A three-time Big Sky Player of the Week selection, his 33 points at Eastern Washington was the highest seasonal point total in the league. His 17 rebounds against Boise State placed him third in that category.

"Larry has improved every season and that has come with hard work and a love for the game, something that I think rubs off on the rest of the team," Mike Montgomery said. "He proved with the success that he had at the Olympic Trials the high caliber of player that he is. He is also a great person and outstanding student. The type of player who every coach would like to have in their program."

He started in all 30 of Montana's games last season and logged 1,067-plus minutes, averaging 35.6 minutes a game—leading the Big Sky in that category.

Consistency enabled Krystkowiak to have the season he had in 1984. He scored in double figures in all but two games, and had 10 or more rebounds 20 times.

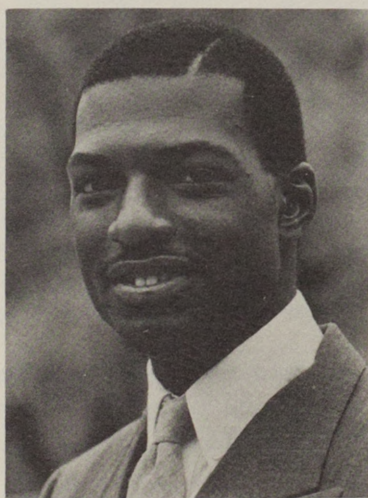

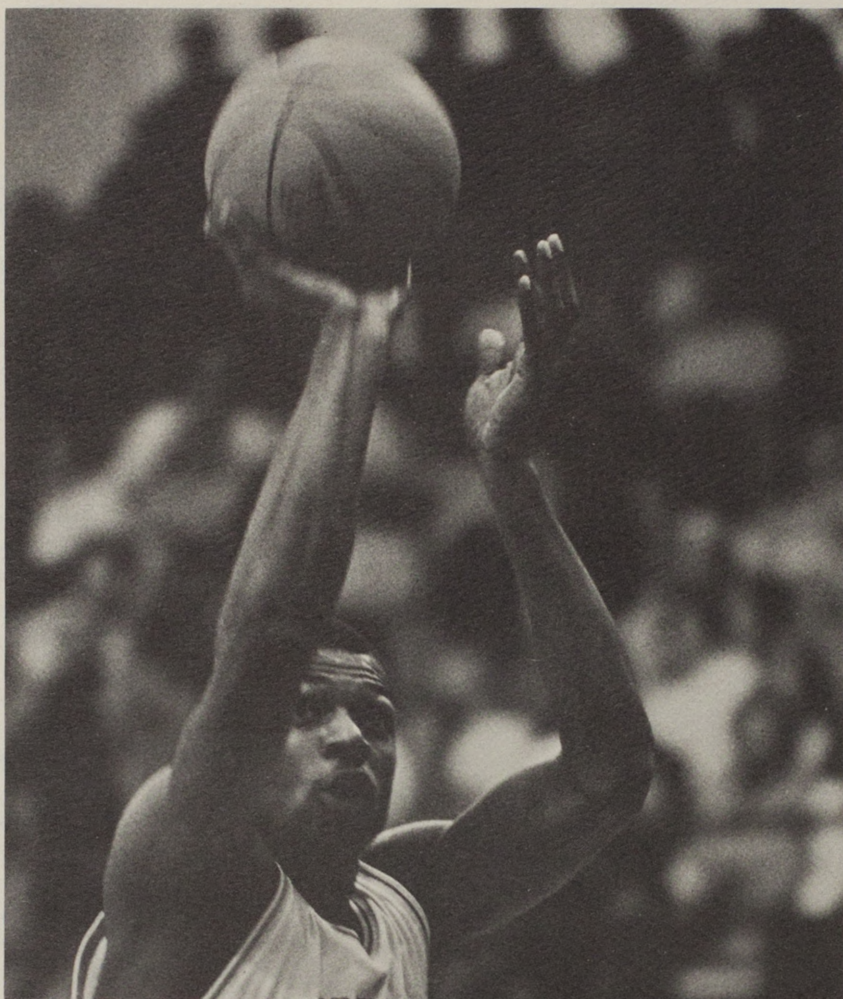

Last year he was an Associated Press All-American honorable mention. He was named All-District 7 athletically and academically.

As a freshman he was named the Big Sky's "Top Reserve."

He was a two-time all-state player at Missoula's Big Sky High School and "AA" MVP as a senior. He was a Converse All-American as a prep.

A fifth-year senior, big things are expected of Bruce this season. He scored a career-high 11 points against Linfield last year and had 8 rebounds in two games for career bests.

He was the fourth leading rebounder in 1984, averaging 4.0 a game and second in blocked shots with 23, ranking him seventh in the Big Sky Conference. One of the most experienced players returning, he played in all 30 games a year ago.

"We are expecting real good things from Bruce," Mike Montgomery said. "Bruce showed us some things last year having very, very good games for us. He is an outstanding rebounder and an excellent defensive player.

"His senior year should be by far his best year now that he has the confidence of knowing that he can play at our level," Montgomery said. "We'd like to have Bruce have a consistently good year and for us to be successful he's going to have to do that. He must play consistently good both on the road and at home."

Bruce played in 20 games in 1983 after sitting out the previous year when he transferred from Humboldt State in California.

As a freshman at Humboldt he was a starter and voted team MVP and Most Improved Player.

At Pittsburg High School he lettered twice and was all-conference and team captain as a senior. His coach was Pete Richardson.

His hobby is listening to music.

Bruce is majoring in Radio-TV. His nickname is "Broughan."

Larry McBride
6-10, 235, Center
Junior from Anchorage, Alaska

Montana's other returning starter "Big Mac" was Montana's leading shot blocker with 58—which ranked him second in the Big Sky Conference.

He was third ranked rebounder at UM with a 4.5 average and fifth in scoring with 8 points a game. He started in all 30 games a year ago.

"Mac's drawback is his experience and that is slowly, of course, being ironed out," Mike Montgomery said. "He has very good hands, plays a little bit bigger than he is because he has very long arms and has an excellent shooting touch. His strength right now is on offense.

"He can really score the ball," Montgomery continued. "We're really going to go to Mac a lot this year. He should be a very strong force for us offensively. We would like Mac to be a little stronger in the rebounding area, and hope he can stay away from fouls. With the added strength and confidence he has we expect him to be a force for us in the middle this year."

He scored a career high 19 points in a home win over Boise State and had a career high 16 rebounds against Linfield.

Larry played in 13 games as a freshman three seasons ago and started once. He made the best of his starting opportunity, scoring a career-high nine points, grabbing four rebounds and blocking two shots against St. Mary's College of California.

He was an All-State player three times at East Anchorage High School and state MVP as a senior. His senior team was state champion with a 23-1 record, and he averaged 19 points and 14 rebounds a game. During his varsity career his teams were 67-5. His coach was Chuck White.

Leroy has the unenviable task of taking over point guard with the graduation of three-year starter Marc Glass. However, he is one of the most experienced players on the team seeing considerable action since his freshman season.

He participated in all 30 games last year, scoring a career high 11 points against St. Martin's. He was the number three assists man last season with 73.

"We think Leroy will be a different type of point guard than Marc Glass," Montgomery said. "One thing that makes Leroy successful is that he's had a tremendous amount of experience of doing what we want him to do and that's running the club.

"He is very good with the basketball and has great quickness and is built low to the ground, and it is very difficult to take the ball away from him," Montgomery said. "He is extremely effective at leading the fast break and he will do an outstanding job at being a leader at point guard position."

He was the point guard for Long Beach Poly High School's 26-2 team his senior year and averaged eight assists a game. His 14-foot jump shot was the game-winner for his team as it won the CIF Championship. He was an All-City selection that year.

44 John Bates

6-8, 190, Forward
Junior from
Corvallis, Oregon

Potentially one of the finest shooters in Grizzly basketball history, John has an excellent touch and extremely quick release from 20 feet in. He is a fourth-year junior and big things are expected of him this season. He is one of the most experienced players returning in that he played in 27 games a year ago. He had a career high 8 points in three games in 1984 including against Northern Arizona in the first round of the Big Sky Playoffs.

"John is a streak player and he needs to become a little more consistent but I think that will come with playing time," said coach Mike Montgomery. "I think John will surprise a lot of people at the forward position. The veteran that he is I expect him to improve as his confidence improves with playing time."

He was a two-time All-State player at Corvallis High School. He averaged 18 points and 7.5 rebounds a game his senior year, when his team went 20-4.

As a junior his high school team was the Oregon "AAA" champion and compiled a 25-1 record. John was a first team All-State that season, as well as his final prep season. He was an All-Metro selection too. During his three-year prep career his teams went 65-12. His coach was Mike Doherty.

24 John Boyd

6-5, 190, Guard-Forward
Seattle, Washington

John saw limited action last season but with hard work in the weight room and on his shooting touch 1985 will be a different story for this scrappy, intense player. He will see action at the three position or at big guard.

"John is going to have to help us in a variety of different areas," Montgomery said. "He could play the small forward or big guard position and has the ability to help us in a situation when we have to take care of the ball. We are very excited about John's potential."

At Chief Sealth High School in Seattle he was an All-Metro and all-conference pick. He averaged 16.7 points and nine rebounds a game as a senior for a team that was 24-2.

He lettered three times in basketball and once in baseball. He was named a Converse All-American as a senior. His coach was Ray Jones.

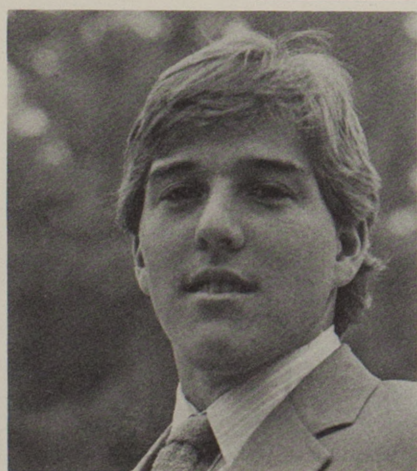

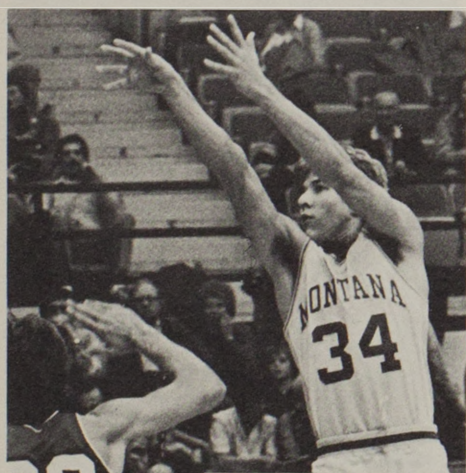

John's major is Spanish.

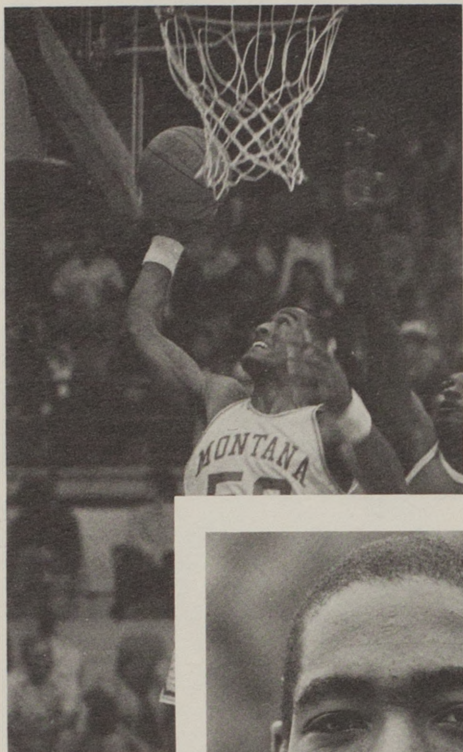

His favorite hobby is playing the guitar. His nickname is "JB."

32 Herb Jones

6-5, 200, Guard-Forward
Freshman from
Spanaway, Washington

A redshirt last season, Herb has greatly improved his shooting touch and could see action this season. He is perhaps the most explosive jumper at UM since Grizzly standout Derrick Pope.

"Herb is slowly coming into his own," said Montgomery. "He has great physical tools but is another player who needs to become more consistent and learn to understand the fundamental aspects of the game. He can make a spectacular play but he needs to learn to make the working man's play. He could be a great rebounder because he is a great jumper and reacts to the ball very quickly."

He was a three-year letterman in basketball at Bethal High School in Spanaway. He was an All-Puget Sound selection as a junior and senior. His senior year he averaged 16 points and 12 rebounds a game.

Herb was named MVP, All-State, all-league and a City All-Star selection as a senior. His coach was Mike Mullen.

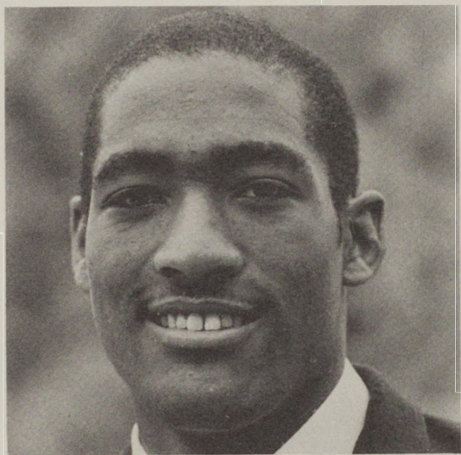

He was a member of the National Honor Society as a prep.

He is a Business major.

His hobbies are fishing, hunting and listening to jazz.

His parents are Herbert and Carolyn Jones of Spanaway.

Birthdate: July 19, 1965.

34 K.C. McGowan

6-5, 190, Forward
Freshman from
Missoula, Montana

A hard-nosed competitor, K.C. was a two-time All-State "AA" Player at Missoula's Big Sky High School. He was also an All-State tournament selection twice.

"K.C. is going to have to make a transition from being a top scorer and team leader at the high school level to a freshman at the Division I college level," Montgomery said. "He's going to need to concentrate more on handling the ball because at his height he's not big enough to play the power position. As most freshman his first year will be a learning process. The one thing that K.C. has is that he plays hard. He's a competitive kid who does whatever it takes to win and that's going to help us."

As a senior he averaged 21 points and 8.5 rebounds a game and shot 57% from the field and 75% from the free throw line.

He participated in the annual Montana-Wyoming All-Star Basketball Game. His prep coach was Bill Langlas.

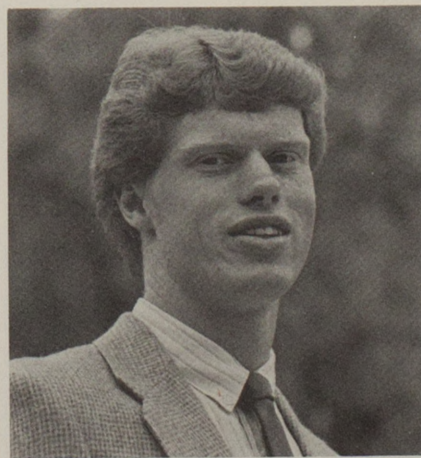

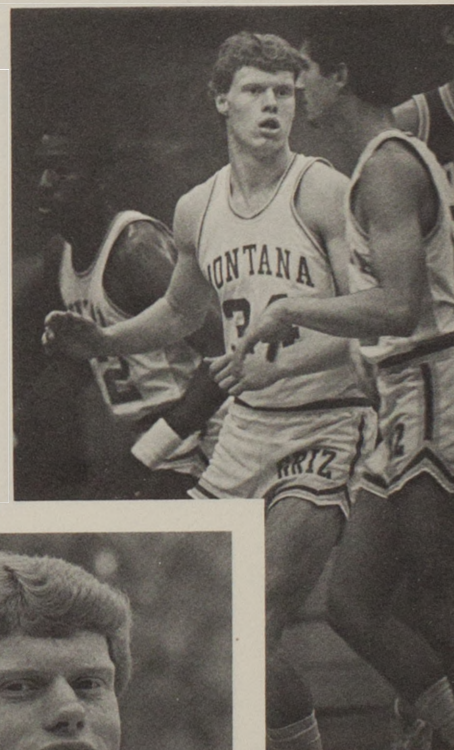

He was an All-American honorable mention selection in track and state high jump champion in 1984. He has a best of 6-10 in the high jump and competed in six events in the state track meet as a senior. He was a member of the National Honor Society.

He is a Business major.

His hobbies are golfing and water skiing.

His parents are Patrick and Suzanne McGowan.

Birthdate: November 22, 1965.

22 Todd Powell

6-3, 175, Guard
Sophomore from
Corvallis, Oregon

A third-year sophomore, Todd participated in only 8 games last year but dramatic improvement after the season and over the summer could add up to a starting berth for this versatile athlete. He will be battling for the starting spot at the big guard position with JC transfer Mike Wnek and letterman John Boyd.

"Todd is learning to control the emotional aspect of his game and that's really going to help him," said Mike Montgomery. "He is a tremendous athlete with a great outside shot and we are looking for him to really be an asset for us this year. He may be one of our best defenders because of his quickness and ability to cover the floor. I look for Todd to be in the battle for that starting job and he must help us this year for us to be successful."

He averaged 16 points, 6.2 rebounds and three steals a game as a senior at Corvallis High School. He was a two-time All-State player in basketball and baseball. His prep coach was Mike Doherty.

He was a prep teammate of fellow Grizzly John Bates and Weber State forward Randy Worster.

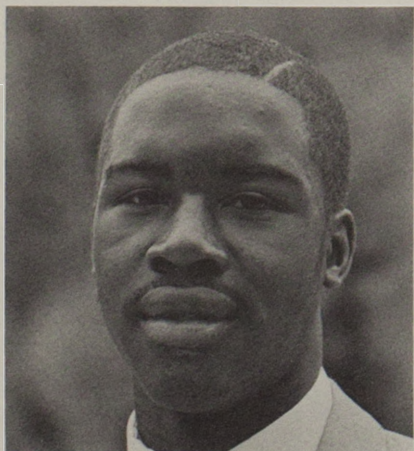

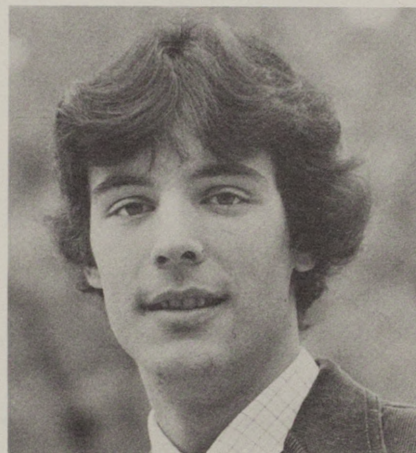

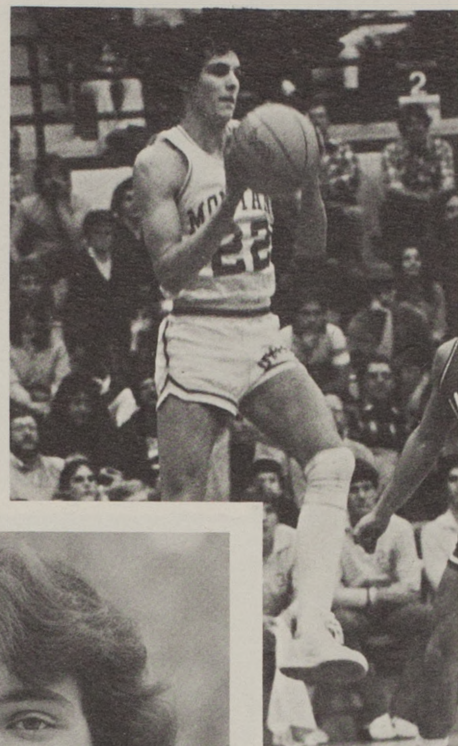

Todd is majoring in Accounting.

His hobby is ceramics.

His parents are Gary and Carolyn Powell of Corvallis.

12 Tony Reed

6-3, 180, Guard
Freshman from
Anchorage, Alaska

Many accolades came Tony's way as a star at East Anchorage High School. His prep teams won state championships his junior and senior years—and Tony was the state MVP on both of those teams.

As a junior he averaged 21 points, 7 rebounds and 6 assists on a team that was 25-4. As a senior he averaged 27 points, 9 rebounds and 6 assists for a 28-2 squad. His senior year EAHS won all five tournaments it participated in.

"As most freshmen we really haven't seen enough of Tony to pin-point where he can help us best," Mike Montgomery said. "We are very excited about his natural tools. He has long arms, big hands and controls the basketball very well as a result. At this point we feel Tony potentially has the ability to be a great player."

He shot for high percentages as a junior and senior, hitting more than 50 percent of his field goal attempts and 70 percent from the line.

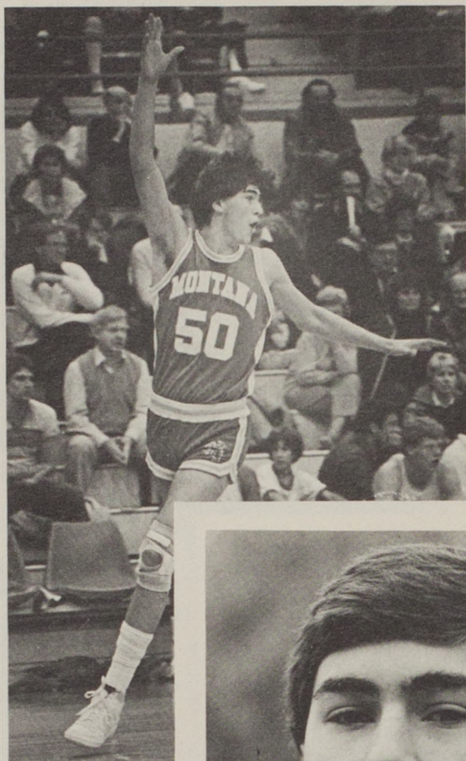

He was named to four high school All-American teams. His coach was Chuck White.

Tony is majoring in Business.

His hobbies are break dancing and reading.

His parents are Lee and Laura Reed of East Anchorage, Alaska.

Birthdate: March 24, 1966.

Wayne Tinkle

6-9½, 220, Forward-Center
Freshman from
Spokane, Washington

Wayne signed an early national letter of intent in November of 1983 and head coach Mike Montgomery and his staff are very excited about the potential of the standout from Spokane.

As a senior at Ferris High School he was league MVP, team MVP, team co-captain and participated in the state All-Star game.

He averaged 23 points and 9.5 rebounds for the Saxons which were 19-4 his senior season. He scored a league high 36 points in one game and had 20 rebounds in another, also a league best.

"If Wayne will work to improve his body strength he could be a great player," said Mike Montgomery. "He has very good hands for a big guy, handles the ball well, has a good sense of the game and has a very good shooting touch for a kid who is 6-9½."

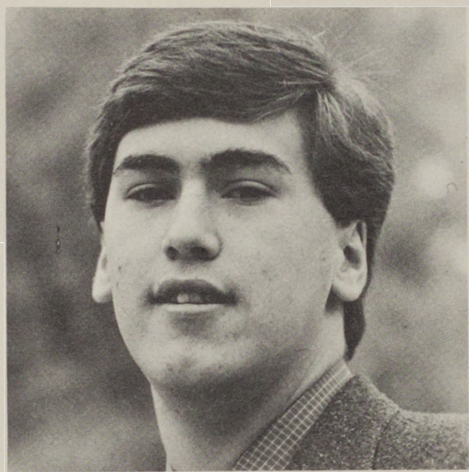

"If he's willing to put in the time and effort to work he could be one of the most outstanding basketball players ever in our program," Montgomery added.

As a junior he averaged 14 points and 10 rebounds a game and was his team's most improved player. His prep coach was Wayne Gilman. His major is undecided.

His hobbies are dancing, listening to music and water skiing.

His parents are Wayne and Elizabeth Tinkle of Spokane.

Birthdate: January 26, 1966.

Steve Vanek

6-9, 229, Center
Sophomore from
Warren, Oregon

Steve had a career high 5 points and 7 rebounds against Linfield College last season. He participated in 10 games at the varsity level.

"Steve's biggest asset is his rebounding and his defensive ability," Montgomery said. "He is a surprising shot blocker for a guy his size. He has a very good work ethic and runs the floor very well. He must learn to relax a little more on offense so he can fit into the offensive scheme better."

He was a two-time All-State player at St. Helen's High School. Steve set Oregon "AA" records in the state playoffs as a senior, scoring 113 points and grabbing 58 rebounds in four games.

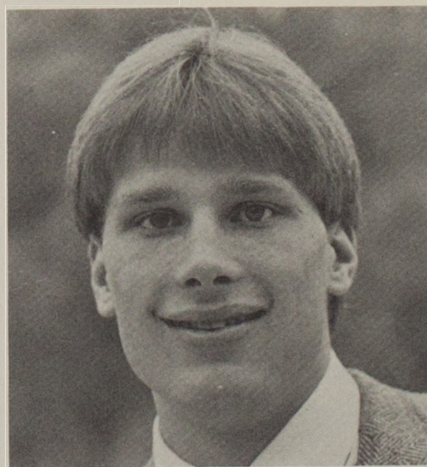

He was an all-conference player three times and averaged 24.4 points and 14.2 rebounds a game his senior year.

He is a Business Management major.

His hobby is listening to music.

His parents are Dave and Fern Vanek of Warren.

20 Mike Wnek

6-5, 180, Guard
Carson, California

A rare junior college recruit, Mike will be in the thick of the battle for a starting berth at the big guard position. His pre-season conditioning has been hampered with a groin injury. He is only the second JC recruit in Mike Montgomery's seven-year tenure as head coach.

He transferred from Clark Community College where he averaged 22 points and 5 assists per game as a sophomore. He was a first team all-league selection. He shot 52 percent from the field and 75 percent from the line.

"Mike is a very versatile player. He handles well enough to play point guard and has good speed and good guard skills at 6-5," Montgomery said. "He is a scorer as compared to a pure shooter. "We are excited about Mike's ability to fit into our basketball program and his versatility as a player. He gives us an added dimension as a player because he can fit into any of the positions vacated."

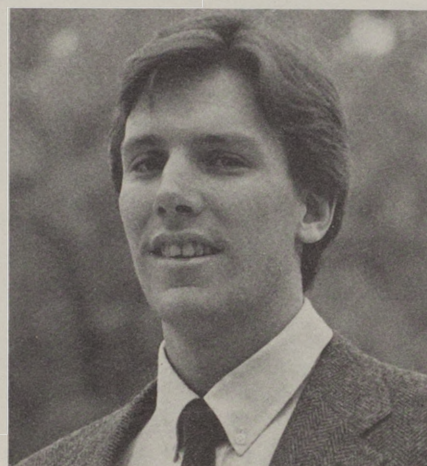

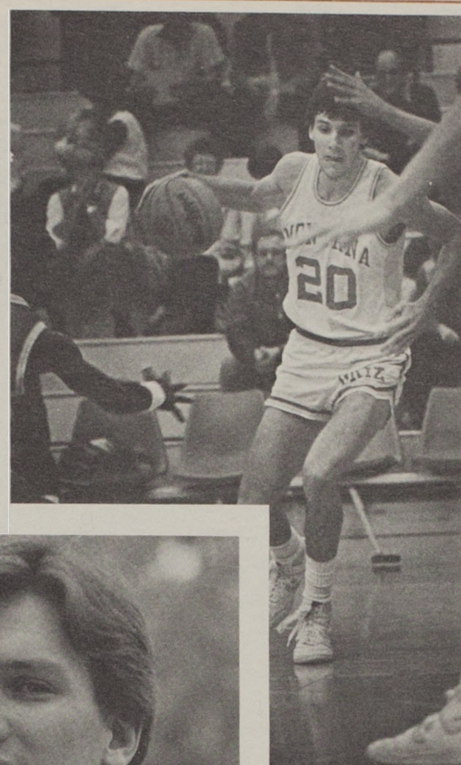

Mike was a two-time all-leaguer at Bishop Montgomery High School in Torrance, California. He was second team All-CIF as a senior and averaged 21 points that year.

He is an Education/History major.

His hobbies are reading, going to the beach and meeting new people.

His parents are Edwin and Patricia Wnek of Carson, California.

Birthdate: August 30, 1964.

10 Scott Zanon

6-0, 160, Guard
Sophomore from
Kalispell, Montana

Scott is recovering from a broken foot that he sustained this fall. He missed about three to four weeks of practice, but is still expected to vye for playing time at the third guard position.

He saw limited duty as a freshman, playing in 12 games but averaged almost 20 points per game in junior varsity competition.

"Scott is a tremendous athlete with great ability running and jumping and we're going to be in a little bit of a wait and see situation in how he comes off a broken foot injury," Montgomery said.

"Going into this year we felt Scott could definitely compete for a starting position and that he would be a player who would play a lot of minutes that we felt had to be a factor for us to have success."

One of the best athletes in recent Montana history, Scott was All-State in football, basketball and track.

He scored 996 points during his career at Flathead County High School. He was team MVP as a senior, an "AA" All-Tournament choice as a junior and senior and was the point guard for the Braves his junior year when they won the state title. He averaged 19.3 points and 6.3 assists a game as a senior. He played in the Montana-Wyoming All-Star Game.

His brother, Craig, was an All-Big Sky guard for the Grizzlies in 1980-81. His brother Rick was also a letterman in basketball at UM.

He is a Business major.

His hobbies are water skiing and golf. His nickname is "Z."

Big Sky Conference

The Big Sky Conference was formed in February 1963, when the presidents and athletic directors of six Rocky Mountain universities met in Spokane. The original conference members were Gonzaga, Idaho, Idaho State, Montana, Montana State and Weber State. Gonzaga entered the conference as a non-football playing school.

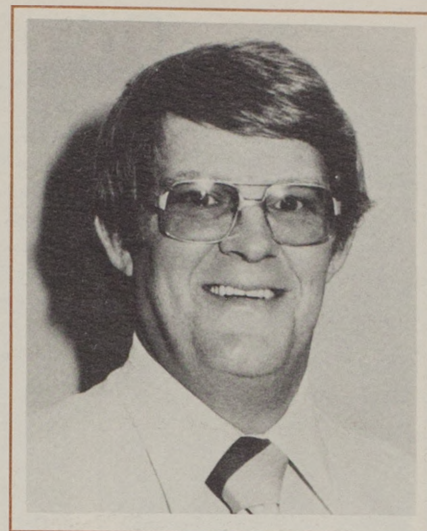

The conference derived its name from a pair of Montanans and a Washington sports editor. A. B. Guthrie, Choteau, Mont., wrote a novel titled "The Big Sky," and Jack Hallowell, former Montana State Advertising director, promoted the Big Sky theme as a nickname for the state. Harry Missildine, Spokesman-Review sports editor, picked up the name and in a sports column promoted the name Big Sky as the name of the conference. On Feb. 25, 1963, the conference adopted the name—Big Sky Athletic Conference.

In 1970 the conference expanded to include Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, Ariz., and Boise State College, Boise, Idaho. Both entered as football playing schools.

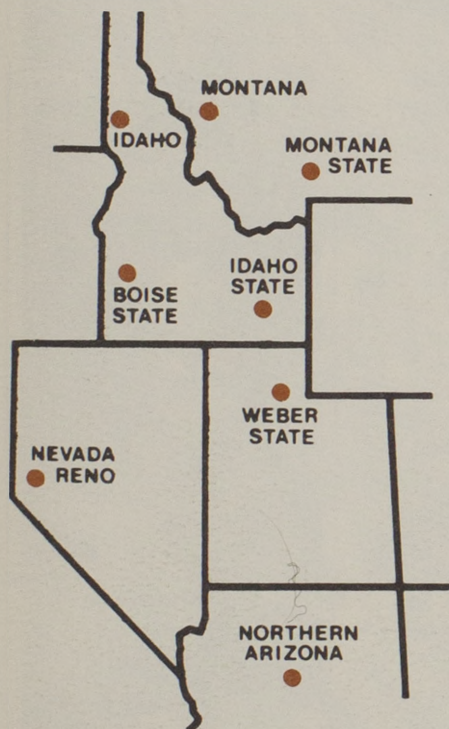

Nevada-Reno became the newest member of the Big Sky July 1, 1979.

Jack Friel became the first commissioner in 1963, and the offices were established in Pullman, Wash., Friel's home. Following Friel's retirement in July 1971, the offices were moved to Boise, Idaho, and John Roning was named commissioner. Steve Belko was named commissioner and assumed duties July 1, 1977, following Roning's retirement.

Ron Stephenson became the fourth Big Sky commissioner in May, 1981. A native of Idaho, Stephenson's most recent position was Assistant Athletic Director at Boise State. He has 18 years of working experience in intercollegiate athletics as a student, coach and administrator.
